To Ice Consumers. My ice wagon has begun to make regular trips. Orders left at my store, my commission house or with the driver will be promptly attended to. F. S. White.

Croup, whooping cough and bronchitis immediately relieved by Shiloh's Cure.

The fragrant Heliotrope in bloom wonderfully cheap at Moore's Green House.

The Fair has only a few more velocipedes left, which are being closed out at cost.

Dr. E. L. Siggins has returned and may be found hereafter at his office over Gering's drugstore.

All watches, clocks and jewelry left for repairs at C. H. Jaquette's Newville block, Sixth street, will receive prompt attention. All work guaranteed and done in a workman-like manner.

Brown & Barrett, successors to Wildman & Fuller, have an endless variety of wall paper and borders—all new colors and designs.

No farmer or stockman can afford to be without Hall's Barb Wire Liniment. Animals supposed to be permanently injured and useless, have been made valuable by its timely use.

A restore, stricken, and give you a luxuriant growth of hair, to keep its color natural as in youth, and to remove dandruff, use only Hall's

PERSONAL

Dr. J. H. Hall is in Omaha on business to-day.

J. E. Leesley is transacting business at Bartlett to-day.

Mr. J. M. Roberts will visit friends at the metropolis to-day.

Wm. Ossenkop, a prominent citizen of Louisville, is in town.

T. B. Wilson, the Ashland lawyer, is in town on legal business.

A. L. Timblin, a Weeping Water attorney, is transacting business in the city to-day.

A. B. Smith of Denver and his admiring friend, Moses Dodge, were perambulating our streets to-day.

Fine Millinery.

Mmes. Wise & Root have eclipsed all former efforts to please the varied tastes of Plattsmouth ladies in fine and medium lines of millinery.

They have recently received an almost endless line of hats, in which over two hundred different shapes are shown; it is evident therefore that you could not find a larger assortment in Omaha to select from.

They carry an exceptional fine stock of ribbons in all the latest fashionable shades. For flowers and ornaments there seemed to be no limit, several show cases were piled full of the most beautiful sprays of imported flowers, in colors to almost out rival nature herself.

The large stock of mourning goods showed commendable taste in their selection, and judging from the manner in which three clerks rushed, in waiting on customers we are lead to believe that the ladies know what they want in headgear and know where to go and where to get it.

New Millinery Store.

Mrs. C. M. Graves, dressmaking and millinery. New goods, new prices, latest styles. Store No. 110 South 3rd st. Plattsmouth, Neb. Im

We notice in the Otoe county papers a new wall map of the county, which gives general satisfaction, is being delivered to subscribers there. If the maker of that map, or some one who can execute a good one, would come to this county, he could, we believe, do a good business. It has been thirteen years since a map of the county has been engraved, and it is out of date. Send your map man over.—Weeping Water Republican.

Major Pearman, the maker of the Otoe county map, has been engaged for some time on a map for this county, which he expects to have completed at an early day. And we are sure it will be a good one that will give much better satisfaction than the old one did, yet it will only cost about half as much.

Card of Thanks.

The immediate relatives of the late Mrs. Rutherford wish to express their sincere thanks publicly to those who so kindly cared for and in any way alleviated her sufferings.

JOHN RUTHERFORD AND OTHERS.

World's Fair Appropriation.

During the past few days of excitement it appears that almost every one had lost sight of the appointments to be made under the act appropriating $50,000 for a display at the world's fair.

There are seven important offices to be filled; a commissioner general who shall receive $2,500 per year and six commissioners who shall receive $5 per day for each day actually employed.

E. P. Roggen of this city, it was claimed, was to have been appointed commissioner general by Governor Boyd when the proper time came, but the selection was never made. In fact Governor Boyd's friends claim he intended to make none whatever until after the supreme court should have handed down a decision in his favor, and might have refrained from doing so had the pressure been less weighty.

The appointment of a commissioner general, it is said, was also promised to Colonel North, of Columbus.

Now that Governor Thayer is in there is said to be nothing in the way of ex-Governor Furnas. He is considered as good as appointed by those who claim to know.

All the nice, musically inclined people will hear the "Chimes of Normandy" at the opera house to-night.

