CITY CORDIALS.

-The base ballists are waiting for

-The men's gospel meeting at the Y. M. C. A. hall tomorrow will be lead by Rev. J. T. Baird.

-M. B. Murphy's bread delivery wagon will appear on the streets Monday.

-The HERALD publishes an article on the first page this evening which may be of special interest to school teachers.

-Frank Drummond and a Bohemian gang boss in the round house had a fist encounter yesterday, and Drummond got a six day lay off.

-All men in the city are cordially invited to remember and attend the men's gospel meeting at the Y. M. C. A. hall tomorrow at 4 p. m.

-Mr. Frank Morrison captured a large cat-fish in the Missouri this morning which weighed 624 pounds. When dressed it weighed 381 pounds.

-Board of trade committee appointed to make a proposition to the Masonic order of the state for the widow's and orphan's home have been active in their work. Propositions will be considered at Omaha Tuesday.

-For a small town with good credit and a bright future, none in Nebraska can eclipse Wabash, of Cass county. She boasts of having had an offer of 100 cents on the dollar for her school bonds recently voted, but is holding them for a premium.

-Miss Ella Watson, secretary of the Womans Foreign Missionary Society of the Nebraska Conferance of the M. E. Church is expected to address the congregation Sabbath Evening in the church of that denomination in this city. All members of the local W. F. M. society are requested to be present.

-The machinery belonging to John Thompson, who done the sewer work here last summer, mentioned in last night's HERALD at being loaded on the cars for shipment, did not get shipped. Timothy Clark levied upon it to hold it for the payment of a coal bill of about

-All Cass county seems to rejoice in the prospect now manifested for a year of abundance. The weather has been so favorable that the stand of corn is excellent, and farmers who had good seed only have to replant corn where it washed out. Some of the small grains are already heading, and the first cultivating of the corn is well under way. Young fruit exists in abundance.

-A Kansas exchange says: "The farmers of the west complain they are compelled to fight the chinch bug and grasshopper by day and the bedbug by night, and the 'big-bug' all the time. They fight hard and get whipped in every battle. The chinch bug and the grasshopper are taking their grain. the bed-bug is taking the little blood left in their bodies, and the 'big-bugs' are devouring their lands by the foreclosure of few years. The Gazette is an independmortgages. They begin te feel like Cainthat they want to make an example of interests of the people and it believes some one."

-- Last night a rhetorical prize contest of the pupils of the Council Bluffs high school was held in the opera house there. The morning papers comment highly upon the contestants, and the Bee speaking of Mr. H. M. Prouty, the high school principal, says: "Much credit is due Prof. Prouty for the careful drill and training that was necessary to the great success of last evening." Mr. Prouty is one of the applicants for the Plattsmouth school superintendency.

A Traveling Man Creates Creat Excitement in the Empire House. INDEPENDENCE, IOWA, Oct. 14, 1888.

Rheumatic Syrup Co., Jackson, Mich GENTS:- Your Mr. Brooks came here tonight and registered as agent for Hibbard's Rheumatic Syrup, and as he did so it awakened in me an interest never before realized in a guest at my house. You will not wonder at it when I tell you the story. For years I have been greatly afflicted with inflammatory rheumatism, the pain and soreness of the joints at times being almost unbearable; could move about only with the aid of crutches. In addition to this my stomach became badly diseased, and neuralgia set in, which threatened to end my day. traveling man stopping with me gave quite a history of your Syrup, and the peculiarities of its combination, which induced me to try it. I have taken six bottles and no act in my life affords me greater satisfaction than in writing you I am a well man.

It will be a pleasure for me to answer any communications, for I believe it to be the best remedy ever formulated.

The West End Talks Fair. Greenwood Gazette: Our readers wil peruse the facts set forth by the Plattsmouth board of trade carfully, in this issue. More than $4,500 has been spent in carrying on elections, for the county seat removal purposes, during the past ent paper and aims to advocate the best this money expending business should be stopped. The commissioners have ordered this election. The people elected the commissioners. There is not nor never will be any chance for the county seat getting any nearer the center of the county than it is. If it could be moved we should be heartily in favor of putting it in the center of the county, but that is out of the question, as Plattsmouth has too many votes, therefore we believe it to be for the best interests of our people to yote for the bonds and thus settle the county seat matters forever, but we want every man to vote independently and without bias. Vote for your best

M. B. Murphy & Co., will on the 27th of this month put on a bread wagon and will deliver Garneau's Snow Flake Bread. Parties wishing to be supplied also keep a supply of Bread at the store of Weckbach's.

OUR SCHOOL TEACHERS.

Sensible Letter from one Interested In Plattsmouth's School Facili ies

EDITOR HERALD: It is well, I think, that some attention should be paid to the selection of teachers, as well as to the election of a superintendent, for our schools. Previous Boards of Education have gone more or less on the theory that school teachers, like merchandise. should be purchased at the least possible price, and that there is no use paying a primary teacher $50 or $60 per month when there are plenty to be had at $35 per month. As a matter of fact a good primary teacher is more to be desired than a superintendent, if he does no more work than the present one has accomplished during the last year, and good primary teachers command larger wages in all communities where the importance of their work is appreciated, and I want to add that there is just as much need of thorough, experienced primary teachers in Plattsmouth as any other place, and I see no good reason why we should not secure such teachers, even if they come high. It would be money well spent, business. and young ladies who devote their entire time and study to maintain a high degree of excellence in their profession are worthy the encouragement given them in the nature of good salaries. Primary school teaching nowadays is a business or profession by itself and success in which requires training and study not embraced in High school courses, and for that reason I do not regard with favor the policy of preceding boards electing High school graduates to positions in our schools. Accomplished and worthy as they are, they are nevertheless lacking in that experience and drill necessary; to make them efficient, and I do not think that a town of the importance of Plattsmouth should employ amatuers simply because they can be secured at a less salthan more capable teachers. Speaking only from compliments and criticisms beard upon the streets I am satisfied that
