

The Evening Herald.
OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY.

Dr. A. Sallmeyer has the exclusive right to use Dr. Stein's Local Anesthetic for the Palates Extraction of Teeth in this city. Office Rockwood Block.

Dr. Withers, Dentist, Union Block.

CITY CORDIALS.

No doubts were expressed today about the weather being warm.

Two carloads of "Dagos" went through last night bound for the west.

The wall of the Martin block on Main street is complete to the second floor.

Mrs. Al Dorrington, of Chadron, who has been visiting in this city, returned home this morning.

A couple of swarms of bees were this morning shipped by J. M. Young to J. M. Biggs, at Sterling this state.

Geo. E. Oswalt, a lad about 9 years of age died at his home on Granite and Eighth streets last night of meningitis.

Mr. A. Edwards and family, who have lived in Plattsmouth for sometime, left this morning for Cheyenne, their future home.

The Browns are expected to play a good game of ball tomorrow afternoon with the Bellevue boys. Game will be called at 2:30.

Lost.—A ladies' gold watch, neatly engraved, gold locket attached, set with garnet and pearls. Finder return to Mrs. Kate Oliver, corner of Vine and Third streets and receive reward.

Monday morning the B. & M. began running its own sleeping cars on Nos. 5 and 6. These trains have heretofore carried no sleepers, while the others have run with Pullmans.

J. V. Egenberger received a handsome delivery wagon from Racine Wis. this morning which he will run in the connection with his bakery. John Leach now has the wagon in charge for some artistic lettering.

Yesterday morning when the Schuyler train came in it brought a car load of tea which was taken from No. 4 at Ashland and returned to No. 4 here. The car was en route from San Francisco to Chicago, and had $697.95 of bonded freight charges against the tea.

The corner of Sixth and Main streets now presents a very lively scene. The concrete of the foundation is being laid in the south trench. Hauling stone, brick and dirt continues, but soon the walls will begin to grow, and the magnificence of what the new hotel will be can be appreciated.

A sad sight, to those acquainted with the circumstances, at the depot last night, was the arrival of Mrs. H. S. Garrison and little daughter from New York, where they went early in May to visit and enjoy the trip, expecting to return to their happy home, but an electric message turned happiness to grief, and called them back to attend the funeral and mourn for the loving husband and father, who was taken fatally ill in their absence and died Monday morning.

The erecting of the South Park tabernacle is progressing rapidly. This house of worship will have many advantages during the hot summer and fall months. It is located high up on a South Park hill, and is surrounded by beautiful shade trees. The building is built with windows enough for ventilation to catch the refreshing breezes. It is the first building of the kind ever attempted in the city, and evidently a successful future is before it. The formal opening will occur next Sunday at 2 p.m., and all the ministers of the city are expected to be present and take part. Everybody is cordially invited to come.

Mrs. Wm. Owens who left here Monday evening with two little children and her sister, Miss Celia Carr, for her parents' home at Jackson, Ohio, died yesterday on the cars at St. Louis. When she left here she was in the last stages of consumption and the misery and want which she endured at the hotel called home by her husband north of town for years, could only have been lived through for the sake of her little ones in which she had hope for their future. There were better times in that home in former years, and before leaving the city the poor wife and mother related brighter days in the Ohio home, but after coming to Nebraska several years ago the worthlessness of her husband took possession of him, and everything in the family home went but the children and the life that was in them. Owens reacted toward his family and their friends in the most unreasonable manner and used very profane and threatening language towards them. After receiving news of his wife's death yesterday afternoon he was put under watch by the officers, for threats of vengeance on those who were instrumental in sending his wife home, but he cooled down in his mind and went home about 9:30. The little boy who was retained by him is about ten years old and is a subject of pitiful dependency upon a careless father, for his daily bread and training for manhood.

City Surveyor Smith made a survey today for the grading on Sixth and Pearl streets. The contract was let to H. C. McMaken at 14 9-10 cents per cubic yard. It is estimated 5,000 yards will be necessary to do the grading.

