For sale or rent—My house is for sale or rent. Any one wishing a nice house should call at once.

Call at "The Fair" and see the large assortment of glassware and tinware.

Baby is Sick. The woeful expression of a Des Moines teamster's countenance showed his deep anxiety was not entirely without cause, when he inquired of a druggist of the same city what was the best to give to a baby for a cold? It was not necessary for him to say more, his countenance showed that the pet of the family, if not the idol of his life was in distress. "We give our baby Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," was the druggist's answer. "I don't like to give the baby such strong medicine," said the teamster. "You know John Oleson, of the Watters-Talbot Printing Co., don't you? Inquired the druggist. His baby, when eighteen months old, got hold of a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and drank the whole of it. Of course it the baby vomit very freely but did not hurt it the least, and what is more it cured the baby's cold. The teamster already knew the value of the Remedy, having used it himself, and was now satisfied that there was no danger in giving it even to a baby. For Sale by F. G. Fricke & Co. Druggists.

Notice. All persons knowing themselves indebted to undersigned for last year's ice and other year's ice will please call and settle, as no ice will be delivered to them until former accounts are paid. The ice wagon is on the street daily and ready to deliver on order.

Agents Wanted. Apply at the Singer agency at Henry Beck's.

I am now prepared to deliver ice to any part of the city. Telephone 72.

PERSONAL

County Attorney Travis is in the city today.

Peter Merges had business to attend to in Omaha to-day.

Mrs. Geo. Houseworth will spend the day with friends in Omaha.

Fred Gorder went to Council Bluffs and Omaha to-day on important business.

Henry Snyder left yesterday for Grafton, West Virginia, his old home, to visit for a few weeks.

Sherman Knee, manager of the Nebraska City telephone exchange, was in town yesterday visiting his mother.

Mrs. Smith of Balco, Missouri, daughter of Dr. Schildknecht, is at her father's for treatment, being seriously ill with dropsy.

J. J. Cassidy, the genial yardmaster for the B. & M. in this city, went to Lincoln yesterday on a visit. During his absence Charley Johnson will act as yardmaster.

Mrs. Harris of Omaha has been appointed deputy labor commissioner by Governor Boyd.

Business on the B. & M. must be picking up as three extra freight trains were run yesterday.

The old muddy is on another rampage and was higher this morning than at any time before this year.

Dr. Ed. Cummins new cottage on Pearl street is nearing completion and something is evidently going to happen very soon.

Joseph A. Connor sold 100,000 bushels of corn a few days ago, and fifteen cars of it will be shipped to St. Louis to-day from his warehouse in this city.

Ed Neal the Omaha murderer is said to be failing fast, he no longer keeps up his former nonchalance, and seems to think that his days on earth are really numbered.

Frank Moore, one of the victims of the saw-mill accident at Rock Bluffs some time ago, was in town Saturday for the first time since he was hurt. He carries an ugly scar on his throat and neck that fully indicates what a close call he had.

Owing to rush of business, Wise & Root have not been able to make the fine display of patterns promised. But by Wednesday their second invoice will arrive and they will be ready to receive their patrons and show them the most elegant line of hats, ornaments, etc., ever shown in Plattsmouth. The styles will be absolutely correct.

Mrs. B. N. Loverin is having a pleasant time just now in the mountains near Denver. Mr. Loverin says he will sever his connection with the B. & M. about the first of May and that they will move back to their old home at Princeton, Ills. They will both be greatly missed here, especially Mrs. Loverin in church circles.

The Grand Island Times has been compelled to suspend the publication of its daily. This is a black eye for the town of Grand Island, and is indeed the worst advertisement of the condition of business there that could have been written. The first signs of a down hill growth in a town, is the suspension of its papers that have labored long for its prosperity.

The Omaha Bee announces in today's issue that on and after to-day the Daily Bee, including the Sunday edition, will be delivered anywhere in Omaha or South Omaha for five cents per week. As that will not pay for the white paper the Bee is printed on, much less pay for delivering it, is probable that the cut in rates is not intended as a money making scheme.

D. W. Shinn, the teacher of the Oreadopolis school, celebrated Arbor day in a becoming manner. One hundred and fifty trees were planted by the school during the forenoon and the afternoon was given over to literary exercises of an appropriate character. More than usual interest is manifested in the Oreadopolis school this year, which speaks well for Mr. Shinn's management.

Mr. Con McCarty, the valiant section foreman for the B. & M. in this city, met with a very painful accident Saturday which required the attention of a surgeon. One of his men in driving a spike struck it a glancing blow which sent the spike humming towards Mr. McCarty, striking him in the face and cutting an ugly gash three inches long. Dr. Cummins sewed it up and he is at work to-day as usual.

Stockholders' Meeting. The shareholders in the National Building Loan Protective Union of Minneapolis are hereby notified to meet at the office of Wm. L. Brown, Tuesday evening, April 28, at 7:30 o'clock.

Court House Notes.

McMaken will finish the grading and excavations to-day.

Contractor Peterson has his lime and cement house nearly completed.

Work on the concrete foundations in charge of M. J. O'Reilly will begin this afternoon.

Superintendent Coursey put on a meter and extended a service pipe to-day for the brick and stone contractors.

The sand to be used in the court house comes from Cedar Creek and is being delivered on the ground by Jim Sage.

Superintendent Bates is kept busy looking after every thing, to see that the specifications are lived up to in the letter.

The only cellar under the building will be at the northeast corner where the boiler will be placed to furnish the steam for heating purposes.

Three carloads of extra heavy blocks of Colorado red sandstone came in yesterday to be cut and smoothed up for trimming. The blocks were so large that two of them made a carload. Contractor King sent down a wagon strongly built with tires nearly a foot wide to handle the stone with.

