JOE has not "burst." Joe never has failed, for he believes there is an honest living for everybody, but owing to Dissolution of Partnership, Joe is compelled to close out his nice and clean stock, regardless of cost. tf

You can not form an idea what it is to sell clothing, etc., at and below cost until you look through JOE'S stock. tf

Cash. From this day forward, Elson, the cash one price clothier will only sell strictly for cash. tf

Persons wishing to make investments with best returns or to borrow money on real estate will find it to their advantage to call on Mr. Thos. Pollock and investigate the plan of the Provident Savings, Loan & Building Association of Omaha. A large amount of stock has been taken and a number of loans made in this city, to the satisfaction of all. This is a home institution and books are open to the investigation of all. The many beneficial points seen in our plan will commend themselves to all. Call and see us and be convinced. 40-1w JAS. PETTER, Gen'l. Agt. Office under Bank of Cass County, second door from Main street, on Fifth

It will not be our aim to see how much profit we can make, but to sell good goods for a small margin for cash. Elson the cash clothier. tf

A fine worsted men's suit, former price $18, now at $12.50 at JOE'S. tf

Jim Johnson, one of our wealthy farmers, has this winter lost 175 head of hogs with cholera. This is the third time within a few years that he has suffered the loss of all his hogs. He estimates the value of those lost this season at $1,500.—Weeping Water Republican.

Mrs. Harry Reece and children and Mrs. Ralph Chamberlain of North Platte returned home this morning after an extended visit here with relatives. tf

Gering & Co. received a new drug mill this morning of the latest pattern. It is the largest mill in the city and will be immediately put to use by this enterprising firm. tf

The Wabash News has the fairness to print the commissioners' statement this week in full, which is more than the Weeping Water papers or Elmwood Echo would do. tf

Dr. Schildknecht is out attending to his practice, though quite weak yet. The doctor is eating a can of fresh oysters every day which he thinks is doing him a power of good. tf

The report, that excited passengers stopped the train at Cedar Creek to get a look at Conductor Raney's new hat this morning is positively denied by Capt. Dunlap. We therefore hasten to make the correction. tf

The Quarter-centennial Nebraska State Fair will occur September 4 to 11, at Lincoln. R. W. Furnas and his able corps of assistants are beginning early to make this the leading exhibition in the west. tf

Mr. Luther Shearer has sold his fine farm south of town to W. G. Lanham, for $7,500. A few years ago Mr. Shearer purchased the place of Frank Dohney for $6,000. Mr. S. will move next month to Colorado where he has purchased a tract of land.—Weeping Water Republican. tf

We hunted high and low for the board of trade meeting last night and finally gave it up. The meeting evidently did not materialize. Our board of trade ought to wake up. There is much that could be done to help the town if enthusiastic men will plant their shoulder to the wheel. tf

E. H. Wooley seems to think he can stop our people from tearing down the old court House. If necessary the city council could condemn the old hulk as a nuisance and have it removed. The building is a dangerous nuisance beyond mistake and could be lifted out in that way without a doubt. tf

We had a look at Col. Gruesel's beautifully engraved gold pass this morning. It is practically a certificate from high authority of the fact that Col. Gruesel was conductor for 20 years on the Michigan Central, also a conductor on the Q for several years and Roadmaster on the B. & M. It is good everywhere, on all roads, in honor of an active life on the rail. tf

A Meritorious Measure.

Representative Shylock introduced the bill which we print below. It is a meritorious measure and should become a law.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Nebraska:

SECTION 1. That it shall be unlawful for any two or more persons or corporations of this state engaged in the business of buying or selling live stock, or others on commission to enter into any combination, agreement or arrangement for the purpose of, or which tends to control the charges or commissions to be demanded or received by such persons or corporations for their services for the sale of live stock.

SECTION 2. That it shall be unlawful for any person or persons or corporation or corporations engaged in buying or selling live stock for others upon commission, to continue with or enter into any agreement or arrangement with any person or persons or corporation or corporations engaged in the business of purchasing live stock, either for themselves or as agents for others which shall have for its purpose or in any respect tends to prevent full and free competition in the business of selling live stock for others. And it shall be unlawful for any person or persons or corporation or corporations doing business in this state to become a member of any society, association or corporation whose by-laws provide for the selling of live stock for others, or whose by-laws prohibit its members from purchasing live stock from persons who are not members of such society, association or corporation; and in all such by-laws of any such society, association or corporation doing business in this state are hereby declared illegal and void and any person attempting to enforce or to indirectly enforce or make the same operative or effectual, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and any corporation, which shall attempt to have any such by-laws enforced, or shall obey such by-laws and refuse to buy from other on account of such by-laws, shall in addition to the penalties hereinafter provided, forfeit its charter.

