FOURTH YEAR.

PLATTSMOUTH, NEBRASKA, THURSDAY EVENING, FEBRUARY 19, 1891.

NUMBER 137

quest of all in Leavening Power.—(U. S. Gov't Report, Aug. 17, 1887).

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

Miss Day.

Miss Day's readings are calculated to bring up the tenderest sentiments of well-balanced minds and should be heard by everybody. They touch a cord in every heart, whether of pathos or humor—St. Paul Phonograph. Give her a full house at the Presbyterian church this evening. Proceeds for the benefit of the pipe organ fund. Admission 25 cents.

Now is your chance, and such a chance you will have but once in a life time, to buy Clothing, Furnishing Goods, Hats, etc., at slaughtering prices at JOE'S. The entire stock must be sold out as quick as possible. tf

List of Letters.

Remaining unclaimed in the Postoffice at Plattsmouth, Feb. 18, for the week ending Feb. 11, 1891.

Abbott, Mrs. E. E.	Connolly, Nicholas
Brasington & Wolf	Beatty, Howard
Carlier, James	Clure, C. N.
Dickey, Cyrus	Dalton, Pat
Gilmore, John	Chaston, Mrs. Lunda
Henry, James	Hansen, Adolf A.
Kuryman, Miss Ida	Smith, Wm
St. John, E. A.	Smith, Charles
McLaughlin, A. N.	Aberg, Miss Hanna
Tidd, Minnie	Taylor, Pete

Norden, Mrs. S. J.

Persons calling for any of the above letters will please say "advertised."

H. J. STREIGHT, P. M.

JOE has not "bursked." Joe never has failed, for he believes there is an honest living for everybody, but owing to Dissolution of Partnership, Joe is compelled to close out his nice and clean stock, regardless of cost. tf

Royal Arcanum Notice.

The regular meeting of Cass council, No. 1021, Royal Arcanum occurs this evening at 8 o'clock in the E. of P. Hall. All members are requested to be in attendance. HENRY HEHOLD, Regent.

It is only with regret JOE has to sell out his entire stock, for he has done a very satisfactory and successful business, but dissolution between JOE and his partner, Mr. William Fisher compels him to close out. tf

Notice.

The bids filed for removal of old Court house buildings were rejected, and sealed bids will be received by the County Commissioner up till noon on (Tuesday) February 24th, 1891 for all material in old Courthouse buildings including Jewellers store, stone fence, etc., only excepting vault doors, vault shelving and movable furniture. All material to be removed from grounds, leaving the ground clean of rubbish, between the first day of March and the first day of April, 1891.

BIRD CRITCHFIELD
COUNTY CLERK.

No old chestnuts or rubbish at JOE'S. Everything of the latest style and at below cost. tf

A Red-hot Debate.

Reverend N. M. Allen, the Baptist minister at Union, has tackled Mormonism, and will have a debate with Rev. Bronson, of Council Bluffs, an apostle of the latter day saints. The leading proposition to be discussed, is

Resolved, That Joseph Smith is the true prophet of God. Reverend Bronson of course takes the affirmative, but if he can pump any of that mysterious finding of the "book" into his Cass county audience, as an inspiration, and show that the whole thing was not a ridiculous cock and bull story, calculated to deceive the people; he will surprise us very much. His mythical stories may be swallowed at Council Bluffs, but they won't go over here. The discussion is to take place in three weeks at Union.

Go to JOE and lay in your supply for next year. It will pay you good interest at the prices he is closing out his stock. tf

Rev. Cyrus Alton, at one time county superintendent of public instruction, has rented his farm near Elmwood and will remove to Clay Center, Neb., where he will take charge of a congregation. We are sorry to see Mr. Alton leave old Cass; he was one of our best citizens.

For glassware, queensware and the best and freshest groceries go to Phillip Kraus, where you will find everything you want for your table. tf

PERSONAL.

Jesse Ströde came in yesterday morning to attend the encampment.

Justus Lily, of Cedar Creek, is circulating with the old veterans today.

Mrs. Carl T. Seeley, of Madison, is in the city as a delegate to the W. R. C. encampment. She is a guest of her sisters, Mrs. Miller and Mrs. Murphy.

General Dilworth, of Hastings, State Treasurer Hill, Revenue Collector Peters, of Omaha, and Speaker Elder, of the house of representatives returned home this morning.

The stock of wall paper at Gering & Co's is wonderful. 3t

Don't forget the minstrels tomorrow night. This is to be the show of the season.

