NUMBER 142

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

A nice Child's Suit at $1.00 at JOE'S. tf

Don't forget the funniest show of the season at the opera house tonight.

Go to JOE and lay in your supply for next year. It will pay you good interest at the prices he is closing out his stock. tf

Come and see the difference between cash and credit prices. Elson, the cash clothier. tf

No old chestnuts or rubbish at JOE'S. Everything of the latest style and at below cost. tf

Miss Mollie Tucker. Dressmaking and millinery a specialty. Rooms over Herold's store. tf

Now is your chance, and such a chance you will have but once in a life time, to buy Clothing, Furnishing Goods, Hats, etc., at slaughtering prices at JOE'S. The entire stock must be sold out as quick as possible. tf

A genuine Stetson $4.00 Hat at $2.75 at JOE'S. tf

When you are in Lincoln, call on W. C. Austin & Co., in McBride block, corner of Twelfth and P streets, for Have lock and University property. tf

JOE has not "burst." Joe never has failed, for he believes there is an honest living for everybody, but owing to Dissolution of Partnership, Joe is compelled to close out his nice and clean stock, regardless of cost. tf

For glassware, queensware and the best and freshest groceries go to Phillip Kraus, where you will find everything you want for your table. tf

A good pair of shoes at $1.00 at JOE'S. tf

To Nervous Debilitated Men.
If you will send us your address, we will mail you our illustrated pamphlet explaining all about Dr. Dye's celebrated Electro-Voltaic Belt and appliances, and their charming effects upon the nervous debilitated system, and how they will quickly restore you to vigor and manhood. Pamphlet free. If you are thus afflicted we will send you a belt and appliances on a trial.
VOLTAIC BELT Co. Marshall, Mich.

For Sale.
A good farm one-fourth mile from the town of Murray, on the M. P. R. R. Plenty of timber and water. Good orchard. 350 bearing trees. Plattsmouth, Neb., Feb., 9th, 1891. wtf
R. W. HYERS.

You can not form an idea what it is to sell clothing, etc., at and below cost until you look through JOE'S stock. tf

It is only with regret JOE has to sell out his entire stock, for he has done a very satisfactory and successful business, but dissolution between JOE and his partner, Mr. William Fisher compels him to close out. tf

Cash.
From this day forward, Elson, the cash one price clothier will only sell strictly for cash. tf

Persons wishing to make investments with best returns or to borrow money on real estate will find it to their advantage to call on Mr. Thos. Pollock and investigate the plan of the Provident Savings, Loan & Building Association of Omaha. A large amount of stock has been taken and a number of loans made in this city, to the satisfaction of all. This is a home institution and books are open to the investigation of all. The many beneficial points seen in our plan will commend themselves to all. Call and see us and be convinced.
40-1w Jas. PETTEE, Gen'l. Agt.
Office under Bank of Cass County, second door from Main street, on Fifth

A Noted Gypsy.
Fortune teller just from the east is at the Perkins House, this city. Past, present and future all told by the hand. Satisfaction guaranteed or money returned. Enquire for Mrs. Boswell. tf

It will not be our aim to see how much profit we can make, but to sell good goods for a small margin for cash. Elson

THE RECORD.

The New Court House an Assured Fact.

PLATTSMOUTH, Neb., Feb. 25, 91.
Board met pursuant to adjournment. Present, A. B. Todd, A. C. Loder, and Jacob Trietsch, commissioners, and Bird Critchfield, county clerk when the following was done, to wit:

This being the day set for receiving bids for building court house in Cass county, Nebraska, the board proceeded to open the said bids, which were as follows:

W. H. Dickens, Plattsmouth, Neb.	$76,000
L. G. Larson	69,675
Wm Neville	68,565
O. J. King, Omaha	67,900
Richards & Co.	70,920
M. L. Murphy	70,000
James H. Harte	71,500
W. L. Morgan & Melham, York	74,000
W. J. Childister, Lincoln	69,900
Eugene Woerner	70,500
F. P. Durham, Seward	70,000

It appearing that O. J. King being the lowest bidder, the contract was duly awarded to him and an agreement entered into, sufficient bond filed and approved.

The contractor is to complete the building according to plans and specifications on or before January 1st, 1892, for the sum of Sixty seven thousand Nine Hundred and Ten Dollars, and all plans, specifications, details, drawings, bonds, etc., are to be considered a part of the Commissioners record.

BIRD CRITCHFIELD, Co. Clerk.

