Thayer is Governor.

The supreme court yesterday handed down a decision in favor of General Thayer and issued a writ ousting James E. Boyd, who at 5 o'clock last evening gave up the office to the new incumbent. Judge Maxwell dissented from the opinion of the majority. Since the opinions make over a thousand pages of type written manuscript they have not yet found their way into the public prints. The news will be a surprise to many who have felt all along that Boyd's tenure of office was uncertain for the reason that Majors instead of Thayer was supposed to be the heir apparent.

Several members of the Presbyterian church choir have gone fishing to-day—emblematical probably of St. Peter.

Governor Thayer was busy last evening, at a very late hour, getting his fellows back into office, and the fellows were not declining.

The base ball association have secured Fitzgerald's Forty for ball grounds and if our people will lend a helping hand we will have an excellent team. THE HERALD will have more to say about it to-morrow.

MURRAY BREVITIES.

BY PANSY.

A visit to the office of the Banner the past week informed us that we have a live paper in our midst, which is greatly appreciated by one and all.

Mr. Basom, our editor, is a very pleasant and genial gentleman, and one who will work for the up-bundling of our little burgh. We gladly welcome him as one of us, and we sincerely hope that our paper may prove a success. It is non-partisan in its views and works for the side of truth and right, and therefore should be supported by one and all. We trust the good people of Murray and surrounding neighborhoods will donate liberally and subscribe for our paper and keep posted on the latest news of the day.

Mrs. Wm. Dull was called to Plattsmouth the latter part of last week by the serious illness of her mother, Mrs. Rutherford, which proved fatal. We extend our sympathy.

A goodly number of the young people assembled at Mr. William Spores' last Saturday night to pass away the evening. A general good time is reported.

Mr. Connally is suffering from a lame limb at present. He received a sprain, resulting in erysipelas. We hope it may not prove serious.

Wm. Loughridge, jr., has made up his mind that the world needs another physician, and we see him in Dr. Tabor's office making the necessary beginning.

Grandfather Rankin has been under the weather, but is again convalescent.

The M. P. track layers are busily at work laying track north from Union. They have completed the line nearly as far north as A. Root's. They are equipped with their own boarding outfit and have stretched a large boarding tent in Mr. Root's grove.

More wedding bells will ring merrily in a few days, and then we will quit for this spring. This will make only three in this community at once. We need a rest.

The Presbyterian ladies held their missionary society last Friday afternoon at J. W. Edmunds'. A good meeting was had.

The Presbyterian people of this place have secured the services of Rev. E. B. Graham of Omaha as their pastor for the coming year. We congratulate them upon their good luck and may his labors be crowned with success.

Mr. Graves, correspondent for THE HERALD was in our city last week writing up a brief description of our city and community.

"The Chimes."

Since the Andrews Company appeared in this city last season they have kept pace with the times and added many new artists, and all of the old faces retained, making one of the strongest metropolitan opera companies traveling, and have been engaged to play for the benefit tendered Manager Young on Friday evening, May 8th. Already there is a great deal of interest manifested in musical circles, and it is safe to predict one of the largest and most fashionable audiences seen at the opera house this season.

The Herald Prints the News.

Again and again has the truth of the above line been exemplified, as the people of this city are aware. Yesterday, when all eyes were turned toward Lincoln to know what the supreme court was doing in the governor contest, the enterprise of THE HERALD was turned to good account, and the first news of the ousting of Boyd and seating of Thayer was printed exclusively in its columns last evening. Readers of THE HERALD can always depend on hearing all the news, including the very latest, served to them in proper form every working day evening.

A Painful Accident.

David Hawsworth, jr., received a severe and painful wound yesterday by getting his hand caught under the rapidly revolving knives of a planer at the B. & M. shops. The back of his hand and wrist was terribly lacerated, the flesh being torn off to the bone. Dr. Cook dressed the hand and the boy is able to be out and on the streets to-day, though the wound is quite painful.

Sam Cannon Hear From.

Most of our people remember Sam Cannon, who for many years lived in this county south of town. Mr. Cannon went to Custer county a few years ago where he has been a prominent citizen. A few days ago his alliance paper jumped onto him and he cleaned up the newspaper man so neatly that we are forced to publish the entire discussion, trusting it will be of interest to our readers.