For new stylish patterns in wall paper, absolutely the latest designs, call on Gering & Co. 3t

Miss Mollie Tucker. Dressmaking and millinery a specialty. Rooms over Herold's store. tf

You can not form an idea what it is to sell clothing, etc., at and below cost until you look through JOE'S stock. tf

Charles P. King of Fillmore County, a member of Judge Chapman's company of Iowa soldiers, was a guest of the Judge last night.

Miss Day's reading drew a good house. The lady poses fine elocutionary powers and a voice of rare sweetness and flexibility.—Lyons Mirror.

A man by the name of Turner, residing near Elmwood, sold three pointers last week that averaged 595 pounds each. Who can beat it? tf

Some very able resolutions of respect on the late General Sherman and General Merrow have been adopted by the G. A. R. encampment today.

We know of one fellow, a young business man near the head of Main street who had his hair cut purposely that he might get a front seat at the show tomorrow night.

Another snowfall today; the agriculturist ought to be happy as no one else appears to be able to extract any comfort from the chilly fact except it be the small boy with the sled.

George Beck's sale of personal property the first of the week was attended by nearly a thousand people, and property to the amount of $3,500 was disposed of at fair prices.

Kearney and Phelps are the names of two western Nebraska counties that have had the honor to say they do not want any assistance and are amply able to care for their own poor. Crops have been as short in these two counties as in many that are asking for a $300,000 appropriation. They are made of different metal out in Kearney and Phelps counties.

Removal.

O. A. Hirsch will remove his barber shop under Mayer Bros store where he will hereafter run three chairs and three bath rooms. His new barber is recently from the Palace hotel in San Francisco, where none but the best can secure employment. For a nice shave or a quiet bath call on O. A. Hirsch at his new parlors in the Carruth block after next Monday. dtw

Duncan Clark.

SEDALIA, Mo., Sept. 23, 1890.

J. P. YOUNG—Dear Sir: Your's of the 22nd. received. Duncan Clarke's company is all right. He has some 15 or 20 people, ladies and gentlemen. The show takes well. There is nothing in the show that would be offensive to a lady. Respectfully,

H. W. WOOD,

M'ngr Wood's Opera House.

On and after March 18th all notes and book accounts due me will be in the hands of an attorney for collection. No exceptions. 3t U. V. MATHEWS.

Where have you been, my pretty, fair maid?

To Gering's for wall paper, sir, she said. And she made no mistake. 3t

Wedded in New York.

Lincoln, Neb. It has been an open secret among his friends that Mr. Charles Mayer, of the clothing firm of Mayer Bros., was contemplating matrimony, hence it occasioned no surprise last evening when his brothers received a telegram announcing his marriage.

The young lady whom Mr. Mayer led to the altar was Miss Estelle Negbauer, a handsome and cultured young lady of New York City. The ceremony was performed in Vienna hall in that city in the presence of a large assembly of invited guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Mayer departed from New York today for Philadelphia, Washington and tour of the south, where they will spend a month in sight-seeing and return to New York, thence to their future home in Lincoln about April 1st.

In honor of the marriage of one of the firm Mayer Bros. last evening tendered the employees a banquet at Brown's, and a feast especially prepared greeted their arrival and it was discussed with a relish.

A Pleasant Surprise.

The meetings of the convention of the W. R. C. are many times attended by the most pleasant happenings.

At the eighth annual convention of the W. R. C. Mrs. Manchester, the past national senior vice president was the recipient Wednesday afternoon of a beautiful present from McConihe corps No. 50 and same was presented to her in appropriate words by Sister McKinzy of corps No. 50 in the banquet room of the adjoining the department convention hall. The present described will here be not amiss.

It is the photograph of members of the corps most artistically grouped by artist W. J. Koon of our city, and same is very handsomely framed. This will be prized by the recipient, and given a prominent place among the many souvenirs that grace the walls of and corner the in her pleasant home at Lincoln.

Nervous Debilitated Men.

If you will send us your address, we will mail you our illustrated pamphlet explaining all about Dr. Dye's celebrated Electro-Voltic Belt and appliances, and their charming effects upon the nervous debilitated system, and how they will quickly restore you to vigor and manhood. Pamphlet free. If you are thus afflicted we will send you a belt and appliances on a trial.

VOLTIC BELT Co. Marshall, Mich.

War on the Missouri.

The members of the Women's Relief Corps have been having a stormy session today at Rockwood Hall. It seems that two years ago the corps at Junia accepted for membership a lady who was neither daughter, wife or widow of a soldier, contrary to the provisions of the statutes in such cases made and provided and that the charter of that corps was taken from it. Another administration came in and the charter was returned, which action seems to have been upheld by the present state administration. Now comes Mrs. McHenry, president of the National W. R. C., and in the name of the constitution of the order demands the state charter, which she holds has been forfeited by the action of our Nebraska members. "Does the fur fly?" I guess yes. The Nebraska ladies who are loyal to the present management of affairs, denounce the usurpations of the National president in vigorous terms, while Mrs. McHenry and her friends talk constitution and endeavor to make out that they are working solely for the good of the order. No one can tell yet what the outcome will be, but bad feelings are being engendered which does not bode any good for the order.

