Allow me to add my tribute to the efficacy of Ely's Cream Balm. I was suffering from a severe attack of influenza and catarrh and was induced to try your remedy. The result was marvelous. I could hardly articulate, and in less than twenty-four hours the catarrhal symptoms and my hoarseness disappeared and I was able to sing a heavy role in Grand Opera with voice unimpaired. I strongly recommend it to all singers.—Wm. H. Hamilton, Leading Bass of the C. D. Hess Grand Opera Co.

The HERALD was kindly favored this morning with a sample of the silver ore from John Shafers mine near Custer City. The sample we have, seems to be nearly pure silver and lead, and would indicate from what we have heard about the mine that there are indeed millions in it. The farther they get into the mine the richer it seems to be. John is evidently on the high way for a millionaire and we are glad of it.

Our own and only Col. Sherman carefully packed his tooth brush and a pair of Sunday socks into a small grip and started this morning for the city of Denver where he will assist Frank Carruth in representing this city at the commercial congress which meets to-morrow. Carruth left Saturday evening; F. E. White armed with credentials from the late governor Boyd departed this morning and will represent the state at the same meeting.

HE "TROWED DE BALL."

And "Buck" Adams Made a Home Run.

A Big Crowd Sees Plattsmouth Mop the Earth With the West Omaha's.

Plattsmouth 13, West Omaha 7. "Buck" Adams had an eye in his head yesterday bigger than a window pane; he was in it from the start. He played ball from away down in his shoes and made himself solid with the "fans."

With two men on bases he rose to the occasion and smote one of Stephenson's curves nigh unto death; and he did it easy, too. Just this way—

There were three of 'em. There was a man on third base and a man on second base, and Adams was at the bat. Stephenson took the ball in his hands, looked at it, took an extra twist in his arm and "trowed de ball." Now "Stephie" is not a very speedy pitcher, and as "Buck" watched his curve crawl down to the plate a great big gleam of delight wandered over his face and he gathered himself up for a mighty swipe.

And he swiped! When the ball quit travelling two men had scored and Adams come home, too.

Aside from Adams' work there was not much in yesterday's game. In the first, Omaha started off by making three runs, and things looked blue for the home club.

But oh my! What a pie! Plattsmouth made six big scores in her half, and Adams inquired, "was yer to the picnic?"

In the second Omaha blanked and Plattsmouth added three more to her score.

The Omahas got another run in the third and repeated the act in the fourth.

Both sides blanked in the fifth and Omaha got two runs in the sixth, while the best Plattsmouth could do was to make one.

And then Mr. Yapp went in to pitch for Plattsmouth, and Omaha stopped running right there.

Plattsmouth added three more to her collection of scores in the eighth and quit the game winner.

For the home team Yapp, Miller, Schulhoff and S. Patterson played great ball.

Yapp was in it with both feet. On first he was invincible. He made one excusable error but redeemed it by a brilliant double play soon after.

Wilson and Sam Patterson also made a beautiful double.

Schulhoff pleased his friends mightily by making three fine catches in left field.

Miller baited like a fiend. He got three safe hits.

For Omaha, G. Patterson made the only brilliant play, it being a fine catch of a line hit off Shuloff's bat and a neat double play to third base.

Louie Reinhardt was off in his umpiring a little but as he disposed of his decisions impartially, one side suffering as much as the other, there was no occasion for a kick.

Owing to the rival attraction of the Turners picnic, the attendance was less than it should have been, but it made a pretty respectable crowd all the same. Several hundred people, minus a quarter, set on the cold, clammy ground, and viewed the game from adjacent hills, and cheered as loudly as if they had not beat the boys out of several dollars. The Plattsmouth team is, thanks to Manager Miller, a great set of ball players and they ought to be well supported. The following is the score by innings:

West Omaha.....3 0 1 1 0 2 0 0 0—7
Plattsmouth.....5 2 0 0 0 1 0 0 0—13

SUMMARY.
Best hits: Plattsmouth—S. Patterson, Yapp and Lacey; Omaha—Stephenson and Cretzler.
Base hits: Plattsmouth, 10; West Omaha, 4.
Errors: Plattsmouth, 3; West Omaha, 7.

County Court.

Christ Wohlfarth vs. Mrs. John L. Minor. Continued on application of defendant until May 25, 10 a. m.

License to wed issued to Mr. William J. Crosser and Miss Fannie Nichols both of Murray.

Up to May 16—1891, Judge Ramsey has issued 248 marriage licenses and united in matrimony 52 couples since he assumed the duties of county judge. Who says marriage is a failure when 496 persons took their chances from one official in about 16 months?

ELMWOOD ITEMS.

FROM THE ECHO.

The Elmwood creamery will be ready for business by the first of next week.

J. D. Fentiman had a valuable mule killed this week by a rattle snake bite.

C. D. Clapp is building an addition Hx16 to his house just east of the track occupied by Henry Striplin.

R. N. Robotam, agent for Adams & Gilberts, tells us that he paid out $15,396.69 for hogs and grain during the month of April. This much money paid out by one firm in 26 days goes to show that Elmwood gets a share of the produce of the farm at least.

Mrs. Louisa Mathews, living near town, received a U. S. draft yesterday to the amount of $1,283 as pension money for disabilities rendered her husband in the late war. Mr. Mathews has been dead a number of years and the money was needed.

H. Dopp sold eighteen head of fat cattle Saturday to John Hastic that not only took the cake, the bakery, but the baker's wife as well. It pays to care for and feed well your stock if one is to judge from the price paid Mr Dopp for his steers. The eighteen head brought $1,728, or an average of just $96 per head.

The children of J. A. and Caroline Current honored their father and mother with a grand reunion banquet on their fortieth wedding anniversary, Friday evening, May 8th. The whole program, which was elaborate, was arranged entirely unbeknown to the father and mother and the surprise to them was complete. A sumptuous repast was served and a good old family reunion was had. The children presented their parents with a handsome set of dishes of 125 pieces.

The attorneys are arranging to challenge the county officials for a game of base ball to be played this week.

A Severe Criticism.

May 17, 1891.

It has been two months since a petition went in asking the council to open Spring street and lay sidewalk under the M. P. viaduct, yet nothing has been done. I would like to know if our honorable mayor and council are asleep? If not, they might as well be. I hope Mr. Browne will wake up and have something done. I have heard that Mr. Sprague told Mr. Browne that they couldn't lay the sidewalk because Mr. Louis was sick. That is a very poor excuse. If Mr. Louis was dead there would be sidewalks and bridges built just the same. Now, Mr. Editor, if these fellows don't wake up and have something done we will get after them again and find out where the blame lies.

W. H. MILLER.

Mangled in a Runaway.

Mrs. Jesse Davis and a married daughter with a little child were driving in a road cart Wednesday afternoon on at Weeping Water where they reside when the horse ran away, throwing the ladies out. The daughter was badly cut about the head and body. Mrs. Davis' foot caught in the slot bed of the cart, and she was dragged for a quarter of a mile, when the horse was caught. A saw had to be used to extricate her from the perilous position. One ear was torn entirely off, and her head, arms and body are frightfully bruised. The doctors think it is very doubtful if she recovers. The child remained in the cart and was slightly injured.
