CITY CORDIALS.

R. W. Hyers, returned this morning from Lincoln.
—Services at the Tabernacle in South Park tomorrow at 2 o'clock.
—Services especially for children at Rockwood hall tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock.

—Lost.—A lady's gold watch, neatly engraved, gold locket attached, set with garnet and pearls. Finder return to Mrs. Kate Oliver's, corner of Vine and Third streets and receive reward.
—Plant him in silence and shed not a tear, scatter tomato cans over his hair; burn all the grass that may grow on his grave, chop down the tree that would venture to wave; give him no coffin but tumble him down, into a wagon and haul him from town. Sit on his form on the way to the tomb,—nothing to bad for the arch traitor's doom, place a cheap hand grenade there on his breast, also a fan and a scersucker vest. These he will need when he journeys below, down to the furnaces where he will go. This is the man who would ask—O, the the tough!—"Well do you think that today's hot enough?"

"They Mean Business."

For many years the manufacturers of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy have offered in good faith, $500 reward for a case of Nasal Catarrh which they cannot cure. The Remedy is sold by druggists at only 50 cents. This wonderful remedy has fairly attained a world-wide reputation. If you have dull, heavy headache, obstruction of the nasal passages, discharge falling from the head into the throat, sometimes profuse watery, and acrid, at others thick tenacious mucous, purulent, bloody and putrid; if the eyes are weak watery and inflamed; if there is ringing in the ears, deafness, hacking or coughing to clear the throat, expectoration of offensive matter, together with scabs from ulcers, the voice being changed and has a nasal twang; the breath offensive, smell and taste impaired; sensation of dizziness, with mental depression, a hacking cough and general debility, you are suffering from nasal catarrh, the more complicated your disease, the greater the number and diversity of symptoms. Thousands of cases annually, without manifesting half of the above symptoms result in consumption, and end in the grave. No disease is so common, more deceptive and dangerous, less understood, or more unsuccessfully treated by physicians.

DEATH ANGEL'S CALL.

For THE HERALD. (In memory of little Edgar Ospalt. Respectfully inscribed to the bereft.)
The Angel of death had a mission one night. Which the Lord of Creation of him did command— 'Twas to visit the earth in the absence of light And call home a young soldier of "Daniel's band."

But the Lord gave command ere he hastened away. Not to be too severe, and come back ere the dawn; And obeying at once what his Lordship did say, Was off and was back before some knew he was gone.

He hastened at once to the earth clothed in black. To fulfill at his will the mission he bore. He culled at a cut—yet they were not slack— But some knew that death's Angel stood just at the door.

Death called and away: It was only a dream; But he'd taken the last one remaining of five. But we still have a hope, what a glorious theme, Nor Princes, nor Kings can the mourner deprive.

For we knew he was valiant for God and the right. Although he'd not been in the field very long; He had a broad griddle, a shield that was bright, And all needed armor with spirit full strong. May we learn of death's Angel, obedience and work. As the Master doth send, from the high to the low. Let us glean for the Master, and not try to shirk. Then as death calls us we will be ready to go. O. T. WOOD.

Flower Mission Day.

The Y. W. C. T. U. have one day each year, June 8, which they celebrate as flower mission day, in honor of the birthday of Miss Jennie Cassady, of Louisville, Kentucky. The day is celebrated by taking flowers in bouquets with scriptural texts attached, and visiting the poor, the sick and the prisoners in jail, where flowers are left and services held of song and prayer. Miss Cassady, whose birthday this celebrates, is an invalid lady, but is much interested in the Young Ladies' Christian Association. She furnishes the texts to give with the flowers. The young ladies of that association celebrated flower mission day in this city today, visiting the poor families and jail this afternoon.