SECTION 3. That all persons entering into such combination, agreement or arrangement, or who shall after the passage of this act, attempt to carry out or to indirectly carry out such combination, agreement or arrangement, described in sections 1 and 2 of this act, either on his own account or as the agent for another, or as an officer, stockholder or member of any corporation, society or association, or as a trustee, committee or in any capacity whatever or who shall in any respect violate any of the foregoing sections, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction thereof shall be fined not less than $500, and not more than $1,000, or be imprisoned in the county jail not less than thirty days, and not more than six months, or by both fine and imprisonment for each and every offense.

SECTION 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

More Bile.

Somebody who has got more bile on his stomach than sand in his craw makes an attempt at ridiculing the Echo and others papers who dare defend the people against unwarranted injustices practised by the Plattsmouthites. This "somebody" who dares not sign his name comes out in the Greenwood paper and upholds Loder in his unsanctioned work. Loder's followers are few outside of Sodom.—Elmwood Echo.

Take some good liver remedy, Bert with a little "lacto peptin" for the digestive organs and you will come out all right. Loder respects the law and follows its commands to the letter; the trouble is all with your stomach. Take "suthin" and brace up.

Fred Gorder.

The king of the implement trade in Cass county, is getting in his spring stock which comprises everything in the line of farm implements to be found. Mr. Gorder also makes a specialty of fine "buggies, carriages, and single and double harness. Gorder carries the largest stock of harness to be found in the county; call and see him on lower Main street. Plattsmouth, Neb. d&w-tf

Crystal Wedding.

Weeping Water Rep. Bureau.

Last Friday was the date of a very pleasant gathering at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Coon. The occasion was the celebration of the 15th anniversary of their wedded life. Hilarity reigned and feasting was indulged in that was duly appreciated by all. Numerous articles were presented Mr. and Mrs. Coon which will help to remind them of the event. Mr. and Mrs. David Woodard and Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Johnson were present from this city.

A Pleasant Party.

Last evening Mrs. Newell to properly commemorate the 22nd birthday of her son Jason, unbeknown to the young man invited in a company of his friends. Jason was quite upset over his unexpected guests, but entertained the boys at high five and in social conversation until supper was announced when all repaired to the dining room and thoroughly enjoyed a sumptuous repast. Ere the close of the evening's festivities Jason was presented by his guests with a handsome meerschaum pipe which happened to be just the thing he wanted. Those present were Chas. Miller, Lew Reinhardt, Chas. Grassman, Ted Clifford, Henry Tartsch, Otto Kos, Rudolph Rauen, W. C. Tippin, W. Wilson, H. C. Seidle, and Frank Ballance.

The Princes of the Orient.

This royal order met at a rather late hour last night and elevated Mr. O. Buzzell and Mr. Wm. Kelly Fox to a right to sit in the Kingly Halls. Aaron Orisman and Thomas Thomas paid their initiatory fee and were to have been installed, but the smell of fresh human blood which was wafted through the key-hole and the cries of the victims to the tests, when put upon the rack to see if they were of royal stock, so frightened these two worthy gentlemen that they hurriedly withdrew from the ante room, without a demand for the return of their money. The report that what they heard and saw had turned them both gray in a single night is not true; while they were quite nervous they seemed otherwise in good spirits this morning.

WANTED.—A girl for second work. at Mrs. R. B. Windham's, 717 Walnut street. 45-d&w1

A Close Call.

John Murray is in the city today from the town of Murray, bundled up about the neck on account of the serious accident which befel him last Tuesday. Mr. Murray was getting a mule shod at Wm. Loughridge's blacksmith shop; one sharpened shoe had just been nailed on and Murray went to pick up the animal's foot when his muleship kicked, striking Murray on the throat, cutting a gash that laid bare the jugular vein and windpipe. The wound was dressed by Dr. Brendle and Mr. Murray is getting along first rate, but it certainly was as near a summons from the angel of death as one would care to experience.

A. O. U. W. No. 24.

The above order is having quite an accession to its already large membership. Last evening Messrs. Clel Morgan, Chas. Eads, Otto Kos, Charley Rydberg, Joe Hiber, Cyril Alexander and five others whose names we could not learn were initiated, with more to follow soon. It is certainly a good order and well deserves its present prosperity.

Thomas S. Allen eldest son of B. F. Allen of this place, with four other young men were admitted to the bar at Lincoln last Thursday. The Lincoln Journal says: "they were subjected to an unusually rigid examination and not a question was asked but brought a prompt and accurate reply. Members of the committee were unanimous in opinion that it was the best examination they had ever attended. Much credit is due the Central law school for the thoroughness of these young men in the rudimentary knowledge of their chosen profession.—Wabash News.

An Old relic.

Mr. S. C. Drake who is a grandson of Mrs. Seaborn Callaway and lives at what was her place, brought for our inspection two very curious relics of the early times in Wilkes. They are evidently moulds for pewter or lead spoons. One is for a table spoon, the other for a tea spoon. How old they are, cannot be known, but they must have come with the first settlers after the revolutionary war.—Washington Ga Chronicle.

The Mrs. Callaway mentioned above is a great Aunt of Mrs. Dr. Siggins of this city.