Rev. Jones of the Indian Territory will preach at the colored Baptist church Sunday, both morning and evening.

In the case of Hester Pool vs. Wm. Philpot. The defendant was taken before Justice Archer and waived an examination. He was then bound over in the sum of $1,200 to appear at the next term of the district court.

Snyder the druggists is again in trouble over his identity. A German farmer who has been in the habit of trading with Mr. Paul Gering took Snyder for Gering and bought a bill of paper of him; but the farmer was worried to understand how the "old man" had forgotten his German all in a month, Mr. Snyder not being able to speak the language.

Rasmus Peterson

Mr. Peterson needs no introduction to this community. Most people have dealt with him and recognize the square and accommodating methods he has always observed in his treatment of the public. He has now succeeded to the handsome grocery business of the late firm of Larson & Peterson where he may be relied upon to continue selling the best goods at the lowest prices, conducive to a safe business.

The River Improvement.

The Missouri River commission is in session right now in Omaha. If the committee appointed by the mayor would wait on the members at once with Mr. Berlin, our demands would receive prompt attention and a long trip to St. Louis would be avoided and money would be saved for the city. If the right kind of zeal is manifested this matter will be attended to forthwith and then if the board has any doubt about the representations made to it, an adjournment can be made to this city and the river looked over by the honorable board. In this way we might have work begun at an early day and have the channel thrown where it used to run, saving the city from the danger of an epidemic as a result of the sewerage and villainous smells that hover about the old channel during the hot months. By all means let us have the expenditure of that $50,000 this summer when it is needed. If nothing is done while the present excellent opportunity is afforded, the committee will have to bear the blame for the failure.

Honors to Mr. Derrick.

A complimentary concert will be given to Mr. W. A. Derrick, a prominent member of the Apollo club and the bass soloist of the St. Mary's avenue Congregational choir. The concert will be given on Friday evening, May 15, at the church. The following excellent talent will assist: Mr. Hans Albert, violinist; Mr. Taber, organist; Miss Daily, soprano; Miss Reeder, contralto; Mrs. Day, contralto; Mr. Jules Lombard, bass; Mr. Wherry, tenor; Mr. Jay Northrop, tenor; Mr. J. E. Butler, accompanist.—World-Herald.

County Court.

Florence Fetterman vs. estate W. J. Agnew. $30.50 allowed on claim.

George W. Fetterman vs. estate W. J. Agnew. Claim of $171.25 reduced to $183.00.

Christ Wohlfarth vs. Mrs. John L. Minor. Suit on account. Continued by consent until May 12, at 10 a. m.

License to wed issued to Mr. Wm. A. Cleghorn and Miss Helen Stander of Louisville.

Attention Members of W. C. T. U.

All members of the Women's Christian Temperance Union are required to meet promptly at three o'clock Saturday afternoon at Mrs. S. A. Davis, on Pearl street. Business of importance requires your presence. By order of President.

Married.

Mr. Orrin C. Smith the popular time keeper at the B. & M. shops was married in the city Wednesday evening by Elder Reid to Mrs. Frances Rounds. Mr. Smith is well and favorably known in this city where he has resided for the last ten years. The bride is also well known and admired for her lady like demeanor and kindly disposition. The Herald takes pleasure in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Smith all the good things of life in unmeasured abundance. [The above notice should have appeared yesterday but the copy was mislaid] Quite a gay and noisy charivari party put in an unannounced appearance at the dinner at the Smiths. Rounds wedding evening before last, and after making "Romeo howl" for a few minutes they were treated to a hearty surplus of cake and cigars, after the discussion of which the crowd dispersed.

The Gymnastic Exhibition.

The Turner's society in this city is in excellent condition and contains within its ranks some of the best gymnasts in the state. They have improved very much under the charge of Professor Kummerow, and on the evening of May 13, will give an exhibition of their prowess.

Matrimonial.

William A. Cleghorn of Louisville was married yesterday to Miss Helen Stander, daughter of Frank Stander, Esq., of that city.

Willie was inclined to bachelorhood, but the winning ways and genial manners of Miss Helen were too much for him and he had to surrender.

