OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY.

Dr. A. Salisbury has the exclusive right to use Dr. Steiman's Local Anesthetic for the Painless Extraction of Teeth in this city. Office Rockwood Block.

Dr. Withers, Dentist, Union Block.

CITY CORDIALS.

—People still make suggestions about the weather.

—Chas. Dabb has opened a job print shop in the Fitzgerald block.

—The Plattsmouth gun club meeting was broken up last night by the storm.

—The commissioners and county treasurer are making the annual settlement.

—According to the number of lawyers in Plattsmouth her population is 19,763.

—License to wed was today granted to Chas. Sterner and Miss Hulda A. Peterson.

—Dr. A. Shipman is preparing to move into the rooms on Main and Fourth streets formerly occupied by the Y. C. A.

—On July 4th a ball game will be played at the park between Plattsmouth and West Omaha, or the U. P. shop team.

—Plattsmouth can boast of her elevated railroad before long. The credulous are invited to visit the tressel work on Elm street.

—Regular meeting of the W. C. T. U. Thursday afternoon, at three o'clock, at the residence of Mrs. S. A. Davis, on Pearl street.

—Last night W. J. Hesser shipped to Peck Bros., of Omaha, thirty-one crates of raspberries. It was a pretty good day's "pick."

—As summer advances it still continues to be a notable feature of the STAR CITY, that new houses and many improvements are under way.

—Posters are up announcing a grand Fourth of July celebration at Morrow's grove, seven miles south of this city and one mile east of Murry. J. A. Davies and Matt. Gering will be the orators of the day.

—Carload after carload of stone machinery and building material arrived in Plattsmouth this year against wagon loads of former years. The next assessor's valuation of Plattsmouth will put her up in the millions.

—A nice cottage, small but after the plan of a large and costly residence, is being erected north of the electric lamp factory building, as the property of John Herman, a shop carpenter. A cupola with winding stair adorns one corner.

—The advance man with part of the scenery for "One of the Bravest" arrived this morning and is getting the scenery in place for tomorrow night, the balance of scenery will be here tomorrow morning. Those who miss seeing this play tomorrow night will miss a performance perhaps never to be seen again in our city.

—Two more members have been admitted to the Cass county bar—Messrs Tom Walling, who is in the law office of Byron Clark, and E. G. Vanatta, who studies with his father. The examination was held last night, attorneys, Clark, Sullivan, Davies, Ramsey and Root being the committee. The applicants stood the examination creditably.

—Tonight an assembly of representatives of the boards of trade of the state, convenes at the Chamber of Commerce in Omaha. The meeting is called to take under consideration what will be to the interest of the state commercially and adopt plans to advertise this state and induce immigration. The committee to represent Plattsouth are Messrs R. B. Windham, F. E. White, O. H. Ballou, D. A. Campbell and C. W. Sherman.

—Our citizens will please remember, that the production of "One of the Bravest," next Thursday night is not the first performance of this great play, for it was played all over the country at the large cities in week stands only last year and the company is now on their route to California, and Plattsouth is lucky to get them to stop here. It was through Manager Young's efforts and considerable correspondence with M. B. Leavitt that they were secured, and they should be greeted with a full house, no advance in prices.

The Cricket Club.

The way the cricket club is succeeding is liable to again illustrate that nothing succeeds like success. Tonight the committee on rules meets and will report at the club meeting tomorrow night at the office of Ballou & Browne. The following outfit has been ordered, to cost about $90: 2 pairs wicket cap gloves; 2 pairs leg guards; 1 set of stumps, brass capped; 2 bats—double cane; 2 bats of cane; 2 Duke's balls; 2 J & C's balls; 1 rule book, and 1 score book. All those who desire to associate themselves with the club as members are requested to meet at the office of Ballou & Browne tomorrow night.

Dr. Parsell, of Omaha, will visit Plattsouth every Friday. Rooms at the Riddle Hotel, office hours from 4 p. m. to 6 p. m. Chronic cases and diseases of women a specialty. J14 d & w 1m

ELECTRIC ENTERPRISES

The Work That is Being Done Extensive and Substantial.

Track being Laid—a High Tressel Work—Building Proceedings—Arrival of Machinery.

A Great Work being Erected.

An investigation of the operations now proceeding to the erection of the electric lamp factory, the electric street motor and electric light system will reveal somewhat of the magnitude of the enterprises, and the fact that these are all undertaken and started at the same time necessitates a great deal of managing and labor.

