

The Evening Herald.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY.

Dr. A. Salisbury has the exclusive right to use Dr. Steinar's Local Anesthetic for the Painless Extraction of Teeth in this city. Office Lockwood Block.

Dr. Withers, Dentist, Union Block.

CITY CORDIALS.

The pressed brick for the front of the Martin block has arrived.

Tomorrow night there will be held a meeting of the high school alumni at the office of Dr. Cummins. All are requested to attend.

Rev. John Byers, the evangelist who is holding tent meetings on court house square, also holds afternoon bible readings at 3 o'clock to which all Christian people are invited.

The street car track has been taken up on Chicago Avenue and down the line to Third street, and the laying of the new route for the electric motor is rapidly progressing.

Last night a party of young people gathered in Fitzgerald hall to have a grand picnic of dancing and sociability. It was in honor of Frank Jackson, whose young friends wished to celebrate his departure for Denver.

The contemplated social and ice cream supper to be held in the South Park tabernacle will be given on Friday evening of this week. There will also be a musical and literary programme produced, to insure the cheerfulness of the occasion.

The idea seems to have gotten out that the firm of Covell, Polk Bros. & Root had accepted the case of Weeping Water in a suit on the voted bonds, to prevent their issuance. The idea is a mistaken one as no such case has been accepted by the firm.

The funeral of Mrs. Elizabeth Murray, held from the undertaking establishment of Henry Boeck this morning at 10 o'clock, was attended by many of the deceased's children and relatives in this county. Rev. W. B. Alexander, of the M. E. church conducted the ceremonies.

The sealed vote of all the precincts and wards in the county have been returned to County Clerk Critchfield except those from Weeping Water city and precinct, Mt. Pleasant and Avoca. These are expected tomorrow. The Plattsmouth ward votes have not yet been made public by the clerks of election.

The county commissioners set today as a board of equalization and will continue several days. Among the business transacted was the letting of a contract to build a bridge below Weeping Water for 1889. The contract for painting the county poor farm was also let to John Schwartz, of Nehawka, to be painted according to specifications for $115.

The HERALD is in receipt of a pamphlet entitled "Wyoming's Resources" issued by the department of the interior and sent to us as the compliment of S. D. Shannon, secretary of Wyoming. The pamphlet contains a complete review of that territory's advantages, with all state and county officers and their place of residence, and is dedicated to homeseekers and investors.

Mr. Geo. R. Chatburn, who has creditably and acceptably held the position of the Plattsmouth school for four years, has resigned, having been re-elected recently, and will go to Humboldt, this state, where he has been elected as principal of all the schools. The position is more remunerative than the one he now holds and will be a position of more responsibility. His departure from the Plattsmouth schools will be regretted but he leaves with the best wishes of many friends, who are pleased to see him enter upon a broader field of labor.

PERSONALS.

TRUE ECONOMY.

The following few lines on economy have been handed to THE HERALD. The first two verses sound like a dry goods merchant might have written them while reflecting on careless young men, but this is not the case, as the author has had an experience lesson of his own and knows whereof he speaks.

It is not true economy, this everyone knows. To stick to and wear an old suit of clothes and ponder and figure on what they cost until your cash through the ragged old pocket is lost.

True economy is neither selfish nor stingy. And dwells not in halls that are dark and dingy. Although her increase in wealth is steady and sure. She spares no expense her vaults to secure.

Unselfishly speaking and with due sincerity. If there's one thing needed for Old Cass' prosperity. Its the complete extirpation of sectional factions. And safety for the records of her peoples' transactions.

A divided house cannot long stand. Be it ever so powerful, wealthy or grand. And continued litigation will seal a country's fate. As quickly as that of a man o'er his estate. (E)

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

New Teachers Elected-Ballot on Superintendent-Prof. Chatburn Resigns.

A special meeting of the Board of Education was held at the office of W. C. Showalter last night. Meeting opened with balloting on superintendent of city schools. Three ballots were taken resulting, Kauffman 3, Drummond 3. This question was then laid aside and the election of school teachers taken up. Teachers elected last night were Misses Valley Holloway, Riddle, Fulmer, Martin, Grace Wiles, and Cora M. Sloneker, of Montrow, Iowa. This leaves six or seven teachers yet to be elected to fill the corps, quite a number having been elected at a previous meeting.

The resignation of Prof. Geo. R. Chatburn as principal of the high school was read. Mr. Chatburn was recently re-elected by the board, but principalship (superintendent) of the Humboldt schools was a more acceptable and that position having been offered Mr. Chatburn, he accepted. As yet no one has been elected his successor.

Board adjourned.

District Court.

This morning court resumed the case of Gordon vs. Covell & Polk. In this case plaintiff seeks damages from defendants claiming that because of negligence on the part of defendants he lost a suit and costs. Claiming he had paid them for appealing to the supreme court which they did not do. The case was tried before Judge Field. The jury received their instructions at 11:15 a. m. and are still out.

This afternoon Judge Chapman presided in the court, but no jury trial came up.

Attorneys in attendance at court today were M. A. Hartigan, Hastings; Haldeman, Travis, Gibson and Wooley; Weeping Water; E. C. Montgomery, O'Day and Davis, Omaha.

He Was Too Honest.

"I try to be a man of my word," he said, as he entered a Cadillac eating house yesterday, "but I can't always do as I promise."

"What did you want?" asked the proprietor. "You gave me a square meal on tick two months ago. The bill was forty-five cents. I promised to pay in six weeks, but I am a little late."

"I don't remember the circumstance," "Perhaps not, as you are a big hearted man, but I do and here's your money."

The proprietor pulled in a $2 Canadian bill and flung out the change, rather disgusted with the man's honesty. Ten minutes later, however, this disgust had changed to admiration. In making change he took a closer look at the bill, and on the back he found the stamp: "Suspended 1884."—Detroit Free Press.

Progress in Asia.

Central Asia, and more particularly central western Asia, has undergone a revolution during the past quarter of a century. Railroads are being built and telegraph lines connect all important towns. Roads are being macadamized and European costumes and customs are adopted. Education, especially, is fostered where it was unknown; and there are ten times the schools there were, besides colleges established by foreigners. Religious freedom is quite general in the place of bitter fanaticism; and all classes are waking up to new intellectual and moral life. The lower classes look up Asia, at the present rate of progress, will be regenerated during the twentieth century to co-operate with Europe and America.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat
