At the regular meeting of H. E. Palmer Camp No. 59, S. of V's last night, John D. Robbins was chosen as delegate to the encampment to be held at Geneva, Neb., in June next. Frank Johnson was chosen as alternate. It is expected that a number of the boys from here will go as it will be a field encampment and there is $300 in prizes for competitive drills.

The Division Colonel Frank J. Cones, of Omaha, will be in the city next Thursday evening and all Sons of Veterans are requested to meet him at the train at 7:45 and escort him to their hall.

Now is your chance, and such a chance you will have but once in a life time, to buy Clothing, Furnishing Goods, Hats, etc., at slaughtering prices at JOE'S. The entire stock must be sold out as quick as possible.

At the Presbyterian Church,

Miss Day is a graceful and refined figure upon the stage; has a face of unaffected purity and a fillet of expression, and a voice of great compass and flexibility, capable of expressing in its wonderful modulations the pathos of a child, the trembling accent of old age, or the strong notes of a passionate entreaty or command. The brilliant reputation which she has gained in her brief appearance before the public, was fully sustained in this city.—Blair Republican.

At the Presbyterian church Thursday evening, Feb. 19.

Don't fail to hear her. Admission 25 cents.

JOE has not "burst." Joe never has failed, for he believes there is an honest living for everybody, but owing to Dissolution of Partnership, Joe is compelled to close out his nice and clean stock, regardless of cost.

Louisville Attor It, State Journal.

So encouraging are the prospects in the direction of establishing a reform school for girls, that five towns have entered the list to compete for the location—Geneva, Louisville, McCook, West Point and Milford. Geneva and Louisville have made the best offers for the enterprise, as yet. The former offers forty acres of land suitable for a location and to put in water pipe to connect with city mains free. The flourishing town of Louisville, Cass county, puts in an offer of 200 acres of valuable land, a large stone building 80x80 feet in dimensions and four stories high, with an addition 80x50 and a stone ice house 80x50, with three cooling rooms for meats and vegetables beneath it. It throws in a baker's oven complete and capable of supplying the needs of such an institution, and a soft water spring with a capacity of 300,000 gallons per day. For all of this, said to be worth at least $50,000, it asks $10,000 from the state, the people of Louisville paying the remainder. This appears to be by far the best offer up to date but it remains to be seen what other towns may do.

It is only with regret JOE has to sell out his entire stock, for he has done a very satisfactory and successful business, but dissolution between JOE and his partner, Mr. William Fisher compels him to close out.

There are a great many garments, including a pair of trousers of extraordinary length and a number of very pretty feminine confections in "Pat's New Wardrobe," which was produced last evening at Niblo's by Mr. Pat Rooney and his company. Pat's brogue is as broad and as rich as ever, and the play in many ways an amusing one, and the company that supports Mr. Rooney is a capable one. There are funny situations, some clever dialogue, and a number of catchy and tuneful airs in "Pat's New Wardrobe." It was witnessed by a good sized audience, and everybody had a good share of applause.—New York Press. This unexcelled comedian will appear with his company at Waterman's opera house Monday evening, Feb. 23.

No old chestnuts or rubbish at JOE'S. Everything of the latest style and at below cost.

Go to JOE and lay in your supply for next year. It will pay you good interest at the prices he is closing out his stock.

A good Boys' Suit at $1.75 for boys from 9 to 18 years old at JOE'S. If Don't forget the entertainment at the Presbyterian church tomorrow evening. See the programme.

The funeral of Mrs. Urwin took place this morning, the remains having been brought in on the Schuyler train.

For glassware, queensware and the best and freshest groceries go to Phillip Kraus, where you will find everything you want for your table.

John Mumm has added a lunch counter to his saloon, and the way Ed Threshkel's soup vanishes for an hour in the forenoon when it is served as a free lunch is a caution.

We are glad to note the fact that Mrs. Geo. Dovey is better today; that Dr. Schildknecht is able to be up about the house and that L. G. Larson will be out from his siege of sickness in a few days.

At 1 o'clock, on the 26th of February, three miles south of Plattsmouth, Mr. Fred Wehrlein, administrator of the estate of Wm. Wehrlein, deceased, will offer for sale a large lot of stock, farming implements and other personal property. W. D. Jones is the auctioneer.

