OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY.

Dr. A. Salisbury has the exclusive right to use Dr. Steinar's Local Anesthetic for the Painless Extraction of Teeth in this city. Office Rockwood Block.

Dr. Withers, Dentist, Union Block.

CITY CORDIALS.

—Louisville will celebrate the Fourth of July.

—The cleaning of Main street was finished today.

—Remarks about the weather still continue to be in order.

—Henry Weckback & Co. have put on a brand new delivery wagon.

—A number of cardinal red birds were offered on the street for sale today.

—Frank Albee and Miss Louise Erhart were today granted permit to wed.

—The funeral service of Freddie Bauer occurred this morning at 10 o'clock from the Catholic church.

—The Plattsmouth Building and Loan Association had a meeting last night at the office of Skinner & Ritchie.

—Cass county's credit is good in advance. Parties were telephoning from Omaha yesterday desirous of purchasing the court house bonds.

—The ball game this afternoon was a subject of considerable comment, but the heat was the dreaded feature of those who desired to witness it.

—Strawberries! Well we should remark. M. B. Murphy had on exhibition in his store today a dish of the largest strawberries ever in the city. They were the "Bubach No 5" raised by J. G. Bubach, of Princeton, Ill.

—Last night a party of people were highly entertained at the home of Conductor Chase. The party was in honor of Miss English, of Lincoln. Some rich music was played for the company by Misses White and Vivian.

—A party from this city were in Omaha yesterday taking deposition in the case of Robertson, trustee of Ellen V. Davis' estate vs. M. D. Polk, et al, before special commissioner Potter, and adjourned last evening to meet in Plattsmouth July 3.

—Comparing last fall's vote with the vote of Hastings this spring, Weeping Water is nearly as large as Hastings. At the special election in Hastings this month for court house bonds 1,308 votes were cast. At Weeping Water last fall 747 votes were cast.

—Harry Archer, of Rock Bluffs, who is working on the foundation of the new hotel building was overcome by a fainting spell brought on by the heat today and had to quit work. While working he became dizzy and blind and leaving the wall came up on Sixth street to go to the shade but fainted in the road. Cold water was applied to his head and hands and he soon revived and was taken to his brother Michael Archer, opposite the B. & M. shops.

—This morning Rev. Father Carney, of the Catholic church performed the marriage ceremony for Mr. Joseph Hidar and Miss Kate Janda. The bride was gorgeously attired and after the wedding the bride and groom with the groomsmen and bridesmaids, from Omaha, were driven to the photograph gallery and their pictures taken. Today was a grand holiday at the bride's home in the west part of the city and tonight a grand wedding time will be had.

—Miss Carrie Wood who recently took up her abode in this city, daughter of Rev. J. M. Wood, is thus highly praised by the home paper in Minnesota: "Miss Carrie Wood closed a very successful term of school in district No. 41, last Friday. Many of the patrons of the school and all the members of the school board were present at the closing exercises. Miss Wood, during her short stay here, won the respect of all who knew her, and the pupils not only loved her but idolized her, and with tears in their eyes stepped forward to bid her farewell. She goes from here to Nebraska."

—The boating park at Wabash is becoming a great resort and its reputation extends out beyond Cass county. Last Saturday a combined Sunday school picnic of Wabash, Elmwood and Louisville drew a large number of people to the park. This beautiful resort occupies about forty acres of grass and timber land lying on the border of Wabash and along the Lincoln branch of the M. P. The lake is about a mile in length and is made up of spring water, and although it is artificial, being made in a part of the old creek bed from which the water was directed by building the road, there is no danger of a Conemaugh valley flood, as the outlet of the dam is safe.

All invalids not benefited by present treatment, are invited to call at parlors of the Riddle House Fridays. Physicians will be welcome. J14 d & w 1m.

THE BALL GAME.

Plattsmouth Done Up on a Score of 6 to 3.

