CITY CORDIALS.

—The graduating class had their pictures taken today in a group.

—A. S. Green, who was hurt by the caving dirt yesterday, is reported better today.

—John G. Robbins returned last evening from attending the S. of V. encampment at Holdrege.

—As fast as brought in by the farmers the canning company is putting up fine Cass county peas.

—Remember the fare on the Sunday School excursion next Tuesday is $1.25 for the round trip and 65c for children.

—A party of young men will represent the Plattsmouth Y. M. C. A. at the Cottonwood gospel meeting tomorrow morning.

—Today was the time set for the opening game of cricket, but on account of the absence of E. L. Oppermann from the city the game was laid over.

—As regards the location of the Masonic state home for widows and orphans the HERALD is informed that Omaha will be the city, but the selection of the site is yet to be done.

—All those who desire to accompany the M. E. Sunday School on the excursion to Cushman Park should not fail to purchase tickets from some of the committee by Monday afternoon.

—The trenches for the Second Presbyterian church to be erected in Mercer-ville are completed, and the material for building is being hauled to the ground. On next Monday morning masonry work will begin on the stone foundation.

—The four o'clock gospel meeting for men on Sunday afternoon in the Y. M. C. A. hall is a place where all men are invited and made welcome. Strangers in the city tomorrow are specially invited to attend.

—On complaint of Wm. Osborn, Geo. Parker was arrested this afternoon and brought before Judge Clifford on charge of being disorderly and using profane and threatening language before ladies. The case was heard at 3:30 o'clock.

—Commencing this week the B. & M. vestibule trains, Nos. 1 and 2, make Bellevue a regular stopping station, slowing up to a speed of two miles per hour, allowing passengers to get on and off. This is a move that citizens and Bellevue people will appreciate.

—The J. E. Riley hotel building, the HERALD is informed by Supt. Varnaram, has this week given employment to fifty men, and that is a good working force for one concern. A glance at the walls started shows a modern and substantial plan.

—County Judge Russell today united in the bonds of matrimony at his office, Mr. Joseph Narousek and Miss Fannie Kritnar, Bohemians of this city; and permit to wed was also granted to Mr. E. S. Jones and Miss Emma Ruth, a couple from the south part of the county.

—THE HERALD is in receipt of editorial compliments of the Nebraska state fair association for 1889. On one corner of the card is embossed a figure of a maiden with two ears of yellow corn—one under each arm—with the inscription "Nebraska's Annual Offering." The fair opens September 6th.

—Mr. W. F. Shelton, the sewer contractor and builder from St. Joe, has been in the city several days on business connected with his work in this city. Responsible parties went on his bond and the sewer machinery, which was attached, is being shipped, having been released. The money held back as security for the satisfactory working of the sewer is now due, the sewer system having been tested and approved, and that matter will probably come up in council Monday night. The property being shipped, which was attached, was appraised at $475.

1889. COMMENCEMENT. 1889.

Eighth Annual Graduating Exercises of the Plattsmouth High School.

A Class of Five Young Ladies Enter the "Commencement" of Life Beyond the School.

A Rich Banquet to the Graduates.

Once more a Plattsmouth high school class of graduates has made its debut before the people of this city. Last night was the eighth annual, a class of five young ladies. At 8 o'clock attendants began filling the opera house and at 8:45 the curtain arose and the graduating class of 1889 presented before the audience. The young ladies were all becomingly attired in white and cream colored costume, with ornaments of rich pink and white flowers.

Prof. Drummond announced the opening of the exercises and the benediction was pronounced by Rev. J. T. Baird. Miss Anna Livingston was pianist for the evening. A class of nineteen young ladies sang the opening chorus "The Clicking of the Gate" in a beautiful and praiseworthy manner. The essay by Miss Carrie Greusel, "Untouched Chords," was full of good thought. "Why we are not Permitted to Look into the Future," by Miss Ella Wright, pointed out the wisdom of the Creator in giving only hope to guide and lay our future before us. The essay was read with a most graceful delivery. The class of young ladies then sang "The Old Rustic Bridge," song and chorus. These young ladies deserve mention for their clear musical voices and the beautiful manner and time observed in the songs.

Miss Annie Heisel followed with an essay entitled "Our Sixpence," taking values and comparisons and plainly showing that small actions are the sixpence of the great acts of our life which bring distinction upon ourselves and win friends, characters and reputation. Miss Ollie Matthews read an essay on "Paid in his own Coin," clearly demonstrating what the subject implies, that with what measure we mete it is measured unto us again. Misses Matthews and Greusel favored the audience with an instrumental duet, "Marches Militaires," which was grandly applauded.

"The Magic of Kindness," was an essay complete and well constructed, by Miss Mamie Stiles.

Then followed the presentation of diplomas, by Hon. B. S. Ramsey.

The closing chorus was sung by the young ladies, entitled "Happy be thy Dreams," and the programme was finished with the congratulation of the friends to the graduates.

THE BANQUET.

After all the proceedings at the opera house were complete the five graduates were escorted to the large parlors and dining hall of the Riddle hotel where a grand banquet feast was awaiting them, tendered them by their alumni friends. At the banquet Prof. Drummond was toastmaster. The address of welcome was delivered by Miss Birdie Houseworth and a response was made by Miss Ella Wright. "Education and Progress" was a toast by Mr. Chas. Sherman, and Miss Hattie Latham responded to the toast "Our School Life." The banquet was an affair highly enjoyed and greatly appreciated by the new members. The menu was extensive and elaborate.

Spiteful Meddling.

The Plattsmouth school affairs seem to have taken a course this spring that is unpleasant, and somebody, who evidently understands the facts, and is prejudiced, has taken it upon themselves to do some spite work with innocent parties. Prof. Geo. R. Chatburn has for several years been principal of the high school, and the position was filled acceptably and faithfully, so that he was re-elected this spring, but being offered and elected to the superintendency of the Humboldt schools—a preferable position—that was accepted and resignation immediately tendered to the Plattsmouth board of education.

Yesterday Prof. Chatburn received letters from W. W. Turk, a bank cashier and E. P. Tinker, members of the school board of Humboldt stating that they had received information, (but from the source it came they doubted its truthfulness), to the effect that Mr. Chatburn had accepted the principalship here again, after accepting their proposition to him, and desiring to hear from him the truth. A reply was immediately telegraphed that the Humboldt position had been accepted in good faith and was the only one in view. The "information" given the Humboldt board was evidently from some party with a personal grievance to spite.

Mr. Chatburn goes to Humboldt with the full confidence of scholars and friends that he will prove a valuable servant of the schools there.

Dr. Parsell, of Omaha, will visit Platts mouth every Friday. Rooms at the Riddle hotel, office hours from 4 p. m. to 6 p. m. Chronic cases and diseases of women a specialty. J14 d & w 1m Did She Care?

Yesterday a party of ladies were discussing that serious question of the boys going away from home and getting married. When the question had been well ventilated by each of the party and there seemed to be no encouragement or help, one of them exclaimed in a tone that was emphatically of the last resort: "I don't care, darn it, all the boys are going away and getting married!"

Sensible People

will have nothing to do with "cure-all" medicines that are advertised to cure everything from chilblain to a broken neck. Read the list of diseases that Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will cure: Affections of the throat and lungs, incipient consumption, disordered liver, sore throat, bronchitis, asthma, catarrh, ulcers, tumors and swellings caused by scrofula and bad blood; fever and ague and dropsy. This seems like a cure all but it is not. This great "Discovery" will really cure all these complaints simply because it purifies the blood upon which they depend and builds up the weak places of the body. By Druggists.