The bond of O. J. King, in the sum of $50,000, was signed by Cal Parmele and F. M. Richey, who is an old time friend of Mr. King. Mr. K. will cause the signature of two or three wealthy gentlemen of Omaha to be appended in addition to the above. Material has been ordered and work will begin at once. The building is three stories high with a high basement. The basement will be of stone while the balance of the building will be of pressed brick with cut stone trimmings. The tower is quite handsome, the top being 137 feet above the pavement. The building sets back a little ways from the pavement and will have a frontage on Main street of 80 feet, with 102 feet on Fourth street. A nice picture of the building as it will appear when finished is on exhibition at the county clerk's office.

County Court.
Petition filed for probate of last will and testament of Bernhard J. Rubge, deceased. Hearing March 23, at 10 a. m.

Petition for final settlement of estate of Ferdinand Kruger, deceased. Hearing March 23, at 2 p. m.

James Irving vs B. L. Miller et al. Argued and submitted.

Company "Q."
Col. Lew Ginger dropped in last night to confer with our Company Q. Young Ladies. The colonel is conducting a G. A. R. Fair for the Posts in Omaha, to open Wednesday, March 4th, at the Coliseum. The young ladies are to go up on the opening night and Col. Ginger has made arrangements with the B. & M. to take a special train, leaving here at 3 or 4 p. m. and returning after the show is over that night, provided one hundred passengers accompany the young ladies. The fare will be 80¢ for the round trip and 25¢ admission to the Coliseum. For the opening night the Omaha Guards and the Council Bluffs Guards engage in a competitive drill. Our Co. Q will break the hearts of the Omaha youth with their fine drill; and the Gatling Gun Squad will give an exhibition drill with that terrible instrument of destruction, which alone is worth $5. They have never before given a public exhibition. The Sons of Vets and their young ladies, and the Dads of Vets and their young ladies, and many of our citizens will take advantage of this special train to visit friends and take in the Grand Army Fair.

A fine worsted men's suit, former price $18, now at $12.50 at JOE'S. tf

Sam Carrigan's department at the shops had one gun too many, so that Sam is now on the retired list, with George Barber, an employe in another department.

The Turners will give a ball at their hall this evening. A grand social time is guaranteed.

The Singer Sewing Machine folks received an invoice of a dozen new machines this morning.

Col. Ginger has consented to help out the Sons of Veterans in an entertainment to be given some time in April.

Don't forget the ball of the Turners' Society at their hall tonight. The best of music will be had and a royal time is expected.

The itching of the scalp, falling of hair, resulting in baldness, are often caused by dandruff, which may be cured by using Hall's Hair Renewer.

Our neighbor must have been asleep yesterday. The important news item of letting the contract for the erection of the new court house was published exclusively in THE HERALD last night.

Guy Livingston went to Lincoln this morning to secure some law books for the new law firm of Dwyer, Livingston & Waling, which will open an office and begin business the first of the coming month.

By a new arrangement in the mail service, the Omaha papers are now carried to Ashland and come in on the Schuyler. This is to put the Omaha dailies on the same footing here as the State Journal, which of late has reached this city nearly an hour ahead of the Omahas.

T. E. Williams, the coal oil king of Plattsmouth, has an incubator in a cave at his home in the Second ward, where he has already hatched out ninety young chickens. The young orphans are kept in a warm place above ground, where they get plenty of sunshine and are doing well.

M. J. O'Riley and Bernard McGlynn, who are putting in the heavy stone wall for the Missouri Pacific well at Union, are in the city today. They say work is progressing satisfactorily and that when they have finished their present job they will put in a well at La Patte. It is understood the company will use city water here, hence no well is needed.

Walter White has forfeited his reputation as being a careful man. It seems he brought the county safe, weighing ten tons, up to the Bank, and as it was growing dusk he left it stand unguarded on the street all night. This was very careless, for had the Nebraska people found it in that condition the safe without a doubt would be resting today with our cannon, at the shrine of Ike Pollard or Lawson Sheldon.

The laws of physics were reversed on the part of the county safe. Careful measurements last night showed it would go through the window with 4 inches to spare. The cold weather, however, instead of contracting seems to have expanded the safe until it lacked more than four inches of going in and had to be pulled back up the incline and turned on its side. It is safely housed now in the Cass County Bank basement and no one was hurt in its removal.

Valuable Citizens.
Philip Meisinger at the ripe age of 81 years, accompanied by his sons, John, George and Peter, with their families, arrived this morning from Pekin, Illinois, and will hereafter be citizens of Cass county. Mr. Adam Moore and family accompanied them, making in all over forty people in the crowd, added to Cass county citizenship today. It required seven freight cars to haul their stock and furniture. John Meisinger moves onto his farm south-east of Cedar Creek, which he purchased of Geo. Weidman last fall. Peter will occupy a farm west of this city, owned by John Becker. George will move onto the old Donnelly place, while Mr. Moore will occupy the Leonard Born farm near the poor house. These people are related to the Cass county Meisingers, the Horns, Geo. Weidman and others here; they are well to do people of means and are indeed a most valuable acquisition. THE HERALD welcomes them to their new home and hopes they may never have occasion to regret the change.

