St. Patrick's Day

To-morrow is St. Patrick's Day. A day that is always celebrated by the sons of the green isle. The Ancient Order of Hibernians of this city will join the delegations from all over the state at Lincoln to-morrow, and celebrate St. Patrick's natal day in a manner befitting its importance. The B. & M. band will go up with the boys and discourse their best music. Arrangements have been made with the B. & M. to bring the Plattsmouth people home from Omaha where they will be brought by a special train which will not leave Lincoln until after 10 o'clock to-morrow evening. This arrangement of trains will permit Plattsmouth people to put in a full day at Lincoln and return the same day after the close of all exercises. Mike Whelan will be in charge of the Cass county delegations in the parade. Besides the A. O. H. many citizens will go up and take part in the festivities.

The Fair

Having purchased of Mr. Barrett his entire stock of goods, the new firm of Cable & Aher, from Manning, Iowa, will take possession of the "Fair" on April 1st. These gentlemen are men of means and we are informed they will double the stock now carried at this well known store. The HERALD heartily welcomes the new firm to our business circles, and trusts that Mr. Barrett, who has made many friends in the city by his gentlemanly demeanor and genial manners, may find something here to his liking that we may not have to mention his removal from among us.

Apple Trees

I will have for sale at John Y. Stone's fruit farm, one mile west of Glenwood, Iowa, in time for planting this spring, a large stock of apple trees of the varieties tested by experience in this climate and proved to be valuable in South-western Iowa and South-eastern Nebraska. These trees were grown in Mills county, Iowa, and in Missouri, and from this stock Mr. Stone will plant heavily this spring, and most of them were grown in the nurseries from which he has planted largely during the last six years. This farm is six miles east of Plattsmouth.

R. C. WHITE,
Glenwood, Iowa.

A Splendid Entertainment

WEeping WATER, NEB.
I listened to Prof. Crosthwait with much pleasure and delight. The program rendered was varied and each number seemed better than the preceding one. The professor is more than an ordinary elocutionist.

Wm. FRANKLIN,
Gen'l. Sec'y. Y. M. C. A.

At the M. E. church on the evening of March 17. Admission 25 cents.

PERSONAL

John L. Minor is quite sick with pneumonia.

Charles S. Dawson was a Chicago visitor Saturday.

C. A. Miller mended his way to the metropolis this morning.

Mrs. Wash Smith and daughter are seeing friends in Omaha today.

Jos. McCutley and a Mr. Stoncking departed this morning for California.

Will Hayes, we are sorry to state, is still quite sick with something like pneumonia.

L. G. Knott of Council Bluffs was in the city yesterday, the guest of his brother, A. B.

Mrs. Joe Droegel leaves tonight for a six months visit with relatives and friends in Germany.

Hon. W. B. Shryock is seeing his friends here today, as the legislature does not convene until tomorrow.

John Lasech and family are no longer residents of Plattsmouth having moved westward Saturday.

Miss Currier of Chicago has been the guest of Miss Berta Myers, for past few days departed this morning for Kansas City.

Mrs. S. L. Wood, wife of Elder Wood, died at their home yesterday at 12 o'clock. An extended obituary notice will appear later.

The democratic primaries will be held Wednesday night.

Dr. Thede Livingston started Saturday for Chicago, where he expects to take a course of lectures in medicine. He will be gone three months.

Mrs. Davis, mother of S. A. Davis, while visiting at Weeping Water fell and broke a wrist bone. Mr. Davis went over to Weeping Water Saturday evening and found his mother resting as comfortably as could be expected.

S. E. Dutton started this morning for Colorado Springs where he hopes to rest up and grow fat. Close attention to business here has almost destroyed his health and the HERALD is glad to know that he takes a rest before it is too late.

The Patti Rosa entertainment at the opera house Saturday night was one of the best of the season. The star is not only a fine actress but her support was all above mediocrity. Only a small audience was present to enjoy the entertainment.

The funeral services of Mrs. S. L. Wood, wife of Rev. J. M. Wood, will take place on Wednesday, March 18, at 10 o'clock, at the Baptist church in South Park. Rev. J. J. Keeler, of Central City, Neb., will conduct the services.

Dr. C. A. Marshall came home Saturday, having completed his course and graduated with honors at the Iowa State Dental College, one of the most thorough institutions in the country. Dr. Marshall will now resume the practice of his profession, and may hereafter be found at his old office in the Fitzgerald Block.

Fourth Ward Republican. Republicans of the Fourth ward are requested to meet at the office of Brown & Ballou tomorrow, evening 7:30 sharp, to nominate a Candidate for city council and also elect delegates to city convention that meets same evening. By order of Committee.

How to Succeed.

This is the great problem of life which few satisfactorily solve. Some fail because of ill health, others want of luck, but the majority from insufficient grit—want of nerve. They are nervous, irresolute, changeable, easily get the blues, and "take the spirits down to keep the spirits up," thus wasting money, time, opportunity and nerve force. There is nothing like the Restorative Nerve, discovered by the great specialist, Dr. Miles, to cure all nervous diseases, as headache, the blues, nervous prostration, sleeplessness, neuralgia, St. Vitus dance, fits and hysteria. Trial bottles and fine book of testimonials free at F. G. Fricke & Co's.

We Must Submit!

"It is useless to strive against fate any longer. We have faced the enemy and have been vanquished. Our doom is sealed and we might as well succumb to the inevitable as to further hope for justice at the hands of men who care not for honor nor integrity. From all indications the county seat of Cass county will remain in Plattsmouth for all time to come. No power emanating from the throne of justice will ever give the people of Cass county their just reward so long as that class manipulate the wires behind the throne. We might as well attempt to dam up the rushing waters of the Missouri river as to hope for justice from such a source.

