CITY CORDIALS.

—The monthly collector was out rustling today.
—Men's meeting at the Y. M. C. A. hall to-morrow.
—In time this is June 1. In weather it is hard to tell what it is.
—The scissor grinder was making his rounds today turning artistic edges on scissors and butcher knives.
—Secretary Bothwell will have charge of the gospel meeting at the Y. M. C. A. hall to-morrow. All men are invited to come.
—Tomorrow is Children's day at the Christian church, and services will be special for the occasion. All are cordially invited.
—Mr. N. Clemmons, who lives six miles south of town, called on the HERALD this morning and presented us with a basket of beautiful flowers, cut from his flower garden.
—There were five garnishee cases tried before Justice Pottenger yesterday. From the results of former garnishee cases, the young men would be wise to pay the debts without court proceedings.
—The tall cottonwood trees on Fourth street have been trimmed so that they make a fairly respectable appearance for cottonwoods in town, but if they had been trimmed down in the ground they would have looked better.
—Paving Foreman W. E. Waite, of Omaha, for J. E. Riley, under instructions of the board of public works, is laying the pavement approach from Main street into Richey street and will build a six foot sidewalk on the side of the street.
—Last night about 7:30 the B. & M. depot at Louisville, this county, burned. The fire originated in the freight room, supposed from a lamp, and was discovered by boys playing ball. Citizens turned out and removed all moveable property, and pushed away cars that were near the burning building. The fire had too much the start when discovered to be extinguished.

—The high school graduating exercises at Glenwood last night in the opera house drew a packed house. There were fifteen graduates and their orations are commented upon as very good and some of them as being worthy college graduates. Adrian College, Michigan, Callanan college, Des Moines and Tabor college Iowa, sent in scholarships to be awarded to the highest standing scholars, and they were received by Misses Ida and Alta Wrenwick.
—Quite a difficult feat was performed Tuesday in capturing bees in Rock Bluff precinct, by Mr. N. Clemmons. Last year a swarm entered a knot hole in Mr. George Oldham's residence, and made themselves at home between the siding and walls. On Tuesday last Mr. Clemmons, with the assistance of Elmer Siebold, removed the weather boarding and hived the bees. Several feet of comb had been built between the joists by the bees. Mr. Clemmons has quite a large colony of them.
—The ball game at the park yesterday afternoon between the Browns of this city and the boys' nine, of Weeping Water, was not played to a finish. In the seventh inning the Weeping Water lads threw the game up and refused to play because of what appeared to them partiality of the umpire. They "couldn't beat a nine and the umpire too," is the way they expressed it. When the game was thrown up the score stood Weeping Water 17, Plattsmouth 12, but the umpire called the game nine to nothing, in favor of Plattsmouth, which was his privilege on account of the Weeping Water lads refusing to play.

—The HERALD Job Rooms are the most complete in the county.

Morrow Grove Picnic.
Yesterday there was a most enjoyable school picnic party in Wm. Morrow's grove, between Rock Bluff and Murray. It was celebrating the closing of the Oldham school, and was joined in by the Murray school. Miss Lillie Hesser is the well known young lady who has had charge of the Oldham school, and Miss Tillie Gopen has taught in the Murray school. The school children, parents, grand parents, brothers, sisters, and all came out to the beautiful grove to enjoy the occasion. Mr. Hesser's organ was on the grounds, benches, tables and all things were at hand to fill the bill for a big day. There were declamations by scholars of the schools, and good singing, Miss Lulu Young playing the organ. The tables were loaded down with a great variety of good things and tastily decorated with flowers. Miss Hesser made a highly appreciated farewell address to her school, and they in return as a token of their high esteem for their teacher, presented her with a beautiful gold pen.

Plush Wigwags at Sherwood's
Watermans Opera House Tonight.
Mr. J. B. Polk in his new play called "Mixed Pickles," was welcomed back to Baltimore at Ford's opera house last night by a very large and enthusiastic audience, who went away delighted with the performance and everybody who took part in it. "Mixed Pickles" is classified as a farce comedy. It is new in its arrangements, bright in dialogue, life-like in its characters, realistic in its incidents, and irresistibly funny in its situations. The company is made up of admirable material, each person being thorough in the part of which he or she is assigned. The central figure is, of course, Mr. Polk, himself, who is an actor of rare comic talent. He is always natural and clever. Miss Julia A. Polk is vivacious in manner, has a sweet voice and plays her part well.—Baltimore Sup.
You will miss the funniest play of the season if you fail to go and see "Mixed Pickles" tonight.

COURT PROCEEDINGS

The Jury Finds Moon an Accessory of the Crime.

As mentioned last evening in THE HERALD district court was occupied yesterday in the case of State of Nebraska vs. M. M. Moon, in which two complaints were entered against the defendant, one charging him with being an accessory before the fact, to the crime of shooting David Hite Sunday, April, 21, which was done by a hired hand named Marsh, and the other charged him with being an accessory after the fact. A long list of witnesses was introduced and examined, and in the afternoon the pleas were made by the attorneys. County attorney Gering, and J. H. Haldeman, of Weeping Water representing the state, and J. B. Strode the defendant. The case was given to the jury about supper time and after being out about three hours returned a verdict finding defendant an accessory to the crime after the occurrence. Sentence will be passed by the court on the defendant Monday. The statute bearing on an accessory to felonious acts after their commission is as follows: "Any person found guilty of being an accessory after the fact, shall be imprisoned in the jail of the county for any term not exceeding two years, and fined in a sum not exceeding five hundred dollars in the discretion of the court, to be regulated by the circumstances of the case and the enormity of the crime."
After the verdict was received court adjourned to meet Monday, June 3rd, and last evening and this morning the witnesses, attorneys and jurors returned to their homes and farms to take a look at the crop prospects and come back Monday ready to grind out justice to whom justice is due.
The cases set for hearing Monday are State vs. Wm. Smith; Feder, Nusbaum & Co. vs. Solomon & Nathan; Nebraska and Iowa Insurance company vs. Wm. H. Smith; The Western Horse & Cattle Insurance Co. vs. Henry F. Bunte et al.