Yesterday afternoon was quite hot but the attendance at the ball park was not equal to the merits of the game played. The Norfolk boys were out on their muscle, and sized up pretty well for a ball nine. The home team compared well with the visitors and before the game opened and during the first four innings there was considerable speculation as to who was going to get there, while our team was active, good natured and all played in earnest. Norfolk took the bat first and went out without a tally. Plattsmouth followed in their tracks and four innings for each side recorded only an "0" to their credit. The visitors scored the first tally in the fifth followed by the home team with two one to two in favor of Plattsmouth excited those praising the home team and made them jubilant for the game was proving close and interesting. The sixth witnessed three more for Norfolk and one for home, 4 to 3 in favor of the visitors. Innings seven and eight Norfolk was marked "0" but on the ninth they scored two more tallies, while Plattsmouth was scooped, leaving the score

Plattsmouth	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
Norfolk	0	0	0	2	1	0	0	0	3
Umpire	—Harry Green, Morris O'Rourke, Frank McCoy, Scorer—Chas. Sherman.

The game this afternoon was called at 3 o'clock, with a prospective larger attendance than yesterday, and lots of interest and expectations for the success of our own team.

STATE BOARD OF TRADE.

A Meeting of all such Organizations Called at Omaha June 26

Kearney Hub: The Omaha board of trade has issued a call to the various local organizations of the same kind throughout the state to send delegates to a convention to be held in Exchange hall, in that city, June 26. Replies have been received from over thirty organizations favorable to the plan which originated with a suggestion of Dr. Marden, of Kearney. The Omaha board of trade recognized the value of such a convention and with commendable spirit took hold of the matter in earnest. While Kearney would have liked to have had the convention here, it was recognized that more good could be accomplished by holding the convention in the largest city of the state. It is planned to select a permanent central committee of nine, with a prominent man for president. This committee will establish an office at some central location, and receive reports from local boards, distribute advertising and take other steps for the benefit of the state at large. The plan is similar to one adopted by the Texas state board. All counties containing no regular boards of trade are entitled to representatives chosen by the county officers. The call is signed by H. T. Clark, C. O. Lobeck, G. W. Liminger, Louis Heimrod and W. N. Nason, the secretary of the Omaha board, who is largely instrumental in bringing the matter forward so successfully.

Eight Mile Grove.

Corn looks well and is growing very rapidly.

The buttonhole bouquet is the victim of a great many comments.

Mr. Ross Morrow is over in Iowa attending to a matter of business.

Mr. Steve Barker steps high and wears a broad, fatherly smile—it's a girl.

Mr. George Ruby brought cherries into town last week and delivered them for ten cents a quart.

It is a very poor locality indeed that can't support one gentleman. We have a thoroughbred, but his tongue is entirely to free.

A middle aged man one day last week while on his way to the southeastern part of the state stopped at the store of Walter Jenkins and satisfied the cravings of the inner man, and then went his way rejoicing.

I have from my earliest existence among this people been laboring under the impression that we were an enterprising community, full of enterprise and vigor, and as a civilized people had pride and respect for those who have gone on before to their happy resting place, but when we glance at the cemetery as we pass by and see the disrespectful scenery of shrubbery which has been allowed to grow up and hide from view the graves where our friends lie in silent rest, our once happy thoughts seem to be lost. For respect's sake, if nothing more, we should take action on this matter and have our cemetery fixed up decently.

A Comfortable Home is one where a man that is weary can rest himself upon a neat sofa, if he is hungry he can go to the cupboard or safe and get something to eat, if he is thirsty he can draw a glass of cold water from the refrigerator, if he has company he can show them into a neatly furnished parlor and give them an elegantly arranged spare room, if the wife has sewing she can rest comfortably in a low rocking chair, in going out to call a fine dresser is at hand to arrange the appearance before and there is always a hat rack in the hall to keep personal property on and a jar to receive the wet umbrella. Be comfortable and happy and furnish your house from the Furniture Emporium of HENRY BOECK.
