Good News!

No one, who is willing to adopt the right course, need be long afflicted with boils, carbuncles, pimples, or other cutaneous eruptions. These are the results of Nature's efforts to expel poisonous and effete matter from the blood, and show plainly that the system is ridding itself through the skin of impurities which it was the legitimate work of the liver and kidneys to remove. To restore these organs to their proper functions, Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the medicine required. That no other blood-purifier can compare with it, thousands testify who have gained from the tyranny of depraved blood by the use of this medicine.

Freedom

"For nine years I was afflicted with a skin disease that did not yield to any remedy until a friend advised me to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla. With the use of this medicine the complaint disappeared. It is my belief that no other blood medicine could have effected so rapid and complete a cure."—Andrew D. Garcia, C. Victoria, Tamalpais, Mexico.
"My face, for years, was covered with pimples and humors, for which I could find no remedy till I began to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Three bottles of this great blood medicine effected a thorough cure. I confidently recommend it to all suffering from similar troubles."—M. Parker, Concord, Vt.

SWEET SCENTED FLOWERS.

Llewellyn Moore's the Recognized Headquarter for the Artistic and the Beautiful.
Aquilegia chrysantha, coreopsis lanceolata, chrysanthemum maxima, antirrhinum, platycodon and cleome make up a partial list of Mr. Moore's grand plants, which are perfectly hardy and are not injured by a Nebraska winter. Mr. Moore has a fine stock of geraniums, coleus and some of those richly colored French canna's, also a fine line of bedding plants. In roses he makes a specialty of the following hardy varieties: General Jacquemont, M. L. H. Parmentier, Perle, Nippon, together with the old-fashioned La France and that Queen of the rose family, the American Beauty, which under favorable circumstances has produced roses 8 inches across, bright red and of a most delicious fragrance. No collection of flowers is complete without some of these hardy roses. Mr. Moore has the reputation of being the best rose grower west of Chicago; he never loses his plants, thus making them tender but gives them every requisite to make them hardy and strong. This spring is an unusually good one for setting out plants and should be improved by our people. Remember the place where plants and prices will suit the most exacting is at Llewellyn Moore's on West Locust street, and call at once. If Sudden Deaths.

Heart disease is by far the most frequent cause of sudden death, which, in three out of four cases is unsuspected. The symptoms are not generally understood. These are: a habit of lying on the right side, short breath, pain or distress in the side, back or shoulder, irregular pulse, asthma, weak and hungry spells, wind in stomach, swelling of ankles or dropsy, oppression, dry cough and smothering. MRS. MERGES.

A Mystery Explained.

The papers contain frequent notices of rich, pretty and educated girls eloping with negroes, tramps and coachmen. The well-known specialist, Dr. Franklin Miles, says all such girls are more or less hysterical, nervous, very impulsive, unbalanced, usually subject to neuralgia, neuralgia, sleeplessness, immoderate crying or laughing. These show a weak, nervous system for which there is no remedy equal to Restorative Nervine. Trial bottles and a fine book, containing many marvelous cures, free at F. G. Fricke & Co's, who also sell and guarantee Dr. Miles' celebrated New Heart Cure, the finest of heart tonics. Cures fluttering, short breath, etc.

Pronounced Hopeless, Yet Saved

From a letter by Mrs. Ada E. Hurd of Groton, S. D., we quote: "Was taken with a bad cold, which settled on my lungs, cough set in and finally terminated in consumption. Four doctors gave me up saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Saviour, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds. I gave it a trial, took in all eight bottles; it has cured me and thank God I am now a well and hearty woman." Trial bottles free at F. G. Fricke & Co's drug store, regular size, 50c. and $1.00.

Some years ago Chamberlain & Co., of Des Moines, Iowa, commenced the manufacture of a cough syrup, believing it to be the most prompt and reliable preparation yet produced for coughs, colds and croup; that the public appreciate true merit, and in time it was certain to become popular. Their most sanguine hopes have been more than realized. Over three hundred thousand bottles of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy are now sold each year, and it is recognized as "the best made" wherever known. It will cure a severe cold in less time than any other treatment. For sale by F. G. Fricke & Co.

REVERIE OF A BACHELOR.

He Smokes and Dreams and Then Takes Up His Mind to Light a Fresh Cigar.
Puff! This cigar—cost a pretty penny too—is execrable. I feel like throwing it away, only blowing the smoke into rings in an amusement that I hate to forego. Puff! Now, that ring is a positive work of art. Play it has to go up in smoke. Rings of smoke—they are very like marriage rings—they are lasts about as long. They are infinitely more amusing—and less wearisome.

