

The Evening Herald. OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY.

Dr. A. Salisbury has the exclusive right to use Dr. Steiman's Local Anesthetic for the Painless Extraction of Teeth in this city, Office Rockwood Block.

Dr. Withers, Dentist, Union Block.

CITY CORDIALS.

There are no flies on the corn these days and nights.

F. S. White is making extensive repairs on his premises.

Oliver Dovey is building him a nice brick residence on the corner of Sixth and Oak streets.

The Herald has mowed down its weed patch, and congratulates itself on having set a good example.

The city council will meet in special session tonight. Several matters of importance are to be considered.

Carpentering and brick masonry work have been begun on the sister's residence on the Catholic school grounds.

The ball game yesterday afternoon between the first nine and the Browns, resulted in a victory for the first nine of 4 to 0.

The case of Boeck vs. Grace before Judge Stiles yesterday afternoon was decided in favor of defendant. The jury finding defendant not liable for the amount assessed him by plaintiff.

Phil Krause got in a crate of water-melons this morning. The small boys couldn't reach them, but they stood around with open mouths and sized up the generosity of every man that brought one.

H. M. Bailey arrived in the city this morning from Schuyler and secured a permit to wed Miss Sadie Stueker, of Weeping Water, and went on his way rejoicing. Mr. Bailey was a Cass county boy.

A most interesting scene is that afforded an observer standing on Main and Sixth streets. From there fifty men and more than a dozen teams can be seen laboring on improvements for the city of Plattsmouth.

A usual audience witnessed the production of "One of the Braves" at the opera house last night. The play was unusually long, but the fire scene was very taking. The company just starting upon its tour organized for the season.

County Clerk Crotchfield has prepared a brief of the special bond election. It comprises all the proceedings connected with the election: commissioners' proceedings, calling, notice, canvassing of vote, affidavits of clerks and judges of election, sheriff and county clerk, etc., all of which will need to be attached to the bonds when sold.

In response to an invitation, last night a bible class of ten young men with President Waterman and Secretary Bottwell of the Y. M. C. A., gathered at the home of Miss Maggie Straight, on Vine and Fifth. When the bible lesson of the evening was concluded the class was invited to a supper of ice cream, cake and berries. The party ended after singing many beautiful hymns, and thanking the hostess for the hospitality and favors of the evening.

Teaching school is not a soft sit, but it is a place of responsibility and merits good instructors of ability. The school marm is the guiding star of the republic. She takes the little bantling fresh from the home nest full of his pouts and passions; ungovernable little wretch, whose own mother frequently admits that she sends him to get rid of him. The school marm takes a whole car-load of young anarchists, half of whom, single and alone, cannot be handled by their respective parents, and at once puts them in the way of being useful and upright citizens. In this there is an expense of patience and soul-weariness, worthy consideration and recompense.

A telegram from Lincoln last evening announced that action would be brought in the district court there before Judge Field, to have an injunction issued against the commissioners of Cass county, enjoining them from issuing bonds for a county court house. The title of the case is not known. Webster, of Lincoln, and Woolley, of Weeping Water, will represent plaintiff, while Sullivan, Clark and Gering left this morning to represent defendant. In injunction cases of this nature it is legal for a court to issue a temporary injunction at request of plaintiff without first notifying defendant of the proceeding, but by request the court compelled plaintiff to notify defendant.

According to the Elmwood Echo, that city is soon to have a park that will outstrip anything in the country, and that with but a very little extra work. Dame nature has provided for this in the way of a beautiful supply of fresh clear water, on the place of C. D. Clapp. The proposition is to dam Stove Creek where the little stream from the east empties into it and back the water up across the peninsula, thus covering from ten to twelve acres with water for boating purposes. The old picnic grove may be fixed up and a beautiful park will be the result. A stock company will be formed and the grand good move will be pushed right along.

WILL IT BE DONE?

Work Contemplated That Will Place Another Round in Plattsmouth's Improvement Ladder.

Measures That Would Operate With Much Good.

It is not the order of the day to sit down with folded hands and observe the rapidly progressing improvements that are so extensive and say that the town is booming, but it is the order to go ahead and see how much more can be done this season. Sixth street is the promising outlet for business blocks from Main, and the business locating there is encouraging. But now a scheme is contemplated that is new and up to the times to suit the forward move of the city. The Herald understands that Hon. John Fitzgerald is looking to the erection of a forty foot front building back of his large "Fitzgerald" block, on Sixth street. If executed the plan will be something like this: Build three stories on the north of the present block, cut out the rear wall of the hall and extend it forty feet farther north, and turn this great third story into a theatre, building a fine stage in the added portion of the hall and putting in elevated seats running south. This would make one of the largest floor capacity theatres in the state, and the stage would be after the most modern plan, with new scenery. The first floor would be store rooms, with offices overhead. That such a building will be erected to the Fitzgerald block is not yet determined, but it is a fact that the scheme is contemplated, and the success that the present block has been seems to outsiders to warrant the erection of such an addition.

Mr. J. E. Riley, who is building the hotel building on Sixth street opposite the Fitzgerald block, was in the city yesterday, and if Mr. Fitzgerald will unite they will pave Sixth street from Main to the alley, with Sioux Falls granite, that the street should be in keeping with its surroundings. These are enterprises, which, if executed, will correspond to the investment of capital which the city merits.

No dull times at Schildknecht's Shoe Store.

