We Are Not Alone.

An Omaha paper says: "The Burlington has been quietly cutting down his force of clerks at the headquarters in this city and last night finished, giving out notices discharging fifty men. The discharges read that 'in consequence of the present poor state of business and the poor outlook for the future,' the company is obliged to dispense with the services of the man addressed. As a rule the notices are to take effect March 15.

"I know," said one of the clerks, "but business is poor. Is the company doing this for effect on the legislature? Hardly. We are told that the road did not pay expenses last month, and from the reports that pass through our hands I believe it."

The understanding is that one-fourth of the force is to be discharged. Some men who got notice of discharge have been working for the company six or seven years."

The Ganning Company.

The Ganning Company real estate was sold yesterday to Frank Gathman by the sheriff for $4,300. It was foreclosed on an $11,000 mortgage. The prospects now are very favorable for the operation of the plant this summer. We trust that the arrangements being made will be fully carried out, as the canning factory employees were poor people, and is of more real advantage to the city than any institution we ever had outside of the B. & M. shops.

Winter gets here late but it gets here all the same on both feet.

Call and see the New Home sewing machine, entirely new.

WANTED—A girl for second work, at Mrs. R. B. Windham's, 717 Walnut street. 45 d-w-1

Elson, the cash one price clothier, is selling goods cheaper than any other house in town.

Frank Benson, wife and son, of Creston, are visiting Mr. Benson's father and mother for a few days.

Fred Gardner sold J. C. Petersen the nicest set of harness we have seen for many a day. Fred is carrying a large line of fine goods.

Colonel Draper and Ruffner have been arranging to start a big implement depot in this city, but not finding suitable rooms and sufficient encouragement they have given the matter up entirely.

The little babe of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Farthing died last night. Aged 8 months. The funeral will take place tomorrow at 2 o'clock from the St. E. church. Rev. Buckner will have charge of the services. Friends of the family invited.

Prizes at a bargain; call at J. M. Muir's and inspect. Easy terms, a rare chance. 114 North Sixth street. 3&t

H. P. Sundell, one of our best citizens started this morning with his family for Burt county. Mr. Sundell owns a farm there which they expect to improve and in doing so will enjoy the pleasures and profits of farm life. The Herald goes with Mr. Sundell to keep him posted on matters of interest in old Cass.

You will be surprised how cheap you can buy boys' and men's clothing at Elson, the cash one price clothier. 4&t

A telegram from Aurora, Ill., says: "Over 400 men have been discharged by the C. E. & Q. car and locomotive shops here. The laboratory has been practically abandoned and the working force at the shops reduced fully 50 per cent. This is the biggest cut made by the company since 1876.

The proprietors of Ely's Cream Balm do not claim it to be a cure-all, but a sure remedy for earache, colds in head and hay fever. It is not a liquid or a snuff, but is easily applied into the nostrils. It gives relief at once.

Uncle Robert Metcalf resides with his son-in-law, Peter Eyland, out in the western part of the county. He said he drove two miles to their station, on the Rock Island this morning, boarded the train for South Bend, arriving there in time to catch the Schuyler which put him in Plattsmouth in time for a late breakfast. He can't see why people want to change the county seat for any out of the way village, and he refused to sign the petition much to the disgust of some of his neighbors.

Wm. A. Linch of Greenwood, one of Cass county's early settlers, has just returned from the sunny south. He purchased 1,500 acres of land in Alabama and is arranging to move his family down there as soon as possible. The success which P. P. Johnson of Red Oak has been making down there bids fair to take all his acquaintances to that country. Mr. Linch thinks he has a fortune within his grasp and we trust that he has.

Horatio Didn't Squawl.

Last night H. N. Dovy went out back of the store and was greatly surprised to run onto a wagon and team in the alley. He stopped, and noticed two fellows piling wood into the wagon from Murphy's wood pile on one side and Deyve's on the other. H. N., in a commanding tone of voice calculated to strike terror to the hearts of evildoers, demanded what they were doing! They jumped onto the wagon; one of them picked up a stick of stove wood and raised it, as he said, "don't you squawl!" In the meantime the other fellow got hold of the lines, and the way that team flew through the alley and south on Third street was a caution. Horatio did not squawl until they were safely out of sight; then he got hot and thirsty for gore, but it was too late. At last accounts the thieves had not been captured.

Board of Trade Meeting.

The board of trade will meet at the G. A. R. Hall, Wednesday evening, March 4, at 8 o'clock. Matters of importance to consider. Every member should be present. A. B. Todd, President.

New Bakery.

Henry Weckbach & Co., in company with Fred Stadelman, are going to operate a first class bakery John Hartman and George Longenhagen are engaged to build the oven, which will be the largest and best in the county.

A Lizard in His Stomach.

The following special telegram to the Bee was sent from Chicago yesterday and is evidently not intended as a joke but as a fact. We think it is not intended as a fright for prohibitionists. The telegram is as follows:

Chicago, March 2. A dark green lizard three and one-half inches long, crawled out of Michael Daly's stomach today. Last September while in a little town about eight miles from Erie, Pa., Mr. Daly drank from a spring near the depot and the next day he felt queer inside. About a month ago the lizard began causing him serious trouble for the first time, and he had serious fits of vomiting. He was told that whiskey would kill the animal, and he drank until he had tremors, but the lizard held the fort. Then he consulted a doctor and was told to drink nothing but salt water for twenty-four hours. He ate two or three pounds of salt pork. About 10 o'clock this morning a pan of hot milk was placed by his bedside. When Daly leaned over he felt something crawling on the side of his stomach and in a moment the reptile was in his throat and fell with a splash into the water.

Ethie Ellsler.

Here is a portion of the extended notice the Philadephia Telegraph gave to Miss Ethie Ellsler during her last engagement in that city:

"The very situation of Miss Ellsler's eyes and her beautiful complexion, she is equal to any other woman and is not once forced into frantic court or hysterical extravagances. With an intellect of reserve and fine subtle to the industry of nature, Miss Ellsler appeals to the intelligence as well as to the sympathy of her audience; and the result is most gratifyingly effective. She captures hearts with her, and she excels in making a profound impression which will permanently engrave upon an artist's rare abilities."

Miss Ellsler brings a new play to Plattsmouth next Saturday, when she appears at the Walden opera house. "Miss Manning," a brilliant light comedy, will be introduced.

An Elegant Record.

For the benefit of the large number of policy holders and other interested parties in this city, we take the pleasure in publishing the following report issued by the Bankers' Life Insurance Company at Lincoln at the beginning of the present year. This report is the best that has ever been made by a level premium company at the same age. This statement, combined with the fact that the Bankers' is purely a Nebraska company, should give it precedence over all others with citizens of this state.

The following advertisement, published by a prominent western patent medicine house, would indicate that they regard disease as a punishment for sin: "Do you wish to know the quickest way to cure severe cold? We will tell you. To cure a cold quickly, it must be treated before the cold has become settled in the system. This can always be done if you choose to, as nature in her kindness to man gives timely warning and plainly tells you in nature's way, that as a punishment for some indiscretion, you are to be afflicted with a cold unless you choose to ward it off by prompt action. The first symptoms of a cold, in most cases, is a dry, loud cough and sneezing. The cough is soon followed by a profuse watery expectoration and the sneezing by a profuse watery discharge from the nose. In severe cases there is a thin white coating on the tongue. What to do? It is only necessary to take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in double doses every hour. That will greatly lessen the severity of the cold and in most cases will effectually counteract it, and cure what would have been a severe cold in one or two days' time. Try it and be convinced." 50 cent bottles for sale by F. G. Fricke & Co., druggists.