At a shooting match at blue balls at the fair grounds yesterday, by the gun club; Mr. Orlando Teft, of Avoca, carried off the club badge. He and W. P. Cook tried, and a contest for championship between the two resulted in favor of Teft. The club will have practice shots about once a week this summer.

Jay Gould may feel a sense of pride as he rides along in his palace car over mile after mile of railroad he can call his own, and so may the owners of Jay-see, Maud S., or even Duke of the Bonner stables, take pride in them when they are out on exhibition, but there can't any of them show it more honestly than their colored brother "Ned" when he drives out the avenue or down Main street behind faithful old Bill in his spring wagon. It is true Ned is a little bashful for fear some one will say something, but to see him would make Jay ashamed of himself.

CRETE CHAUTAUQUA ASSEMBLY
Arrangements are Being Made for the Largest Meeting Ever Held in the State.

Much interest is being taken just now in the coming meeting of the Nebraska chautauqua assembly which will be held at Crete, Nebraska, from June 27th until July 9th inclusive.

The Chautauqua idea has grown to such an extent, and the annual meetings have been so largely attended—last year over 30,000 persons being admitted to the grounds—that the Crete assembly has become to be recognized as one of the most important of our state institutions. This year the management has planned to make the assembly of 1889, in every way, superior to anything of the kind ever attempted west of Chicago. Such men of recognized talent as the Rev. Alexander McKenzie D. D., a trustee of Harvard University, Hon. Geo. W. Bain, Rev. Geo. P. Hayes, D. D. and others equally well known will take part in the exercises, and Corporal Tanner, Comr. of Pensions at Washington, and ex-Gov. Cumback of Indiana, will deliver addresses.

Plattsmouth has taken so much interest in the assembly that this year the B. & M. railroad has decided to make a rate to Crete of one fare for the round trip on three days—June 27, 28, and July 1, tickets to be good until July 10. On other days the rate will be one and a third fare for the round trip. It is hoped that Plattsmouth will be largely represented on the grounds and do her part in encouraging an organization of such substantial merit.

A Happy Woman.

Happy is the woman without bodily ills, but happier is the woman who having them knows of the saving properties of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. When relieved, as she surely will be upon a trial of it, she can contrast her condition with her former one of suffering and appreciate health as none can who have not for a time been deprived of it. The "Favorite Prescription" correct unnatural discharges and cures all "weakness" and irregularities.

MINOR-VALLERY.

A Grand Wedding at the Vallery Mansion Last Night.

Last evening Mr. P. C. Minor and Miss Katharine Vallery were married at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Vallery, parents of the bride, three miles west of this city, Rev. J. T. Baird officiating.

There were present many relatives and a few friends from this city, and the relatives from abroad were Mrs. S. O. Minor, of Omaha, mother of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Ball and Miss Lillie Fry of Louisiana, Mo., Mrs. Anna, and Mr. Minor and Floy Wier, of Omaha; Mrs. L. A. Dorrington, Chadron; and Mr. Geo. W. Vallery of Cheyenne.

The groom was dressed in conventional black with bouquet of white roses, the bride's costume was of white Henrietta cloth, with plain trimmings and bouquet of beautiful white roses and Stephanotis; Dr. T. P. Livingston and Miss Amelia Vallery assisted in the ceremony as groomsman and bridesmaid. The groomsman was dressed in continental black with pink roses, and the bridesmaid in white serge cloth with plain trimmings and bouquet of pink roses.

Throughout the festivities of the evening were grandly appropriate. Mr. Minor Wier sang several solos which were highly appreciated on account of his rich and well trained voice. The hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Vallery was extended to the guests by a rich wedding feast in which all heartily participated. Many elegant and useful presents were given.

Mr. and Mrs. Minor will reside on Chicago avenue near South Park, in an elegantly furnished cottage prepared by the groom. Many friends extend congratulations to the couple.

All invalids not benefited by present treatment, are invited to call at parlor of the Riddle House Fridays. Physicians will be welcome.