The bridge work on the Missouri Pacific has all been completed except the stone and iron bridge across the Papio in Sarpy county. Work will begin on this bridge very soon. An immense amount of steel rails and ties are being piled up at Union, preparatory to track laying as soon as the above named bridge is completed. The M. P. has a track laying machine that puts down the rails very rapidly when everything is ready for them, so that very early in the spring we may expect to hear the whistle of M. P. locomotives.

Silver Wedding Anniversary.

On Saturday, the 21st day of February Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Holmes celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of their wedding at their pleasant home in Rock Creek Valley, one mile west of Rock Bluffs. About fifty of their old time friends, and a few of their young friends met at their home to preserve the memory of the event, to have a good time, and talk about incidents that happened long, long ago, and to remind them that they were not forgotten by their old friends and neighbors. It is seldom that one has the pleasure of meeting so many old time Nebraskans, many that were present on this occasion, having come here in the "fifties" when the Indians and their cattle (the buffaloes) had possession of nearly all of Nebraska Territory.

These old timers can tell of many pleasant incidents and also of many hardships they had to endure in the olden time. One thing worthy of special mention is the fact that money was so scarce in the years of '58 and '59 that cottonwood lumber was considered legal tender for debt, on the basis that 100 feet of lumber was worth one dollar in gold.

It was about this time in the history of Nebraska that gold dust was discovered in paying quantities at Pike's Peak, Oh! what a rush there was then to get wealth. Everyone was more or less excited, and horses, mules, oxen and cows were used to haul the outfits, as the loadings were called, across the plains. Soon after gold dust became so plentiful that it supplanted cottonwood lumber as currency. It was the custom to carry gold dust in buckskin pouches, and a small pair of scales to weigh the precious metal with.

We can imagine that the ox whacker got the business down very fine when he could weigh out ten cents in dust to exchange with the merchant for ten cents worth of "Jeans River Honey Dew Tobacco." This once famous tobacco is said to have had one peculiar quality, when taken into the mouth it would swell and spread over the chin.

There were present most of the old settlers and neighbors who saw them embark on their voyage twenty five years ago. The day was spent in social visiting and reviewing days that are now of the past.

Too much praise can not be given the ladies for their skill in serving a sumptuous dinner, which was indeed a feast for the inner man and well fitted for a king.

When the guests departed in the evening they left as tokens of their love and esteem to Mr. and Mrs. Holmes, a water set, several pieces of beautiful silverware and a box of cigars, and all joining in wishing them many happy returns of the anniversary, departed for their respective homes.

Those present were W. A. Brown and wife, Anderson Root and wife, J. W. Edmunds and wife, S. G. Latta and wife, Wm. Holmes and wife, Mrs. E. A. Brooks, John Holmes jr, Mrs. Thomas Rankin, R. F. Dean and wife, F. M. Young jr and wife, D. A. Young and wife, Wm. Young and daughter Jennie, Lewis H. Young, wife and daughter Lucila, F. M. Young sr. and daughter Kate, Joseph Sands, wife and daughter, Levi Churchill, Mrs. John Holmes, S. L. Furlong and wife, W. A. Royal and wife, Thomas Sullivan, wife and daughter, Byron Young, of Keya Paha county, Wm. Gilmore, Mrs. Lizzie Cochran, Miss Hattie Holmes, Mrs. Colmore Frans, of Union, Thomas Holmes, I. S. White and wife, Joshua Gopen and wife, J. W. Conn and wife, of Inaval Stock Farm.

Dr. Marshall, DENTIST,
Will be in his office on and after March 14 h.

Died.
Mary Ann Murphy, at the age of 80 years, at the Sister's Hospital in Kansas City. The deceased was the wife of James Murphy, and was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Hayes, residing near Weeping Water. Mr. Murphy was attending his wife at the Sister's Hospital in Kansas City, she having been a sufferer from heart trouble for some time. The father and mother were apprised of her dangerous condition and went to the depot at Weeping Water to take the train to her bedside, when they were shocked by a message announcing her death. Mrs. Murphy was a devoted wife and mother, and leaves five children to mourn an irreparable loss.
The deceased was a sister-in-law of Deputy Sheriff Tighe. The funeral will probably take place tomorrow at the Catholic cemetery near Louisville.