Fancy being married! B-r-r! No more bohemianism, no gales and ale—nor champagne, either in pipes and punch. Instead—a drizzly fire—a clatter of dishes from the kitchen—a wife knitting socks for the inevitable family. Later—a full fledged paternalism—buying groceries and paying money to the school book trust—growing popy over when I was a young fellow, sir. I shudder to think of it.
Besides, it is so much pleasanter to play at playing the game than really to play it. It is very pleasant to make love—and that is why marriage is so unpleasant, one can't make love then. Making love is a game that should always be played on the progressive plan. With the same partner always it becomes dreadfully monotonous. It is for that reason that I pity the married man. To flutter from flower to flower, never bestowing affection on any, but affecting to adore all—that is the bachelor's privilege.

But, you say, one cannot make love with gray hairs. An old bean is the most ridiculous of men. Yes, you are right. But it is not necessary to be always making love. As one grows old there are so many other hobbies.

Puff! How blue that smoke is! A kind of fading, ethereal blue, not tangible in words or from the palette. A blue like the blue of a pair of eyes—ah, what glorious eyes they are—set in a marble white frame—like the blue and white waves of Dresden china.

I wonder, by the way, if she meant all she said—with those eyes—at the Bronson's that night! She said—a good deal. She is really—not half bad. Rose Alwin—a pretty name—rather. Rose—um, she will still be Rose if— Well—the fact is—between me and the blue smoke—her face has been haunting me like a ghost. I might—marry the ghost. From what her eyes said that night—she wouldn't say no. If I were to throw away this cigar—put on my hat and gloves, and go to her—what an exquisite joke it would be—considering what I said about marriage just now. Puff! By jove, I will do it! Pah, goodby, cigar—even bad things have an end. This glove—comes on too easily—denied bad form. Um—how dust will settle on a man's hat. Now—I think I'll do.

What's that? The city post. H'm. Dun's bills. Ah—a woman's hand. What—? "Mr. and Mrs. Alwin announce the wedding of their daughter, Rose"

Ugh. How chill the room seems. I must—light a fresh cigar.—J. Percy Pollard in Epoch.

A Queer Distinction in California.

There were some queer distinctions in those days. One Sunday, going to the butcher's booth, I found a customer ahead of me, who inquired if he could not have a piece of a liver which was hanging on a tree in plain sight.
"Don't know if you can or not," said the butcher.
"I'd like to know why? I've been trading with you all along, and never asked for liver before; but I want some variety now."
"Stand around and let me look at you. No, you can't have any liver."
"Well, why?"
"There ain't enough to go round. I have to have some rule about givin' it out, and I have decided that no miner can have a scrap of liver from me unless he wears a canvas patch on the seat of his pants."

Foreign Interference in Our Affairs.

Fortunately and wisely, we have thus far steered clear of "entangling alliances," with the single and limited exception of our treaty of 1846 with New Granada respecting the transit of the Isthmus of Panama; and by thus following the policy of careful abstention from all interference in the domestic questions and local issues of other nations, we are enabled more consistently to check and repel any impertinent or imprudent attempt by foreigners to intermeddle with our domestic policies or to dictate alterations in our carefully arranged distribution of powers. It may as well be understood that, desirous as we are of pursuing policies of peace, comity and reciprocal advantage with all nations, we will never so lower the standard of our independence as to change the form and principles of our government to accommodate strangers who come among us voluntarily and in pursuit of their individual tastes and fortunes.—Ex-Secretary Bayard in Forum.

A Chinese Girl's Life.

The Chinese girl's education begins at six years of age. Then she must submit to the bandaging of her feet, which cruel custom cripples the poor child and causes her untold suffering. But as small feet are considered a mark of great beauty this barbarous custom, which has obtained in China for ages, is still practiced. The bandages are changed as often as they become soiled, but the practice continues until the girl reaches the age of nineteen. Sometimes, when about ten, the bones of the toe are broken to prevent further growth.

At nineteen the girl is married. But courtship, as it is known among the Americans, is not understood or tolerated by the Chinese. Mutual affection is not the foundation of the marriage, but the children are betrothed in infancy by their parents, and when grown are obliged to fulfill the engagement.—Philadelphia Times.
