The Latest
 "Mary had a little lamb,
 Its whiskers were a snow white,
 And if Mary stroled without him,
 There was sure to be a fight
 He followed her to school one day,
 Which certainly was rude;
 As the janitor kicked his lambship out,
 And killed a passer—dude."

Secretary Geo. Shafer has gone to Nebraska City to spend Sunday.
 The weather officials say we may expect fair and colder weather tomorrow.
 Quartermaster General Streight should be saluted before you ask for your mail hereafter.
 The Duncan Clark Co. arrived from Omaha this morning and are domiciled at the Perkins.
 More than a hundred delegates boarded the west bound train this morning for their several homes.
 The Singer Co. have rented half of Boeck's furniture room for Manager Cronin's headquarters and store room.
 Col. John A. MacMurphy of Omaha, having been an attendant at the encampment, gave the HERALD a pleasant call this morning.
 H. C. Seidle has quit the shops and will go to Council Bluffs in a day or two, much to the regret of some of the young ladies.
 Asher Clark sports a handsome new delivery wagon, the result of the handiwork of Mr. T. Benton Brown, J. C. Coleman and John Leach.
 Mrs. McMaken as senior vice president of the state relief corps and H. J. Streight as quartermaster general gives Plattsmouth a good showing that we may well be proud of.
 There was lots of fun at Finnegan's wake but there was more fun at the lady minstrels. Reserved seats 75 cents, general admission 50 cents and gallery 35 cents. At the opera house tonight.
 Mr. Rosenberry and O. J. King of Omaha, together with some other contractors, are in the city today looking over the plans for our new court house. Mr. Gray, the architect, will be down tonight.
 The entertainment at the Presbyterian church last night, owing to the inclement weather, was not well patronized. Some of the participants did very well, but as a whole the program was not up to the average given by the Presbyterian church people.
 The petitions that are now in circulation for the county seat removal are being signed in ink and every column is written out in full—no dittos this time—and persons circulating the petition swear to all names that are put down.—W. W. Republican.
 The Misses Nellie and Carrie Stockwell have been arrested at the instance of Mrs. Ella Greeson, charged with quarreling and using vicious and indecent language, toward the prosecuting witness. The case is on trial this afternoon at the police court.
 We have been asked to make some explanation about the W. R. C. dispute, mention of which was made last night. However, since all matters of difference among the ladies have been happily adjusted it is probably unnecessary for us to say more about the matter.
 The Duncan Clark lady minstrels have been playing to crowded houses wherever they have been. Their prices have been $1.00 for reserved seats until Mr. Young refused to give them a date except on the regular price of 75 cents. For genuine mirth-provoking sport attend the minstrels tonight.
 The rabbit crop has been almost ruined by the ruthless cotton tail slayer, Deacon Tom Mapes. He deserted his post in the HERALD composing rooms today and has been slaughtering in every direction. Anybody wanting a rabbit foot for luck can be accommodated by calling on the venerable deacon after today.
 For Sale.
 A good farm one-fourth mile from the town of Murray, on the M. P. R. R. Plenty of timber and water. Good orchard, 250 bearing trees. Plattsmouth, Neb., Feb. 9th, 1891. wtf
 R. W. Hyman

A new departure for Cass county publications is the employment of a circulation liar by THE PLATTSMOUTH HERALD. Mr. Knotts you cannot pass your competitors by lying any more than you can St. Peter later on. The Republican has for six years had the largest circulation of any paper printed in the county but we have made no blow about it. Now we are willing to count subscribers with the windy organ on the corner, at any time. We will allow them to use both their daily and weekly lists, but will draw the line when they attempt to use the register of a county seat election. THE HERALD has one subscriber in Center precinct, we have him counted.—W. W. Republican.
 Send you man over Mr. Keithly, if we haven't got double your circulation in the state of Nebraska we will pay all expenses. We don't mean sample copies, we mean paid up subscribers. Windy bluffs don't go. Send over your expert or acknowledge the corn.
 Pat Rooney.
 The audience last night applauded again and again and shouted with delight at everything Pat Rooney was called upon to do, and he never permitted the fun to drag, for somehow or other he managed to be on the stage all the time. He continually changes his makeup and costume; he sings several of his old songs, introduces a number that are new and in the third act he held the stage alone for a long time with his songs and dances the audience not permitting him to leave and when he did finally manage to stop it was under protest on the part of the audience. He was ably seconded by his little daughter, who is no less talented than her father.—N Y Reporter.
 At the Waterman opera house Monday evening Feb. 23.
 The W. R. C. Encampment.
 The ladies in attendance at the W. R. C. Encampment got their difficulties, which we mentioned yesterday, amicably settled during the afternoon and proceeded to the election of officers, which resulted in the promotion of the following members:
 President, Mrs. Amanda Tisdal, of Kearney; senior vice president, Mrs. Kate McMaken, of Plattsmouth; junior vice president, Mrs. Isabella Piller, of Pawnee City. Mrs. Gertrude H. Connell, of Grand Island, was re-elected treasurer. Chaplain, Mrs. Billings, of Geneva. Delegate to the national convention: Ellen G. Barber of Fullerton, Mary L. Carter of Madison, Julia S. Bowen of Hastings, Anna Hunter of Nebraska City, Helen A. Appleget of Tecumseh. Alternates: Mrs. Laura N. Bates of Aurora, Mrs. D. Woodard of Weeping Water, Anna Ashbrook of Geneva, Alice Dilworth of Hastings, and Mrs. M. E. West of Omaha. Executive committee: Mrs. E. Pillsbury, chairman; and Mrs. N. Kate Brown of Tecumseh, Mrs. Cooper of Omaha, Mrs. Allen of Madison, and Mrs. Benschaw of Lincoln were members.
 The installations took place yesterday afternoon separately and were only attended by the members of each department.
 A grand campfire was held at the opera house last night to which the doors were thrown open to the public, but owing to officious smartness of local members the newspapers were led to believe that the meeting was to have been a secret one. Most of the delegates left for home, a few however remaining to finish up the business of the session, which is said to have been a very satisfactory one.
 The G. A. R. Boys.
 Had a pleasant time at their installation yesterday afternoon, and took occasion to pass resolutions of thanks to the citizens of Plattsmouth for the complete and satisfactory arrangements which had been made by our people for their convenience and comfort.
 The following resolution, offered by J. H. Culver, was also adopted.
 Resolved, That the thanks of this encampment are due and are hereby extended to McConihie Post No. 45, for the most appropriate badge ever presented to our department, and to Mrs. E. E. Hilton whose artistic talent is so beautifully portrayed in its embellishment.
 The new department commander Joseph Teeter of Lincoln, appointed J. W. Bowen, of Lincoln, assistant adjutant general and H. J. Straight, of Plattsmouth, adjutant quartermaster general.
 The campfire in the evening at the opera house was largely attended and thoroughly enjoyed until a late hour. Some very able speeches were made and funny stories related.
 You can not form an idea what it is to sell Clothing, etc., at and below cost until you look through JOE'S stock. tf