Charley Campbell, the former B. & M. engineer is living with his wife in Ogden, Utah. He is occupying his time as conductor on a street car. Mr. Campbell's friends in this city will be sorry to learn that they lost both of their beautiful children last week with scarlet fever.

A rate of one fare for the round trip from all points within 350 miles has been made by the railroad managers, for those who wish to attend the funeral services of General Sherman at St. Louis. Plattsmouth people would have to pay full fare to St. Joe and buy a ticket from that point in order to take advantage of the low rates.

Several of our business houses are beautifully decorated in honor of our guests, while many only showed a few flags. Among the best decorated establishments we noticed the Hotel Riley, Wm. Webber's, S. & C. Mayer's, C. E. Westcott's, Phil Young's, Wm. Herold's, Gering & Co.'s and the Perkins House. The crowd being so much larger than was expected, many more will doubtless put up suitable decorations today.

Col. Thresher, the globe trotter, arrived home from Ogden a few days ago and reports the wild and woolly west as very tame compared with the activity which he sees on every hand in this city. The colonel says he met our sewer contractor, Mr. Shelton, in his real estate office in Ogden. The colonel also remarked that to his great delight he met with a copy of the PLATTSMOUTH HERALD at Pocatello Idaho, which he read with evident relish, realizing more than ever that the HERALD was a great newspaper.

PERSONAL.

F. S. White and wife are in Omaha today.

Mrs. F. H. Steimker, and daughter are visiting in Omaha.

Hub Alden of Greenwood is in the city on business today.

Mrs. Alta Bowen came in to visit friends last evening from Alliance.

Mrs. Thresher and children spent Sunday with her brother at Hillsdale, Iowa.

Mrs. Thomas Wiles, has gone to Cotner University to visit the young folks a few days.

Col. D. S. Draper, and Col. P. E. Ruffner, were passengers for Lincoln, this morning.

A. D. Despain, started this morning for North Platte to visit his sister, and family for a few days. The report that he is to be married soon is not verified.

C. L. Graves, the advance agent for Pat Rooney, was in the city last night arranging for the appearance of the great comedian Monday evening.

Messrs Will and John Moore, quite well known in musical circles, left last evening for Pullman Ill, where they expect to get employment and permanently reside.

A genuine Stetson $4.00 Hat at $2.75 at JOE'S.

The Encampment.

Over three hundred Grand Army posts are represented here today. Large delegations from all over the state arrived last night followed by additional forces this morning. This is the annual business meeting of that grand lodge of patriots whose members must have been Union soldiers during the rebellion before they can become members of the order. We can, at the meeting most of the gentlemen present, truthfully remark that a better looking and abler representative body of men would be difficult to find in one organization anywhere than we have with us today.

Besides the G. A. R. encampment we have with us the annual convention of that excellent order, the Women's Relief Corps, composed of delegates from all their posts in the state, together with many dignitaries from abroad.

The business meetings of the G. A. R. are being held in the opera house, while the one hundred lady delegates of the W. R. C. hold forth at Rockwood Hall. The different committee meetings are held at the Hotel Riley. The election of officers will probably not occur until tomorrow evening. The chief interest is centered in the election of department commander, though from appearances Captain Teeter, of Lincoln, will be unanimously chosen.

NOTES.

Seth P. Mobley, of the Grand Island Independent, Mr. Whitcomb, of the Friend Telegraph, Major Kleutsch, of the Free Press, Captain Murdock, of the Wymore Reporter and a host of other first class newspaper men are in attendance today.

The genial presence of ex-Governor Thayer was noted in the midst of the crowd at the Riley this morning.

Captain Phelps Paine is the same restless rustler that he used to be when he held down the job of city clerk in this municipality several years ago.

Governor Pearman accompanied by his wife, came up from Nebraska City this morning. Pearman is now the only republican governor we have got and should be well treated.

The Bohemian band, in charge of committeeman Weidman, discourses music for the old veterans in proper form.

Our Henry Mc and Mrs. McHenry are both thoroughly interested in the work of the G. A. R. and W. R. C.

The Plattsmouth ladies of the Relief Corps furnished a royal dinner for the lady delegates in attendance at the convention today.

Chaplain Diefenbacher and wife are in attendance at the encampment and are the guests of their old friend Judge Ramsey.

Judge Applegate, of Tecumseh, is among the old veterans today.