WESTERVILLE, NEB., Apr. 27, '91.—The Beacon of the 23d inst. pays its respects to me, and in a spirit of exultation says that I have been expelled from the alliance, and adds: "Just what the charges against these men were we don't exactly know." For his enlightenment I hand you a copy of the same.

WESTERVILLE, NEB., March 24, '91.—To the members of Alliance No. 1: We, the farmers of said alliance, do prefer charges against Brother S. L. Cannon.

Specification 1. That he, the said S. L. Cannon, did on or about the 1st of November, or during the last campaign, violate his obligations as a member of our order.

Second—That he, the aforesaid, did abuse the "carrier" of our candidates for the "various" offices in the state and has done all in his power to defeat the same.

Third—He, the aforesaid S. L. Cannon, is by word and action doing all he can against the interests of the farmers' alliance to-day as well as what he has heretofore done, we, the undersigned, pray you try these charges according to law and expel the brother.

The above is a true copy, orthography included.

At this busy season of the year I have hardly time to reply to the comments of the callow youth who sits as a figurehead for the Beacon and grinds out "stuff," which he palms off on those whose minds have been warped by passion, as Websterian knowledge.

I am a farmer, and spend more hours between the plow handles in the course of one season than this great encyclopedia has spent minutes at the fountain of truth since he undertook the job of furnishing kindling wood for the little paper called the Beacon.

I am a republican because I honestly believe that the politics of that party will best serve the interests not only of the farmer, but every citizen of the United States.

I was a republican when I joined the alliance, and was informed that there was nothing in the obligation to restrict my exercising my rights as such. And there is not. And the alliance has violated its highest law by expelling me on purely political grounds.

I am not a candidate for any office.

I am not a half woman, half fish or half anything, and I would not give up an honest conviction of right to help even Brother Beal put on Brother Hendrickson's shoes.

I don't believe in abolishing any tried system until something better is offered, but just now while we farmers are insisting on having the government own the railroads, telegraphs, stock yards, elevators, mills, coal mines and the earth, and run them exclusively in our interest, I, as one farmer, would suggest that if it be true (?) that the national bank is the road to wealth, there is nothing in the law to prevent us from clipping in the quarters that we are now paying into the alliance fund every three months for political purposes, and starting a few national banks in every county and all get rich.

Farmers of Custer county if you honestly believe the ba ks and railroads are absorbing all the money and giving nothing back to the public, why then let us chip in, start some banks, build some roads, and have the wealth come our way awhile. It's a shorter cut and not half so hilly as the political law route through Washington.

Human corks, like driftwood, ride best in a storm when all is commotion. (Witness Taylor.) Only men of strength like James G. Blaine can breast the undertow, and serve their country well.—Ex-Representative S. L. Cannon, in Broken Bow Republican.

J. P. Young's Benefit.

The opera house should be crowded Friday night from pit to gallery to hear "The Chimes of Normandy" by one of the strongest companies that has ever appeared in this city. Their prices are usually double what is charged here, for the reason that Mr. Young fixed the prices this time to suit himself. Another reason why the good people should

SWEET SCENTED FLOWERS.
Llewellyn Moore's the Recognized Headquarters for the Artistic and the Beautiful.
Aquilegia chrysantha, coreopsis
laevigata, chrysanthemum maxima antirrhinum, platycodon and clematis make up a partial list of Mr.
Moore's grand plants, that are perfectly hardy and are not injured
by a Nebraska winter. Mr. Moore has a fine stock of geraniums, coleus and some of those richly colored French cannas, also a fine line of bedding plants. In roses he makes a specialty of the following hardy varieties: General Jacquin-
mot, Md. Plantier, Perle, Niphotos, together with the old standard La France and that Queen of the rose family, the American Beauty, which under favorable circumstances has produced roses 8 inches across,
bright red and of a most delicious fragrance. No collection of flowers is complete without some of these hardy roses. Mr. Moore has the reputation of being the best rose grower west of Chicago; he never forces his plants, thus making them
tender but gives them every requisite to make them hardy and strong.
This spring is an unusually good one for setting out plants and should be improved by our people.
Remember the place where plants
and prices will suit the most exacting is at Llewellyn Moore's on West

Beauty Your Homes
By going to Lew Moore's and selecting a nice line of his hardy plants. They will bloom beautifully all summer on the lawn and will live out doors all winter. His prices will be a surprise to you;
these plants are so cheap it is a wonder Mr. Moore can raise them.
Now is the time to plant them out,
and the sooner his done the earlier
your flowers will bloom.
