OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY.

Dr. Withers, Dentist, Union Block.

CITY CORDIALS.

South Park concert and ice cream supper at the tabernacle tonight.

On Sunday, June 16, the M. E. church of this city will celebrate children's day.

Mail service westward in the morning has been transferred from No. 5 at 7, to No. 1, at 9 o'clock.

Miss Carrie Holloway entertained a party of young people at her home on Winterstein hill last night.

A grand time is reported by a party of young folks who went out to the home of Moses Dodge, west of the city last night.

Parents and school children are asked to notice the school regulations for next week—examination week—published in another column.

Tomorrow a grand picnic will be held at the Wabash grove and lake. That is becoming quite a picnic resort, and is truly a pretty place.

Plattsmouth might not come out the little end of the horn if she should prepare for a grand Fourth of July celebration, and invite the whole of Cass county to enjoy her hospitality FREE.

At the gun club shoot yesterday J. P. Antill captured the badge on a score of 8 out of 10. In two weeks, on June 26, a grand shoot is planned for and a large attendance by the club members is expected.

Mr. S. Waugh and E. L. Oppermann are trying to work up enough supporters to organize a lawn tennis club. Such a club would furnish delightful recreation and amusement to any who will unite actively with the club.

The time has now arrived for the verdant youth to steal the verdant cherry. School loses its attraction and the cherry tree looks tempting, and the desire of the appetite gets the better of the desire of the mind. If it is a good boy he places his hands on the waist band of his pants and moans dolefully, after the night comes.

Plattsmouth is not the only town that is having continual public discussion of the dog and cow question. The Tecumseh Journal is firing at the dogs and sizes them up like this: It has been scientifically and satisfactorily demonstrated that a dog with a muzzle, is as useless as a dog without a muzzle, but not half so dangerous. Scientific research, aided by history has also developed the fact that a dead dog is just as useless as a muzzled dog, and is not at all dangerous. Therefore a dead dog is the best kind of a dog to have."

A great display was given free of charge to all who were on Main street last night from 7 to 8:30 o'clock. The fire boys were soaking the dirt on the pavement from the hydrants and afterward turned the hose to the ground with full force of water. The dirt was packed in one hard cake and the water would plow under it, peel it from the pavement in great flakes. It was an exhibition of hydraulic power and reminded old timers of hydraulic mining. It also demonstrated the magnificent water power which Plattsmouth has in continual readiness to cope with a fire.

The Y. L. R. A. will hold a business meeting on next Tuesday, June 18th at the home of Miss Margaret Streight, corner of Vinc and 4th streets, at which it is hoped every member will be present.

Mr. H. G. Race, editor of the Weeping Water Eagle was in the city today and while heartily and freely engaged in conversation with several gentlemen at M. B. Murphy's store, was presented a "hog in elegant shape" by Mr. Murphy. It was a china hog of latest fashionable design for voting purposes, or at least was understood as such. A glass dish for mounting was also furnished for the hog to be carried upon. Mr. Race accepted the hog with the heartiness that the joke was deserving and promised that when the court house was complete the hog should be present to take part in the bridal ceremony.

The following is applicable to all counties in Nebraska. It is section 14 chapter 82, compiled statutes, 1887: "The grave of any such deceased soldier, sailor, marine shall be marked by a headstone, containing the name of the deceased and organization to which he belonged or in which he served; Provided: It shall be the duty of the county commissioners, or supervisors in counties under township organization, upon the death and burial of any such soldier, sailor or marine residing within such county at the time of his death, to make application to the general government for a suitable headstone as provided by act of congress, and cause the same to be placed at the head of such deceased soldier's grave."

GOING TOO FAR.

Weeping Water Republican will Stir up Bitter Feelings for Strife.

Bounds of Reason and Truth Overstepped in Anxiety.

The Weeping Water Republican has estimated Plattsmouth's vote at 1,680, and announced that the bonds were defeated by 450 majority against them. Following the tabulated vote giving this majority against, the Republican proceeds to state:

"When it was given out in Plattsmouth that their vote was 1,680, they supposed there, that they were in possession of the correct returns from all precincts, but they were not. Since then they have found that they were defeated and have claimed that their vote was all the way from 1,800 to 2,800. That several hundred votes have been placed in the box, down there, since election day will, no doubt, be proven, if not proven it will always be believed to be true, by the west end people. Plattsmouth is making a dying struggle, and when they saw they were beaten by the honest voters, they had no hesitancy in claiming votes to the amount of half her population. Have the taxpayers of this county not had enough of this rotten work by the thieving, bulldozing rascals at the county seat? Four times they have been cheated out of an honest vote, on removal of the county seat. Now the Republican wishes to ask them if they are willing to sit with folded arms and submit to this fifth and most outrageous insult against justice and good government? Again, we appeal to the farmer, is it right that his vote should be defeated by the vote of a man who pays no tax, is not a resident of the county, and who received a $1.50 for his his vote?"

