CITY CORDIALS.

—The glorious Fourth is coming but the STAR CITY will get there just the same.

—Plattsmouth, in her determination to press to the front will stop a short time to honor her noble graves on May, 30th.

—Stephen Hulfish, postmaster, M. V. Wood and Dr. Deering, the editor, of Wabash were in town today on business with the county.

—The case of M. B. Murphy & Co. vs. Lewis F. Cole, a civil action for debt, was heard in the county court today before Judge Russell.

—The ladies aid society of the M. E. church will meet Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. Holloway corner of 1st and Marble st. Wintersteen hill.

—All young ladies of Cass county contemplating matrimony, but are to timid to tell the square truth, may hereafter consider themselves understood by stating that they are going to Lincoln.

—C. E. Wescott is offering a valuable prize—$50 cash—to his customers. Each dollar's worth of goods entitles the purchaser to a chance. The drawing will be held next October 15.

—School District 98 has recently voted $400. bonds for a school house to be located at Wabash. The bonds bear interest at 7 per cent. and are due in 6, 8, and 10 years, payable at the fiscal agency in New York City.

—J. Fitzgerald, the contractor, hitched a frisky horse belonging to J. C. Eikenberry with one of his mule teams hauling dirt this afternoon and thus created a little excitement on Main street. The combination was almost unmanageable and hauled a wagon load of dirt upon the sidewalk in front of Doves.

—A boy named Kroyd about 10 years of age, was buried by the county today. He died yesterday of diphtheria. The father of the deceased—John Kroyd—is a poor helpless man who lives on north Fourth street, and is supported by the county. For several years he has been unable to work, from palsy. Formerly he was employd in the shops in Steiner's gang.

—Sometime ago mention was made of the fact in the HERALD, that the masons of the state were soon to erect a home for widows and orphans. The time is now drawing near when the site of erection of that benevolent institution is to be selected. Plattsmouth has no public building of the kind—state, sectarian—private or otherwise. She has lots of room though, and would it not be well for inducements to be extended to secure this institution? An effort to secure the home will not cost anything if it fails, and if it is secured it will be worth to the city what it will cost to get it.

—The Mayer Bros. ball team, which will be here June 30, from Lincoln is thus favorably commented upon in today's Omaha Herald in the Lincoln department. "Lincoln is now confident she has the best amateur nine in the state. The two ball clubs of the city have been consolidated and the strongest men retained. The club will bear the name of Mayer Bros. and will be run under their patronage. The boys are expected to leave today to fill the following engagements: Juniata, 22nd; Kearney, 23rd and 24th; Grand Island, 26th, and 27th; Plattsmouth, 30th. The month of June will be spent on the Lincoln field and we will probably see some good games.

—Yesterday afternoon Sheriff Eikenberry received notice that Louisville had a crazy man, and was desirous of getting him to safe keeping. The sheriff started out with his bay team but they ran away with him just as he left the stable and were caught on north sixth street. The sheriff was bruised a little, and the buggy badly broken up. When Sheriff Eikenberry got to Louisville he found the trouble to be with Jas. Ingram who was not crazy but the report was due to a family disagreement. Ingram was arrested and brought to the city, but this morning Louisville parties came down and paid the costs of the arrest and made up the family trouble and he leaves for home this evening.

—Plattsmouth will soon have to quit playing love in the dark. Electricity is on its way here and is coming powerfully enough to turn night into day. The factory and power building in the western part of town are growing rapidly, the walls now being several feet high. All contracts are let for all machinery, which has been ordered, and it will be here to equip the building and motor line, in a few weeks. Electric lights are to be furnished at the standard rates and darkness will no where be any longer a necessity. Grading is now being done for the motor line and every movement is being made to hasten the work forward.

SATURDAY'S BALL.

A score of 9 to 6 in favor of West Omaha.

Saturday's base ball game came off as announced at 3 p. m. The weather was clear and quite pleasant overhead, but muddy roads and general run of the weather for the week had a depressing effect on the attendance. The score is as follows:

Innings.....1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9
Platts.....0 0 1 2 1 0 0 2 0-6
W. Omaha.....1 0 3 0 2 3 0 0-9

Base hits were, West Omaha 6, Plattsmouth 4.

The West Omaha nine proved to be a good club and they played well; as base runners they were good, probably the best set of men for that purpose that have ever played here. Their batting strength was well in the catcher and 3rd base man—Patterson and Linahan. Crow, their pitcher, was a colored man. Linahan made three hits and tallies and Patterson made two hits and three tallies so that two-thirds of the West Omaha score was made by these two men. The Plattsmouth boys played notably well in Omaha's fifth and eighth innings. In the fifth inning the Omaha's got 10 balls—nine being as few as they could be put out on, and in the eighth, eight pitched balls and a side out set them down on a goose egg.

Thursday, June 30th, will be a big day for the base ballists of the city. A game has been arranged to take place then between the Mayer Bros., team, of Lincoln, and the Plattsmouth team. Mayer Bros. are the best players in Lincoln and a grand game is expected.

W. Alton. Miss Anna Critchfield acted as bridesmaid and Mr. Horton, of Nebraska City as groomsmen. There were present a number of friends and relatives besides those from Plattsmouth. EDITOR HERALD: With your permission I desire to say a few words upon the question of voting bonds for the construction of a court house. I have not heretofore been in favor of Plattsmouth for the county seat but since the election demonstrated that a majority of the people of Cass county are in favor of Plattsmouth I am now convinced that the best interests of the property owners will be served by voting the bonds for the construction of a building in which the records of county will be safe.

We became so accustomed to the argument that the county seat should be in the centre of the county that we lost sight of the fact that Plattsmouth city and precinct, contain one-fourth of the entire population of the county and more than one-fourth of its taxable property, while more than another one-fourth is tributary to Plattsmouth. And I also believe that Plattsmouth is increasing in population much more rapidly than any other section of the county so that no great injustice will be done to the majority of the people by voting the bonds, and thus for the present, at least, relieve us of the almost incessant county seat agitation. But the question of most importance to the people of Cass county is not whether Plattsmouth should or should not be the county seat, but whether we should have a safe place for the keeping of the county records. They are now scattered about the town of Plattsmouth and in case of fire would in all probability be totally destroyed and I might add that the tax we will be called upon to pay in the event of an election favorable to the bonds will be very small compared with the loss we would sustain in case the records of this county should be destroyed by fire. The question therefore is not one of loyalty, or prejudice against Plattsmouth but is a matter of the preservation of the county's records, which appeals to the common sense of all property owners for support of the bonds.
