Save money and get the best selection and cheapest wall paper at Gering & Co.

That extensive line of spectacles to suit every eye is to be found only at Gering's.

The best spectacles in the world are sold by Gering & Co. They guarantee the fit or money refunded.

Jim Yanda, the tuba player in the Bohemian band, received at the hands of J. P. Young Saturday a very fine bass horn of the latest pattern.

Go to JOE and lay in your supply for next year. It will pay you good interest at the prices he is closing out his stock.

Fine money—then go to Gering & Co. to buy wall paper.

Union is booming for a canning factory. If they will consult Fred Gorder or Frank Guthman they can buy one very cheap.

No old chestnuts or rubbish at JOE'S. Everything of the latest style and at below cost.

Miss Mollie Tucker. Dressmaking and millinery a specialty. Rooms over Herold's store.

Now is your chance, and such a chance you will have but once in a life time, to buy Clothing, Furnishing Goods, Hats, etc., at slaughtering prices at JOE'S. The entire stock must be sold out as quick as possible.

We want everybody in the county to see our stock of wall paper before purchasing.

A genuine Stetson $4.00 Hat at $2.75 at JOE'S.

Pat Rooney, the accomplished and versatile comedian arrived in the city this morning with his company. The opera house should be crowded tonight as a rare treat is in store for theatre goers.

When you are in Lincoln, call on W. C. Austin & Co., in McBride block, corner of Twelfth and P streets, for Havelock and University property.

JOE has not "burst." Joe never has failed, for he believes there is an honest living for everybody, but owing to Dissolution of Partnership, Joe is compelled to close out his nice and clean stock, regardless of cost.

For glassware, crockery and the best and freshest groceries go to Phillip Kraus, where you will find everything you want for your table.

The largest and most complete and cheapest stock of wall paper, paint and oil in the county at Gering & Co's.

On and after March 1st all notes and book accounts due me will be in the hands of an attorney for collection. No exceptions. 31 U. V. MATHEWS.

A good pair of shoes at $1.00 at JOE'S.

To Nervous Debilitated Men. If you will send us your address, we will mail you our illustrated pamphlet explaining all about Dr. Dye's celebrated Electro-Voltic Belt and appliances, and their curative effects upon the nervous debilitated system, and how they will quickly restore you to vigor and manhood. Pamphlet free. If you are troubled we will send you a belt and appliances on a trial.

For Sale. A good farm one-fourth mile from the town of Murray, on the M. P. R. R. Lusty of timber and water. Good orchard. 350 bearing trees. Plattsmouth, Feb. 9th, 1891. R. W. HYMAN.

You can not form an idea what it is to do Clothing, etc., at and below cost until you look through JOE'S stock.

It is only with regret JOE has done a satisfactory and successful business. It is a regret because JOE and his partner, Mr. William Fisher, have decided to close out.

PERSONAL.

Pat Rooney, Pat Rooney, tonight. Clayton Barber of Lincoln was in the city over Sunday.

Thos. Wiles accompanied Elder Reid to Omaha this morning.

Walter White was an Omaha bound passenger this morning.

John Edmunds the Murray merchant made a business trip to the metropolis today.

Mrs. Mawden, of Ashland, was the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. A. Connor over Sunday.

Nelson Jean and wife came in this morning from a pleasant with Mr. Jean's brother at Silver City, Iowa.

J. E. Riley the genial owner of the Riley Hotel was in the city last evening and returned home this morning.

Mrs. B. F. Diefenbacher returned to Lincoln this morning after a pleasant visit with Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Ramsey.

Senator Thomas spent Sunday with relatives at Hillsdale Iowa and returned to his legislative duties this morning.

J. P. Antill, the confectioner, is going to open up a big candy store in the old Stadelman house at the corner of Sixth and Pearl streets.

Dr. Schildknecht is on the street today for the first time in two weeks. His legion of friends are glad to see him able to be out again.

Col Higgins, of Omaha, was in the city yesterday looking over the plans for the new court house preparatory to making a bid on the plumbing.

Walter Miller, better known as shorty is moving today with his family to Omaha where he has permanent employment as an engineer. Their many Plattsmouth friends are sorry to see them go.

Come and see the difference between cash and credit prices. Elson, the cash clothier.

The county Treasurer and Recorder are moving into the Bank of Cass county basement this week.

You ought to see the fine Belle Flower apples which Major McCourt has just received from the Calumet.