The commissioners have a great responsibility resting on their shoulders in the careful expenditure of the public money as well as in seeing that they get at all times what they pay for. Those who are acquainted with the members of the board, however, realize that nothing will be forgotten or left undone to give us the best court house in Nebraska for the money.

Comic Opera. The reserved seat sale for the "Little Tycoon" opera company will open Wednesday morning. Prices, reserved seats, $1.50; admission, $1.00; reserved seats, gallery, 75 cents; admission, gallery, 50 cents.

The company consists of forty people, with a full orchestra, original scenery and beautiful costumes.

Love Laughs at Locksmiths. Charley McEntire and Mary Urwin came down from Louisville Saturday evening, having escaped the paternal roof tree and were determined to get married without any further foolishness.

McEntire had been balked so often about procuring the license that he came prepared to win, having with him J. M. Hartshorn and a Mrs. Fitzgerald, who all swore that the young lady was 18 and could do as she liked. Judge Ramsey thereupon telephoned Tom Urwin, the unwilling father of the willing bride that the affidavits were made and he would have to grant the license, to which Urwin only insisted on making them swear. The judge then tied the nuptial knot in his blandest manner and the Louisville elopement case was at an end. The bride and groom returned after the ceremony with their friends, where, at last accounts all was again peaceful and harmonious.

Plattsmouth Got There. F. S. White was appointed Saturday evening, as predicted in these columns, to the important post of deputy oil inspector. Now if Mr. Grimes is honored with the stewardship of the Lincoln asylum, Plattsmouth will have fared better under democratic rule than she usually does under republican administration, as far as public office is concerned.

Died. Of malignant diphtheria Saturday evening, Lucy, the bright, rosy cheeked cherub that for six years has graced the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George S. Smith of Omaha.

The funeral took place in this city this morning, the remains were interred in the family lot at Oak Hill.

The many friends of the family here extend their deepest sympathies, and only wish that they could do something that would assuage the grief of the stricken parents.

District Court. J. C. Eikenbary, sheriff, vs. J. E. Riley, F. E. White and M. O'Rourke. Judgment in favor of plaintiff for $723 and costs.

Elizabeth Olson vs. Chas. Olson. Divorce granted.

Fannie M. Keller vs. Husted Keller. Divorce granted; custody of child awarded to plaintiff.

A. N. Sullivan vs. James and Mary Stockham and Wm. Coon. Decree of foreclosure granted.

Court adjourned to regular term, May 25th.

UNION ITEMS.

FROM THE LEDGER.

On next Monday more than a hundred men will be at work on the cut-off.

Mr. J. Graessell, book-keeper for Smith, Gillette & Co., arrived here last Tuesday.

Mr. Gillette was here a short time last Tuesday but left for Omaha to procure tools and provisions.

Smith, Gillette & Co. will lay and surface the track from here to Omaha as rapidly as the weather will permit.

The boarding train, consisting of thirteen cars, came in from Atchison on Wednesday and was switched on the "Y" ready for use.

W. D. Jones, the Plattsmouth liveryman and horse dealer, was here Wednesday and Thursday on horse business with E. W. Barnum & Son.

Yesterday evening a full fledged Dago got off the train here, supposing that he had reached Julian station. He was very much disappointed when he learned he had come several stations too far, and that Judge Sullivan did not reside here. He took the back track for Julian "by hand."

Another fast train will be put on as soon as the road is completed, and according to the World-Herald this train will stop only at Plattsmouth, Nebraska City and Auburn, but we have information that the W-H is away off, and that when the fast train is put on it will take passengers all along the line.

Thursday a force of men and fifteen teams arrived to assist in hauling material and to do some grading for more switches and side tracks. We are informed that a line of track will be built along the west side of the depot and a large transfer platform put in. This is necessary on account of the transfer of passengers and baggage coming from the west to go north or south.

Albert R. Rhoden, accompanied by his sister, Miss Edna, were passengers from here last Wednesday evening on their way to their home at Eagle. Mr. Rhoden will be remembered by our readers as the young man who, with Frank Moore, met with a severe accident by the bursting of a saw last February. Mr. Rhoden's right leg had to be amputated and he has just become able to be taken home. Mr. Robert Nichols accompanied them as far as Weeping Water to assist in moving the young man to the train going to Eagle.

A Monkey-Faced Bird. Mr. R. D. Spelts has at his rooms in the Latta block probably the queerest bird ever seen in the west and undoubtedly the strangest ever captured in Nebraska.

Twelve days ago a Mr. Foreman captured it on the Blue river near Seward, and its captivity seems not to deter its existence or appetite in the least. It is of the owl species, so far as eye and form are concerned—and also in trait, for it sleeps most of the day and is more active at night—but the face or head is that of a monkey.

It feeds on rats, mice and fresh meats, has a ravenous appetite and at times shows fighting qualities astounding. But as a general thing it can be, if in a good humor, lifted from its box to the floor without any showing of battle.

In color it is a dark or dirty yellow and in size is about like the ordinary owl. The mouth is large and the face as formed by the feathers presents the appearance of the monkey in every way. The eyes also take on that quick action characteristic of Jocko.

Several ornithologists of the city as well as professors of schools have inspected the bird, but all are at a loss to explain its origin or nativity. It makes no sound save that similar to a crying baby and Mr. Spelts believes he has the wonder of the age in this proud specimen. It may be put upon exhibition at the Musee—Lincoln Hall.

Judge Chapman, Hon. W. B. Shryock, Hon. F. E. White, Alf White, J. G. Richey and Sam Atwood will be the guests of Superintendent O'Brien of the state fisheries the last of the week. They will take the fish car up to the headquarters of the Elkhorn river and distribute some fish and shoot all the game they can find in those parts.

O'Brien is a good host and may be depended upon to furnish a table fit for royalty itself.
