Remarkable Rescue.

Mrs. Michael Cuttain, Plainfield, Ill., makes the statement that she caught cold, which set tled on her longs; she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse. He old her she was a hopeless victim of consumption and that no medicine could cure her

Her Druggist suggested Dr. King's new discovery for consumption; she bought a bottle and to her delight found herself benefited from the first dose. She continued its use and after taking ten bottles, found herself sound and well now does her own housework and is as well a she ever was. - Free trial bottles of this great discovery at F. G. Some years ago Chamberlain & Co., of Des Mornes, Iowa, commenced the manufacture of a cough syrup, believing it to be the most prompt and reliable preparation yet produced for coughs, colds and eroup; that the public appreciate true merit, and in time it was certain to become popular. Their most sanguine hopes have been more than realized. Over three hundred thousand bottles of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy are now sold each year, and it is recognized as "the best made," wherever known. It will cure a severe cold in less time than any other treatment. For sale by F. G. Fricke & Co.

FREE LAND COMES HIGH.

Town Lots Given Away, but There Are Expenses Attached to Them.

I heard about the man who was giving away town lots free, and one day I left the train at a small station and hired a man to drive me over to the site of the future great city. I found a sixty acrefarm staked out into lots 20 feet front by 50 deep, but only one house and one person were in sight. The house was a farm cabin, and the person was the owner of it and the one I wanted to see. "Come for a lot?" he asked as we drove

"Yes, in case my information is correct. Do you give them away free?"

"I do." "I had heard so,"

"Go right out and select any one you like. Those selected are marked with red stakes, those not yet taken by black ones."

I took a walk around and made a selection, and he found the number and

"You want an abstract of title, of course. Here it is, and the fee is $3." When I had received it he hunted out a deed already signed, and filled my name in, called in the teamster and his wife for witnesses, and said:

"Here is your deed. I'll have to charge $4 for that."

I paid the sum named, and he then got down a big book and said: "You want it recorded, of course. I am the county clerk. The fee for recording is $3." I had it duly recorded, and just then dinner was ready. He invited me to sit down, but when we were through he

"My charge for dinner is seventy-five cents. The taxes on your lot will be due next week, and you had better leave the money. The amount is $1.75, and my commission for receipting will be twenty-five cents."

I paid him the sum named and was about to get into the wagon, when he said:

"The charge for bringing you over and taking you back is $2. Half belongs to me, as I own the wagon. One dollar, please."

"Can you think of anything further?" I asked, as I handed him the dollar. "Well, you'll have to stop at the junction about four hours before the eastern train comes along. I own the restaurant there. Please eat all you can." "I have," I said, after a little figuring. "paid you $13.75 for a lot you advertise to give away free. How much do you call this land worth an acre?"

"All of six dollars, sir. I've been offered five and wouldn't take it." "Then I've paid you more than the value of two acres to get a lot large enough to bury a couple of cows on!" "Exactly, sir-exactly, and I congratulate you on your bargain." "Then you don't call it a swindle?" "No, sir! No, sir! A man who will kick on buying a chunk of the glorious west for less than $14 isn't straight, and, Mr. Tompkins, I'd advise you to keep an eye on him going back and see that he doesn't jump out of the wagon and bilk you out of your dollar."—Wilmington

Private Interview.

One may sometimes be made to see the uselessness of a foolish habit by being made the victim of similar behavior on the part of another. Here is an example of being paid "in one's own coin:" A landlord in a country village was busily employed at his desk when a farmer came to the door and asked to The man was asked his errand, but he persisted that he must see the hotel keeper alone. The latter stepped outside, when the farmer motioned him to follow and walked around to the rear of the hotel.

When they were well around the corner the farmer stated that he wished to buy a cow and had heard that the landlord had one to sell.

"Come on," said the other, and led the way through a garden, a patch of potatoes, and after climbing a fence, through a muddy barnyard and into the hotel

When they were inside the landlord put his mouth near the other's ear and whispered: "Say, neighbor, I've sold my cow!"-

Nicknames at College.

With students the range of sobriquets is wide and varied, a condition due to the close relations between the nicknamer and the nicknamed. Some well defined rules obtain, however, which show there is some method in this phase of undergraduate madness. Surnames often carry the same nicknames, although the persons may not be related, and may be separated by five or ten years in the time of their residence at college. For instance, Jones, '79, is dubbed "Buck," and the chances are excellent that Jones, '89, will receive the same nickname. Why, no one knows, but it is a curious instance of persistent personality. Again, nicknames received previously at school or at home count for naught, for the collegian is no respecter of traditions outside of the college world. So "Billy" becomes "Sister," "Jack" is transformed into "Reddy," "Joe" is elevated into "Senator," etc.-New York Tribune.

Mutual Lack of Confidence. "I will have to owe you a dime," said Schuler Jewett to the tobacconist as he bit off the end of a cigar. "But I haven't got confidence in you that diamond pin as collateral."

"That diamond pin is worth a dollar as he strolled out into Broadway puffing