Tabor College Commencement. JUNE 23-26, 1889.—Never has a commencement passed at Tabor which has left a more hopeful feeling among the friends of the college than that of 1889. The general tone of the exercises of the week was all that could be desired.

The four young men who graduated are men of large promise. The class of '90 will probably be the largest in the history of the college. The addresses of Rev. E. S. Hill D. D., of Atlantic and Rev. A. J. Van Wagner, of Creston, were full of live thoughts of practical duty. Many friends of the college sat together at the Alumni dinner and the after-dinner speeches were in the happiest strain. The Alumni, at their annual meeting, spent their time in planning to aid the college. The concert, with the help of Mrs. Maria Hester, of Chicago, was of the highest order of merit.

The history of the heroic sacrifices of the founders of the college is a priceless endowment. The same devotion by its present friends (who seem more awake to the needs than ever before) will make a bright future. Money is one of the necessities and one gentleman who attended the commencement, recognizing this, left a donation of $500.

PRIVATE W. W. BROOKS. Tabor, Iowa, June 27, 1889. In spite of the dull season W. H. Schildknecht is selling large quantities of shoes.

Wedding Last Night. At 8:30 o'clock last evening at the home of Orval Sheppard on Elm and Fifth streets quietly occurred the wedding of Mr. Chas. Hinkle and Miss Dora Smith. Mr. Hinkle is an employe in the B. & M. shops, while the bride has for years been a water girl in the employ of Thos. Riddle. Rev. H. B. Burgess, of the Episcopal church, officiated. The newly wedded couple will live at the home of Chas. Hemple on Oak street.

W. H. Schildknecht is determined to not be undersold by anyone, and he invites everybody to call and examine his large stock of boots and shoes.

The Sweltering Heat makes a man appreciate a nice easy chair in which he can sit with ease, and the refrigerator is a source of enjoyment to the thirsty man. Be sensible and get the good out of life by having a comfortable home. You can furnish your home with, out great cost so that it will afford you much pleasure. Come and see what we can do for you.

HENRY BOECK. Main and Sixth streets. Go to W. H. Schildknecht's and buy a pair of Oxford shoes. They are the most comfortable shoe that can be had for this time of year.

Acute and chronic rheumatism can be effectually and permanently cured by the use of Hibbard's Rheumatic Syrup and Plaster. Sold by F. G. Fricke & Co.

PERSONALS.

Mrs. Kate Oliver was a visitor in Bellevue today.

H. W. Lloyd, from near Union, was in town today.

Will Streight returned this morning from a visit to Illinois.

Mrs. Oswald Guthman, of Louisville, spent today in our city.

W. E. Latta, a merchant of Kennesaw, and quite well known in this city, is visiting at the home of S. A. Davis.

W. H. Picken and family left this morning for Council Bluffs to spend a few days. The Chautauqua will be one of the interesting points visited.

District Clerk Shoualter this morning adjourned the afternoon May term of court over to July 8, according to instructions from the court.

It has been said that Cass county could raise good live stock; it is also proven every day. This morning Jas. Ruby, from Eight Mile Grove brought to market and sold to Wiley Black, eleven hogs weighing 5,000 pounds $185 spot cash bought them.

A few of "the boys" sold themselves in a very odd manner last night. They heard that Chas. Hinkle was to be married at Sheppard's and supposed it to be Cliff Sheppard's on Wintersten hill; and to this place they repaired with cow bells and horse fiddle. They didn't see the bride or get any cigars, but got fired. None of "the boys" know anything about it today, however.

A SERIOUS ACCIDENT.

Johnnie Lloyd Tears the Flesh of His Right Leg in a Fearful Manner.

This morning Johnnie Lloyd, the thirteen year old son of Engineer J. I. Lloyd, who lives on Washington avenue, met with a serious mishap. The boy was sliding down a plank when a nail projecting sharply through the board, caught the flesh of his right leg by the ankle and gashed it in a fearful manner clear to the bone, laying the bone bare. Dr. Schildknecht was summoned and attention immediately given the suffering lad. The length of the wound was ten inches and sixteen stitches were necessary to close the flesh together. The wound was a very ugly and painful one and was a close call to an artery.

NOTICE.

Under the auspices of the Dominican Sisters of St. John's School their pupils will give a grand musical and dramatic entertainment at the opera house next Friday evening. It will be one of the grandest affairs of the season. The proceeds will be used to aid in building more commodious apartments for the Sisters, and those who may desire to cultivate or perfect themselves in music and art branches of learning so much appreciated by the refined.

Tickets without numbers are now on sale for reserved seats, but the holders of the same will be courteously conducted to one on the evening of the entertainment. Tickets will be sold at the entrance. Reserved seats, 50 cents, unreserved, 35 cents; gallery, 25 cents.

Vanduzen and His Philosophical Friend.

A man has been working in the city some time at masonry, giving his name as Vanduzen, who claims to hail from Johnston, saw the flood, and worked there afterward for some time. He started out early this morning with a friend in the early part of the "relief fund." At 11 a. m. they were reading up Main street. Vanduzen's shoes were badly worn and the heel of one was coming off and as he passed along he would implore every passer by to "pick up that heel." As he entreated a certain citizen in that manner his friend braced up enough to stand steady a moment and exclaim, "Yes, he's loosed his heel, and if he don't be careful he'll lose his soul and then he'll be damned." "Vandy" says he was sent here by the "relief committee" and they were doubtless in earnest.

Schildknecht can't be beat for shoes.
