THURSDAY, MAY 7, 1891

An exchange says that every reciprocity treaty entered into by Secretary Blaine will prove a torpedo under the hull of the democratic ship in 1892.

MONEY must be plentiful in London and Paris just now, large sums having recently been invested in American railway stocks and bonds.

PRESIDENT HARRISON will soon have the pleasure of appointing to life positions nine judges of the recently formed land court and two judges for the supreme bench in place of Field and Bradley, who will retire.

THE poor and middle classes (as relates to wealth) in this city have always borne more than their share of taxes. The wealthy have been professional tax-shirkers. We trust our assessors will see to it this year that they pay their full share of the taxes, and this city will always remember them.

THE telegram of congratulations from the north at Fremont is not likely to revitalize the corpse. It only recalls the fact that during the late campaign the democrat candidate had no use for Governor Fryer and would not even honor him with a call for a campaign speech.—Omaha Bee.

The above criticism shows more gall than decency, coming as it does from the pen of Traitor Rosewater, who sold out his party and sacrificed his honor to elect Boyd.

It is very refreshing to see the Omaha Bee worried over the bad effect, that the casting of Boyd will have on the republican party. The paper that did more than any other to disrupt the party at the last election is certainly poor authority to preach political ethics to that party. You have been overwhelmed in your schemes Mr. Rosewater, and the temporary success you achieved in electing Mr. Boyd, has been turned to bitter disappointment. Hence these tears; they are not for the fancied danger which threatens the republican party, they are for Boyd.

ACCORDING to the logic of "Judge Rosewater" and the other attorneys of Mr. Boyd, Nebraska in 1890 was floating a foreign flag and paying homage to a foreign power, the same as Texas and California when they were taken into the Union. Such stuff only shows the weakness of their case. If they can make Mr. Boyd a citizen on no better authority or system of reasoning than that the subject had better be dropped. THE HERALD, while personally admiring Mr. Boyd's ability as an executive officer, has all along held, that by the strict letter of the constitution he was not a citizen of the United States in the full meaning of the term, and we are not surprised to see Judges Cobb and Norval of the same opinion. The law, we believe, fully bears them out in their theory of the case, and the hue and cry about partisan decisions, is certainly without merit.

WERE you ever at sea in a storm—a storm near a coast, when you expected the next wave would dash the good ship to pieces? If you ever passed through such an experience you will remember the relief you felt when you realized you were near a life saving station with its corps of heroes, and you will be glad to know more of the life of those "brave watchers by the sea," and even a confirmed stay-at-home will be interested in the handsomely illustrated article on our "Life-Saving Service" in the May number of Demorest's Family Magazine. From the same comprehensive source you may also gain some very interesting information about the Isthmus States—Central America (finely illustrated); "Signs of Character in the Face; How to Read Them" (also illustrated) will enable you to judge more correctly of human nature; and the excellent paper on "Delsarte and the Delsartean Philosophy," with a portrait of the philosopher, will answer that oft-repeated question, "Who is Delsarte and what is his philosophy?" Then there are bright stories, and information on all live topics, and almost no end of illustrations (over 200), and a splendid article for "Our Girls," and the other departments, as usual, are brimming over with good things; and, altogether, this is an exceptionally good number of that always good family magazine, published at $2 a year, by W. Jennings Demorest, 12 East 14th St., New York.

TABLE TALK for May is at hand with a list of suggestions of good things aggravating in the extreme, until one sees how plain this bright little magazine makes their preparation. Its culinary and household departments are teeming with good things, demonstrating as usual its position as the American authority upon these subjects. We call attention to a few of the many good things contained in the May number. "Berries—How to Prepare, Keep and Use Them." "A Chapter on Co-operative Housekeeping." "A Bridesmaid's Luncheon." "A Yellow Luncheon." "New Menus for May." "Informal Afternoons." "How the May Queen Sups." "Housekeepers' Inquiries." "Fashionable Luncheon and Tea Toilets." "Dining Here and There," and many other things to interest the housewife.