That extensive line of spectacles to suit every eye is to be found only at Gering's. 3t

Diad.

At one o'clock today, Mr. Nelson Pierson, at the age of 91 years. Mr. Pierson was an old citizen of this city. The deceased leaves a widow and four children all grown, three boys Nelson, Henry and Albert, and one daughter, Mrs. C. A. Prietz. The funeral will take place Saturday at two o'clock from the late residence, at the corner of Rock and Tenth streets. Friends of the family are invited.

The county treasurer today received a letter from Yokohama, Japan, in which a gentleman enquires about the amount of his taxes on some property which he owns in this city. His name is Wm. J. Tetam.

Sulphureous.

Colonel Mayfield Jr., is a son of the old man but he seems to have a worse attack of county seat rabies, than his father. We hope the young man will recover from the malady though his symptoms are sufficient to alarm his friends. Here is a sample of his poetry which has a sort of blimstone odor that is easily detected between the lines:

Yes, by —, there's A. B. Todd
The biggest man in town
Who's note for Plattsouth and for hell.
As — never raise a town.

And A. C. Loder, the petition exploder.
The Esau of modern times—
With Judas' sealot has joined the band.
To help Satan ring the chains.

And Jacob Trietsch, the foreign breach
The better of the three
Would vain do right but fears some night
He'd decorate a tree.

In other words Mr. Trietsch has been intimidated. Oh Albert, soak your care-worn brow, you ought to know better. The commissioners having a care for their oath could not have decided that election petition any different from what they did.

The best and surest dye to color the beard brown or black, as may be desired is Buckingham's Dye for the Whiskers. It never fails.

The G. A. R. Encampment.

The session yesterday afternoon in the opera house was well attended and enthusiastic. The regular election of officers took place, which passed off pleasantly, resulting in the choice of the following gentlemen to act as officers of the department for the ensuing year:

Commander, Colonel Joseph Teeter, of Lincoln.

S. V. Commander, Jesse Thompson, of Fairbury.

J. V. Commander, Joel Hull, of Minden.

Medical Director, W. H. Johnson, of Gering.

Chaplain, P. E. Johnson, of Friend.

The following council of administration was elected:

J. S. Dew, of Tecumseh,

A. D. Davis, of Table Rock,

C. P. Dick, of North Platte,

J. W. Laferty, of Wisner,

Brad P. Cook, of Lincoln.

Senator J. N. Kuntz was elected a delegate at large to the National encampment to be held in Detroit.

The following were also elected from their several districts as delegates:

J. A. Erhart, of Stanton,

O. H. Phillips, of Beatrice,

A. H. Bowen, of Hastings,

H. S. Benson, of Omaha,

Ben Smith, of Juniata,

J. H. Culver, of Milford,

C. E. Burmeister, of Omaha,

W. B. Robey.

Two hundred and thirty-four votes were cast, and on the evening trains over a hundred additional delegates arrived in time to settle the next encampment at Columbus.

The date for holding the next state reunion was fixed for the last day of August and the first four days of September. The place for the reunion (Hastings) having been fixed at a former meeting.

The utmost good feeling prevailed, all the old veterans seeming determined to have an enjoyable time.

TODAY'S SESSION.

The day has been largely spent at the G. A. R. meetings, in listening to addresses and stories of exploits during the war, there being nothing to do until the W. R. C. elect officers.

Tonight a joint installation of the G. A. R. and W. R. C. officers will be held at the opera house, providing the ladies succeed in holding an election today.

When you are in Lincoln, call on W. C. Austin & Co., in McBride block, corner of Twelfth and P streets, for Havelock and University property. dt

County Court.

Licenses to wed issued to Mr. David M. Benker and Miss Ada E. Straight, both of South Bend.

Licenses to wed issued to Mr. Stephen A. Wiles and Miss Anna Spangler, both of Plattsmouth.

Licenses to wed issued to Mr. Henry Letton and Miss Nancy Stephens.

Petition filed for appointment of Samuel McClintic guardian of Mrs. Mary Holton, insane.

Last will and testament of Bernard J. Ruhge filed for probate.

Christ Wohlfarth vs C. H. Smith. Settled and dismissed.

Mayer Bros Drug Co. vs Plattsmouth Laup Manufacturing Co. Continued by consent.

Miss Nettie Ballance was engaged yesterday as short hand reporter in county court.