An injunction was served on the commissioners to prevent them from destroying the old court house but the court asked that $100,000 be given as a bond to guarantee costs in case the plaintiff lost the case. As the courts are submissive to Plattsmouth's will it was useless to proceed further, so the injunction was withdrawn by order of the court. This ends it. We can hope for justice no more in this matter. The new court house will be built in Plattsmouth and there is no preventative. There is one consolation, however, in the fact that the county's books and private papers will be safely kept from the impending danger that they are subjected to in the old rookery that has served for a court house so long. Yes, there is another bit of consolation, too, and that is the hopes of getting a whack at the present county commissioners in another political aspiration for office. Remember them voters!" Elmwood Echo.

The $100,000 bond that was demanded, is only in the imagination of Brother Mayfield, as the case had not got to a point where a bond for anything was required by the court.

Howard Zink.

Howard Zink resided and taught school for many years in this county; he studied law and was admitted to the bar in this city. He removed to Neligh and did well until he began to drink to excess, and since that time only misfortune has attended him. He moved to Lincoln about a year ago, and the following, from the Lincoln Call, gives an account of his latest difficulty:

"H. W. Zink, until recently an attorney having an office in the Burr block, was arrested this morning by a deputy sheriff at the instance of M. M. Morrill, an attorney of Nauvoo, Ill. who arrived in the city last evening to look after the interests of a client, a widow living at Nauvoo. It is said that the widow sent to Zink a mortgage for settlement, which netted $530. Zink secured the settlement and placed the money to his credit in the German National bank. He then wrote the widow he had the money and directed her to send him a release of the mortgage. The release was forwarded and the widow drew on the bank for the money, but Zink had drawn it out, together with some private funds.

She immediately consulted Mr. Morrill, her attorney, who came to investigate. He called upon Mr. Zink, but that individual would not produce the collateral, and he is now in custody pending a hearing and an effort to settle the difficulty.

Roadmaster Clark of the Missouri Pacific was at the Dellone last night. He says work on the Omaha-Union cut-off will begin as soon as the frost is out of the ground. The bridges and grading are finished and all that is necessary is to lay the ties and rails. A large portion of the track is already in place, and it will only take about thirty days to complete the work. When the cut-off is finished the time between Omaha, Kansas City and St. Louis will be reduced about two hours. Trains will probably be running by June 1.—Omaha Bee.

The usual treatment of catarrh is very unsatisfactory, as thousands of despairing patients can testify. A trustworthy medical writer says: "Proper local treatment is positively necessary to success, but most of the remedies in general use by physicians afford but temporary benefit. A cure cannot be expected from snuffs, powders, douches and washes." Ely's Cream Balm is a remedy which combines the important requisites of quick action, specific curative power with perfect safety and pleasantness to the patient.

JOE, the One Price Clothier, will continue to sell you at and below cost until April 1st, as JOE is very much in need of money.

Politics.

Dr. Salisbury presided at the First ward republican caucus Saturday evening. C. S. Polk was secretary. George Houseworth was chosen by acclamation unanimously for councilman. The delegates to the city convention were J. I. Unruh, M. D. Polk, Chet Smith, Byron Clark, Henry Mauzy, J. A. Davies, and J. I. Unruh was recommended for central committee.

In the Second ward D. K. Barr presided and M. N. Griffith, was Secretary. D. K. Barr was unanimously selected as nominee for the city council. L. D. Bennett was recommended for the school board and P. D. Bates was recommended for central committee. Delegates to city convention are M. N. Griffith, J. F. Hinshaw, Fred Howland, R. B. Windham, D. K. Barr and P. D. Bates, J. W. Johnson, Robt. Donnelly, Frank Johnson.

In the Third ward M. E. Murphy was nominated for councilman and thirteen delegates were selected for the city convention. Wm. Hayes was recommended for member of the school board.

The Fourth ward held no caucus. At the Fifth ward Harry Coolidge presided and A. J. Graves was secretary. Mr. E. E. Hilton and M. E. Beals were nominated for the city council, and A. J. Graves was recommended for school board. Five delegates were selected to the city convention.

A Star Course Concert.

Music Hall was almost entirely filled with people last evening, to hear the Swedish Ladies sing. It was an extremely interesting and enjoyable concert. The Swedish Ladies are apparently quite young girls, with very pleasant, fresh, clear voices, combining among the double quartette an immense range of tone. They are modest and unassuming in their manners, singing with phenomenal sweetness, smoothness, and precision, and with a power of modulation that is very wonderful. Their numbers were nearly all in their native tongue, that sounded very sweet to the ear. They appeared in various native costumes, which were very charming, rich and unique. The audience was very enthusiastic, encoring every number once, and some twice, to which the singers responded very amiably. Plain Dealer, Cleveland, O.

They will appear at the Waterman next Friday night, March 20. Reserved seat tickets go on sale to-morrow morning. Price, 75c.

Republican City Convention

The republican city convention will meet in Rockwood Hall to-morrow (Tuesday) evening at 8 o'clock.

Base Ball Meeting.

Those interested in organizing a base ball team will meet in the council chamber tomorrow (Tuesday) evening.

JOE, the One Price Clothier, takes great pleasure to inform his friends and patrons that he has bought out the interest of Mr. Wm. Fisher and will continue the business as before at the old place opera house corner.

Dr. Marshall

Has returned from Iowa City and will be found at his office in the Fitzgerald block, where he is prepared to do all kinds of dental work.

The Ladies of the M. E. church

Have secured Prof. L. L. Crosthwait, the celebrated elocutionist, to give an entertainment at the church Tuesday evening, March 17th. Tickets 25 cents. On sale at Wildman & Fuller's.
