A National Event. The holding of the World's Fair in a city scarcely fifty years old will be a remarkable event, but whether it will really benefit this nation as much as the discovery of the Restorative Nerve by Dr. Franklin Miles is doubtful.

Remarkable Rescue. Mrs. Michael Egan, Plainfield, Ill., makes the statement that she caught cold when she set out on her legs; she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse.

Happy Hoosiers. Wm. Timmons, Postmaster of Elaville, Ind., writes: "Electric Bitters has done more for me than all other medicines combined, for that bad feeling arising from Kidney and Liver trouble."

The following advertisement, published by a prominent western patent medicine house, would indicate that they regard disease as a punishment for sin: "Do you wish to know the quickest way to cure a severe cold? We will tell you. To cure a cold quickly, it must be treated before the cold has become settled in the system."

AMONG MOONSHINERS.

Quiller had risen, and stood near the fire. "I think I can give it," he said, knocking the ashes out of his pipe. Graves stared at him; no one spoke, and he went on, as if unwillingly.

"That must have been Drake's cottage you had," he was to lose your time—I dare say you never heard of him. He lived there with his wife—and that's her portrait." Graves' stare of surprise became more profound, and he looked at Quiller in silent wonder.

"I looked at Graves, but he was lost in a wonderment too deep for words. The portrait's very like her," said Quiller, with a strange awe in his tone.