It will not be our aim to see how much profit we can make, but to sell good goods for a small margin for cash, Elson the cash clothier.

Conrad Schlater is in the city and says the Louisville people are up at Lincoln in force today after the girls reform school, which it is thought will be located at Louisville or Geneva.

H. Guy Livingston Esq., the tax collector, sold $125 worth of empty cans at auction Saturday to collect the taxes due from the canning company for the past two years. Fred Gorder was the purchaser.

Judge Ramsey has issued 217 marriage licenses to date, and of this number only one has been issued to a colored couple, that being issued on Saturday last to Mr. Pearl Frampton and Miss Helen Smith, both of Plattsmouth.

The Great American Desert tomorrow (Tuesday) evening, Feb. 24, at Mrs. Henry Cooper's, on Locust street between Seventh and Eighth. Everybody invited come one, come all, and see the fun. Don't forget time and place. See Aid Society.

Elder Wood is having the sand hauled today for the new South Park Tabernacle. If some of the other church people would emulate the zeal and enterprise of Brother Wood and his flock, we might have more respectable places of worship than what we have got.

This hot sunshine of today makes Henry McMaken the liveliest man in the county. He has a contract calling for 80 tons of ice, and with present facilities he can only get out 20 tons per day. This summer weather will shorten the ice harvest with unusual rapidity.

Cash. From this day forward, Elson, the cash one price clothier will only sell for cash.

County Seat Reflections.

Gentle reader don't forget that the fellows like Ike Pollard, who have instigated the people of Louisville to take up the worn out county seat fight, do not have half as much interest in removing the county seat as they have in defeating the erection of a court house. Plattsmouth is much more convenient for Pollard, Todd & Co., than Louisville. It is not the county seat those fellows are after half so much as the defeat of the $80,000 bonds voted to build the court house. Pollard, Todd & Co. know full well that the bonds cannot be used to build county buildings at Louisville and it is the defeat of the bonds they desire. In other words, those fellows would vote against anything that would add a cent's tax upon their broad acres. They are all rich, and rich men do not like to pay taxes.

With more than one-third of the population of the county within the corporate limits of Plattsmouth City; with more than one-half of the legal voters in the county within a radius of eight miles of Plattsmouth; common sense would suggest to the electors of the county that the Weeping Water and Louisville papers know full well that the present county seat agitation is a humbug, a sham, and a delusion.

The press of Plattsmouth, and our people, have no ill feeling against the good people of Louisville. Those people know Plattsmouth is a fit and proper place for the county seat and always voted heavily for Plattsmouth as against Weeping Water. Now, if they have been humbugged by Ike Pollard & Co., into believing that Weeping Water wants Louisville to have the county seat, we have no objections.

We have a distinct recollection of the Rev. (1) Mayfield visiting Plattsmouth bi-annually when a county seat contest was brewing, on his mission for money to keep the Louisville fellows from voting for LOUISVILLE. Now that elegant apostle of morals is shouting fraud at Plattsmouth in his elegant and choice Hindoo. We violate no confidence when we say the people of Louisville know him.

Not striking a name from the late lamented petition asking for a special election for the purpose of voting on the question of the re-location of the county seat of Cass county, and adding thereto the names of seventy-five additional signers, sent in to the county clerk nearly forty days after the petition had been filed and submitted to the county board, the petition did not contain the requisite three-fifths of the votes cast at the last general election; and to have granted the request of the petitioners would have been a flagrant violation of law; yet, the county commissioners are called knaves and rascals for not calling the election.

When the county board denied the prayer of the petitioners for an election to re-locate the county seat, Mr. Wooley, their attorney, took voluminous exceptions, and gave notice before the board, and in the highways and byways, of an appeal from their decision to the courts. Everybody, almost, then knew that the appeal notice was mere bluff; even Gov. Todd saw through that and admitted that the county commissioners were right in their action. Yet, the Gov's alliance paper at Weeping Water is engaged in the elegant business of abusing good men and officials, who have simply done their duty as honest men should do.

O. A. Hirsch is giving up his quarters under the Bank of Cass County today. He moves into the Zaruth, basement under Mayer Bros. store.

The post office is closed today, except from 11:30 to 1 and from 5:30 to 6:30, on account of Washington's birthday, which occurred yesterday. The Father of His Country would be just 149 years old yesterday if he were alive.