Gentlemen, the time has come for action and we are in favor of fighting this bond election fraud to the bitter end!"

In the anxiety, caused by the consciousness at the time the above was written, on the part of the editor of the Republican, that the bonds had carried, the editor stated more than is reasonable in order to induce the west end to take up the cry of fraud and resistance.

The Plattsmouth vote was the first to be turned over to the clerk, and long before the vote of Weeping Water was known, whether it was 400 or 1,200, all Plattsmouth's ballots were safe in the county clerk's hands. The Republican has not even used guessing qualities in his statement, and the county canvassing board after going over the vote failed to find a case of ballot box stuffing. It may be hard for a few who are fanatically affected on this county question to consider the matter fairly, but to rant around about fraud like as the above does and call up the people to open enmity is not right. But all the west end are not so Woolley headed it can be pulled down over their eyes, and have reason blinded to facts. If there had been anything wrong with the ballot the canvassing board would have been more liable to have discovered it than the editor of the Republican, who at the time he wrote the above was in darkness as to the county's vote.

Carter vs. Gibson.

This case of Carter vs. Gibson, as stated in last night's HERALD, is one that is attracting a great deal of interest. The case is not only interesting but involves a great amount of land near Weeping Water, which is very valuable. As gleaned by the HERALD scribe the case could be briefly stated like this: Mr. John M. Carter owned a fine 160 acre farm south of Weeping Water. Becoming quite heavily indebted to Mr. B. A. Gibson, a mortgage was given on the farm for the indebtedness. Afterwards fifty acres of the farm was laid off in town lots, part in Carter's addition to the city of Weeping Water, part on Walnut Hill and a few more lots in another addition. From Mr. Carter's side: Mr. Gibson then proposed that the land all be turned over to him till he should sell enough lots to cover the mortgage—about $16,000—and then the land remaining should return to Mr. Carter. A contract to this effect was drawn up and about 100 of the lots sold.

Mr. Gibson holds that the land all belongs to him by virtue of sheriff's sale and deed and the contract should be set aside as not being a legal instrument, hence the suit.

All day yesterday and this morning the time of the court was occupied hearing the case, followed by cross examinations. A great many people of Weeping Water were familiar enough with some circumstances of the case to be called as witnesses, among whom were the following:

Witnesses for plaintiff: Chas. Philpott, John Philpott, E. A. Sackett, R. L. Wilkinson, Fred Race, Wm. Lineback, Chas. Meeer, G. H. Dennis, J. Bishop, J. Clizhe, M. Smalley, Jas. Sumner, Lew Reeves, E. Comer, Wm. Gilbert, Tom Elliott, Mr. Phillips, Mr. Anderson, J. Jordan, Mr. Parcells, Jas. Sperry, Mr. Jenkins, Mr. Fitzpatrick, Wm. Carter, Henry Carter, Geo. Woods, H. G. Race, S. F. Girardet, Wm. Sperry, Chas. Bracks, J.

The evening hour will be devoted to the children's concert, and a good time is expected. A badge will be presented to each member of the Sabbath school, which will prove a souvenir to the occasion. The badges will be given out at the Sabbath school in the afternoon, and it is desired that every member of the school should be present. Those who may not be present in the afternoon can be supplied in the evening.

Will not alert parents and others who have the care of children belonging to the school see that they are on hand.

HORSE THIEVES.

Two of them Pass Through Plattsmouth Today.

Night before last a man stole from the barn of Mr. Edgerton, a farmer living 7 miles west of Hamburg, Iowa, an iron gray mare, described as follows: Dark iron gray, weight 1,100, 4 years old, left hind hock larger than right. The thief crossed on the ferry this morning and rode through town going west. The rider is described as a man 5 feet 10, weight 160, dark mustache, black coat and vest, brown striped pants. Mr. Edgerton rode over on horseback to this city today and gave the alarm after the thief had gone through.

Marshal Dunn received notice this morning also of the theft of a bay mare from Missouri Valley, Iowa. Weight, 900, white star in forehead, one white hind foot. This mare and thief also came through Plattsmouth and made for Nebraska city.

Marshal Dunn and Ed. Fitzgerald went west and W. D. Jones and Chas. Rutherford went south to look for the thieves. Jones only expected to go to the fair grounds, but as he thought he "smelt" his man he continued to Nebraska City.

Died in Germany.

Word was received here this morning by Mr. Fred Goss of the death and burial of his little 10 year old daughter, Alvina. The little girl was sick considerably last winter here in the city and early in May left for Germany in company with her sister Mrs. Jas. Fetzer and her mother. All the way over the ocean she was very sick, but a letter yesterday announced better health in Germany and today came the sad letter announcing her death and burial on Decoration day.