Dr. J. M. Waterman of Hay Springs, coroner of Sheridan county, is attending the grand encampment and is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Ramsey.

A good pair of shoes at $1.00 at JOE'S.

A hearty welcome. Plattsmouth heartily welcomes the old soldiers within her borders today. Our fair city by the Platte is proud of her guests and we hope nothing will be left undone by our people to make the heroes of '61-'64 remember their stay among us as a visit of unalloyed pleasure.

Miss Mollie Tucker. Dressmaking and millinery a specialty. Rooms over Herold's store.

Osborn-Gattons, at the residence of Judge Ramsey, by that official on February 18 1891, at 2 p. m. Mr. George Osborn, and Miss Charlotte Gatton were united in the holy bonds of wedlock.

The regular meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society of the M. E. church will be held tomorrow (Thursday) afternoon, at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. S. A. Davis on Pearl street.

K. of P. Regular meeting of Gaudinet Lodge tonight. Visitors are gladly welcomed.

Mrs. Phil Young lost her pocketbook and we had hardly got the advertisement "set up" in the paper when she found it. Who says it don't pay to advertise?

Will you suffer with dyspepsia and liver complaint? Shiloh's vitzilizer is guaranteed to cure you. For sale by F. G. Fricke and O. H. Snyder.

On Saturday, the 14th of February, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Young jr. celebrated the twentieth anniversary of their wedding day, at their home six miles south west of Plattsmouth. It was also the fiftieth birthday of Mr. Young, he having been married the day he was thirty years of age to Miss Eliza Law.

About seventy persons old and young gathered at their home to celebrate the event, to renew old friendships and to make glad the hearts of those whose anniversary they were celebrating.

The day was spent in social visits of old acquaintances, and in musical entertainments, by Mrs. Frank Root and Miss Luella Young, as organists, and Miss Lillie Kauble assisting with her violin.

During the afternoon seventy-two persons partook of a bountiful dinner prepared by the hostess and her lady friends. Mr. and Mrs. Young received as a present a full set of stone china dishes, of beautiful pattern. They also received the following presents from individuals: A wine set, a cake stand and a box of cigars from Miss Tillie Bauer, of Louisville; a lady's and gentleman's china cup and sauer from Mr. and Mrs. Leavitt, of Lincoln; a china mug and three china flower vases from Mr. and Mrs. Kirkpatrick, of Nebraska; and a china fruit dish from Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Conn, of Nebraska.

There were present at the anniversary Mr. and Mrs. L. S. White, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Conn, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sans, Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Latta, Mr. and Mrs. Anderson Root, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Holmes, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Young and daughter Luella, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Hiram McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Faught, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Root, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Morrow, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Dean and daughter Grace, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Young sr. and daughter Anna and Kate, Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Gapsin and daughter Anna, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Furlong, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Young, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Royal, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Beck, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Moors, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Kirkpatrick, Lee Kirkpatrick and sister Kate, Mrs. Wm. Holmes, Mrs. Wm. Taylor, Mrs. Austin Johnson, Mrs. Lizzie Cochran, Mrs. Wm. Ellington, Miss Lillie Kauble, Miss Jennie Young, Miss Tillie Bauer, Miss Satchell, Wm. Young, Wm. Gilmore, Byron Young, Sam Gapsin, Lloyd Gapsin, George Ray, J. H. Holmes.

The following persons attended the anniversary who were at the wedding twenty years ago: E. A. Kirkpatrick, who acted as groomsmen, D. A. Young, Wm. Young, Miss Jennie Young, Mrs. Lizzie Cochran, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Beck, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Young, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Holmes, Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Latta, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Furlong.

In the evening over seventy young people gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Young and enjoyed themselves at various amusements until twelve o'clock, and then dispersed for their several homes.

When you are in Lincoln, call on W. C. Austin & Co., in McBride block, corner of Twelfth and P streets, for Have lock and University property.

Some years ago Chamberlain & Co., of Des Moines, Iowa, commenced the manufacture of a cough syrup, believing it to be the most prompt and reliable preparation yet produced for coughs, colds and croup; that the public appreciate true merit, and in time it was certain to become popular. Their most sanguine hopes have been more than realized. Over three hundred thousand bottles of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy are now sold each year, and it is recognized as "the best made," wherever known. It will cure a severe cold in less time than any other treatment. For sale by F. G. Fricke & Co.