Patti Rees has been secured by J. P. Young for a date in March to appear at the Waterman. This will be the event of the rest of the dramatic season—as the New York Symphony Club March 10, will be the event of the musical season.

We understand that any loyal woman of good character, whose loyalty has not been of the temporary kind, is eligible to membership in the relief corps. The members seem to have come out of their shells thoroughly united and bent on doing more good if possible than ever before.

The Opera House Management.

EDITOR HERALD—Please give the following a place in the columns of your paper:

To the citizens and opera house patrons:—Since I have been business manager of the Waterman opera house, I have always tried to secure the best attractions possible, warranted by the patronage, to come here. It is true, sometimes I have been deceived in the class of attractions, not being what they represented themselves to be; but I can say with a clear conscience, that I never booked or advertised a company of an immoral nature, or one that was not fit for ladies to go and see. It is true there had been a great deal of talk against the Duncan Clark Company, which played at the opera house Friday night, and the ladies were afraid to go, especially after the publishing of the article in Friday night's Journal, saying, "The Dizzy Blonde Minstrel Company tonight will doubtless have an audience of bald-heads." This article was entirely uncalled for as the writer had no personal knowledge of the performance to be given. I had the assurance of opera house managers where the company played that the performance was a good, clean show, one that any lady could go and see without being offended; and of this fact I assured myself before I booked the company.

I am authorized by Mr. Waterman to inform the patrons of the house that the performance Friday night was a clean, chaste and moral one, and nothing was said or done that any lady could have objected to; and that he will not allow any immoral performance in his house. Mr. Clark says he has been on the road ten years with this company and if it had been an immoral one he could not play ten days before he would have been stopped by the authorities.

In conclusion I will say that the attractions coming are all strictly first class. Pat Rooney, this evening, will give a performance to please all. Then comes Effie Eilsler, the New York Symphony Club, and Patta Rosa—all of which are worthy of crowded houses. I am Yours Truly, J. P. YOUNG.

A noted Gypsy fortune teller, just from the east is at the Perkins House, this city. Past, present and future all told by the hand. Satisfaction guaranteed or money returned. Enquire for Mrs. Boswell.

Persons wishing to make investments with best returns or to borrow money on real estate will find it to their advantage to call on Mr. Thos. Pollock and investigate the plan of the Provident Savings, Loan & Building Association of Omaha. A large amount of stock has been taken and a number of loans made in this city, to the satisfaction of all. This is a home institution and books are open to the investigation of all. The many beneficial points seen in our plan will commend themselves to all. Call and see us and be convinced.

40-1w JAS. PETTEE, Gen'l Agt. Office under Bank of Cass County, second door from Main street, on Fifth.

Mrs. Spurlock and Mrs. M. M. Richardson are getting up a box of clothing etc. which they will send to the ministers in the drouth district. It turns out that the ministers, who by the nature of things are compelled to live upon the charity of their congregations, are the most destitute of any class to be found in the west. The supplies heretofore sent have not reached these people, therefore an special effort should be made to make them comfortable. Whatever you have to send, if you will leave it at the residence of Mrs. Spurlock on Pearl street no trouble will be spared to see that only needy ministers are the beneficiaries.

The telephone company has been putting in new instruments all over their lines, which is a great improvement. The new phone works so well that some say they can hear the men working on the new court house at Plattsmouth, can hear Judge Sullivan clap his hands as he stands on the foundation, and can hear Ed Wooley emit a volume of blup profanity, all of which makes a strange combination when it reaches Union exchange. Union Ledger.

J. P. Young completed arrangements with Chas. H. Yale, general manager for Wm. J. Gilmore's enterprises, by signing contracts for the appearance of Gilmore's "Twelve Temptations," to appear here May 28. This is one of the largest spectacular attractions on the road, comprising 60 people and a car load of scenery.

Greenwood Trains. Since the new time card went into effect a few weeks ago it has been impossible to buy a ticket on the evening trains, the 5:45 or the 6:15, for Greenwood, as the train did not stop at that point. This was a great inconvenience to Greenwood people who came down in the morning and could not return the same day. The editor of the HERALD called Mr. Latham's attention to the matter and asked him to lay the facts before General Manager Holdrege, which he did; and as a result we are confronted this morning with a bulletin requiring Mr. Latham to sell Greenwood tickets for these trains and ordering them to stop. No further complaint from that quarter can now be made.