Mr. Cleghorn is one of Louisville's best and brightest young men and well deserves the congratulations of friends who have attended him in the selection of so accomplished and talented a young lady for a life partner. The Herald extends its heartiest congratulations to the happy couple with best wishes for health, wealth and happiness.

The "Business Mens Carnival" to be given by the "Aid Society" of the M. E. church will be held in the Opera house May 21. Look out for further notice.

Phil Young's benefit at the opera house to-night.

"Chimes of Normandy" to-night at the opera house.

Sheriff Tighe says the Irish don't have to go; they have already gone.

Nehawka appears to be booming, judging from the advertising columns of the Weeping Water Republican.

E. R. Todd came in to-day with seventy-five bushels of millet, which he is shipping to Omaha seedsmen.

Gust Reinbackle is quite sick at Colorado City, having been bedfast for the last week with something akin to la grippe.

The Andrews Opera Co. arrived in the city this morning on their special car, ready to give a meritorious entertainment at the opera house to-night.

The Greenwood Gazette has again suspended. We believe it has been no fault of the town, but rather a lack of capital to start with on the part of the publisher.

McVey, the St. Joe horse buyer, is with us again. He makes the Bonner stables his headquarters while in the city. He went to Union this morning to buy some good horseflesh that he heard was for sale in that vicinity.

Jim Sage hauled two dimension stones yesterday for the courthouse at one load with his brag team that weighed 7,000 pounds. The stones were from the Cedar Creek quarries, eight inches thick, four feet wide and eight feet long.

Pearlman's team had another one of its periodical runaways yesterday and attracted quite a crowd as it tore across the stone at the court house and came to a sudden stop against a tree near the alley. No one hurt and but little damage done to the wagon.

The board of health were out yesterday on their annual smelling tour, which we trust will result in the cleaning up of some alleys in this city that luxuriate in about 400 kinds of vile smells. They must all be cleaned up before hot weather, or sickness will surely follow.

Ex-Lieutenant Governor E. C. Carnes of Seward has been appointed state oil inspector in place of Louis Heimrod of Omaha. Ed is an energetic fellow with hosts of friends all over the state, who will be heartily glad of his appointment.

Four days have been occupied in selecting a jury in the Sheedy case at Lincoln and still the end is not yet. Two hundred and fourteen men have been examined and ordered to stand aside because they were intelligent. A jury in a modern murder trial places a high premium on ignorance.

W. S. Purdy has received a well merited increase in his pension accompanied by a neat sum of accrued back pay. Mr. Purdy was a captain of scouts during the late war and saw lots of hard fighting and had some narrow escapes. THE HERALD is glad to know of his being recompensed a little for the good work of thirty years ago.

Chas. Flower met with quite a severe accident last week. While leading his fine horse "Ney" into Mr. Philpot's barn in the country, a horse he was passing kicked him on the nose and the side of the head and knocked him down and his horse ran over him. Mr. Philpot pulled Chas out of the barn in an unconscious condition. That's what's the matter with his nose.—Weeping Water Republican.

The two Sitzman boys, aged about ten and twelve, were discovered hid away in Bennett & Tutts store last night as Cap Bennett was closing up. The boys were handed over to the police and were lodged in jail. Their object could have been nothing more nor less than robbery. Owing to their age, and the fact that nothing was taken, Mr. Bennett declines to appear against them to-day. Consequently nothing will be done except to discharge them.

L. Pearlman has purchased the Weckbach room of J. V. Egenberger jr. and will remove his furniture store into the new quarters as soon as the room can be fitted up for him. Mr. Pearlman began in this town a few years ago with a pile of scrap iron and a few old stoves, but by close attention to business, he has built up a large trade in furniture and general house fittings, and has become one of the heaviest property owners to be found among our business men.

The moon-faced Ass that edits the Journal and pretends to do job work in the hole under Sherwood's criticises the board of trade folder recently issued from THE HERALD office. As we are securing job work on merit and not through bulldozing, we have to-day circulated among the business houses of the city a sample of the same kind of work done by the Journal office last year, along with a sample of our own. Pay your money and take your choice.