Contractors Jones and Fitzgerald are building the track for the motor line, and doing a great deal of grading on west Oak street which is first necessary. The track is mostly complete from the power building on Oak street and Mercer avenue to Elm and Eighth streets. A passing switch is being constructed on Elm between 11th and 12th streets and "Y" switches will also be built at the termini on Mercer and Lincoln avenues and Main and Oak streets. On Elm between Sixth and Seventh streets a high tressel work has been built over the railroad. The ties and rails are all at hand to complete the track. "T" rails being used except on Main street where the flat rails will be used. The Western Engineering Co., having the contract for planting the Sprague electric system, have the poles and some material at hand and soon they are expected to have a force of men at work.

At the factory and power buildings the masonry work on the outside walls is nearly completed, and carpenters are doing their portion of the work and the floor and overhead rafters are now being laid. The west end of the building (first floor) will be occupied as the boiler room and coal bin and east of this room will be the engines and electric dynamos, two for lighting and two for railway motor and four for factory power. On the west side of the building will be erected a smoke chimney sixty feet high on which will be placed a 4,000 cable power light.

The foundation trenches have been dug for the boilers and they are on the cars side tracked in the yards. The machinery thus far received is the water heaters, engines and boilers, which are powerful and heavy pieces of machinery. Much other machinery is expected daily, bills having been received for all of it.

When the motor, light and factory machinery and material is all placed the greatest plant of the kind will be working in the state.

Saw the Town.

Yesterday afternoon THE HERALD scribe wanted to see the town, and as the electric motor cars were not yet in operation, took the next best way and secured a horse and cart. The roads were not muddy neither were the hills unusually steep, but the bumps all seemed to be at home and the steed was an old timer and could strike every one of them. After traversing a few miles in an indescribable course, the scribe halted on that beautiful knoll west of the city, where that becoming structure—the Second Presbyterian church—is being erected, and there also is the contemplated end of the electric motor, and it also proved to be the end of his ride. This mellow Nebraska soil that we like to talk and read about was being worked in the road with the plow and scraper. The approach from the knoll was steep, the furrow deep and the horse in entering the road got in a hurry, the cart got sidewise and then it got edgewise and the scribe got out-dumped out. A rope, a gun, and a tare, the horse and cart sped away and as the scribe, crushed to earth, rose again, he felt that the horse had played a trick on him. Ahead, men, horses, plows and scrapers cleared the way and were side-tracked with an alacrity that would have done credit to those escaping from the Conemaugh flood. Then came the beautiful grove at the electric power house; here the managers were basking in the breezes. They heard, they saw, they searched a place of safety. Horse, cart and harness came in the grove, cut a spread-eagle and went out of the grove together, and everybody said they never saw the like. Then there was another body of graders; they realized something passed through the cut. Following down the hill, the fleeing object continued with the full right of way. The cart here became discouraged and came loose. It had missed a golden opportunity in the grove to get smashed, and let go, either because there were no small boys ahead to run over or else it was ashamed to go to town in such good condition. The guard around the seat was gone, the ends of the single tree were broken and a shaft was cracked. The horse continued on to its home with part of the harness, which had proportionate luck with the cart.

The scribe had seen the town, or at least all he expects to see for sometime, for after his conveyance vanished, over the hill top and coming along he found a strap here, a rod yonder and the cart there, he felt a weakness in his purse that made the linings draw close together. Consoling friends said it was luck that anything remained, but they exaggerated the facts and the right parties deserving credit for good harness and stout vehicles.

LEONA.

If you have the bronchitis, you often are hoarse. Your throat is raw and smarting; you're hacking of course. And if you're not careful, the first thing you know your lungs are attacked, and disease lays you low.

By using Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, bronchial affections and all kindred complaints can be cured, but if neglected, they often terminate in consumption.

A Comfortable Home is one where a man that is weary can rest himself upon a neat sofa, if he is hungry he can go to the cupboard or safe and get something to eat, if he is thirsty he can draw a glass of cold water from the refrigerator, if he has company he can show them into a neatly furnished parlor and give them an elegantly arranged spare room, if the wife has sewing she can rest comfortably in a low rocking chair, in going out to call a fine dresser is at hand to arrange the appearance before and there is always a hat rack in the hall to keep personal property on and a jar to receive the wet umbrella. Be comfortable and happy and furnish your house from the Furniture Emporium of HENRY BOECK.
