Mrs. Will McLennan, the HERALD is sorry to learn, is very ill at their home in South Park.

Ed Hall spent a few days in this city with his parents, returning to Omaha this morning.

S. A. Davis, wife and little ones departed this morning for a brief visit up in York county.

Clark Newlan one of Centers prosperous farmers, and a loyal republican is in the city to-day.

Charley Miller went to Omaha this morning armed with a "razah." The "Freaks" had better look out.

Sig Green took his formal departure this morning for his new home at Ashland. His family will go up to-morrow.

John Cummins came home this morning from attending the business mens convention at Omaha. He took in the banquet which he pronounced a great success.

T. A. Worth and family departed yesterday for Pullman, Ills., where Mr. W. has secured an excellent position. Charley Brown accompanied the party, expecting to take a place with the same company.

The regular term of the district court will convene in this city next Monday with a full docket.

For this week only for CASH, Bennett & Tut will sell 25 pounds of Granulated Sugar for $1.00.

The festival to have been held at Wm Taylors this evening has been postponed on account of the weather until further notice.

Capt. Hull says that if the man who stole the bottle of beer left hanging in his well will return the bottle he will donate him a full one.

J. N. Dorrity took the place of Conductor Loverin on the K. C. run, and Mr. Abbott, a brakeman, has been promoted to the conductorship of Omaha merchandise freight.

Mr. Lee Oldham and Mr. Rankins each expect to ship a car load of hogs from Murray to-morrow night. It will be some time before trains will run regularly but this shipment will add something to the dignity of the town.—Murry Banner.

Herman Klietsch put in one of the latest patent hydraulic beer pumps the other day at his saloon, which is quite an improvement. Mr. Klietsch and his clever assistant, John Bauer, keep one of the most quiet and best arranged saloons in the city.

A report from Fairmont, Neb., says that a very destructive wind storm passed over that section at an early hour yesterday morning. A large number of wind mills are reported blown to pieces and movable articles piled up promiscuously, doing much damage. The storm was accompanied by a heavy rain.

Mr. W. E. Thompson of Crete has bought the ice cream parlor and confectionery of John Morgan opposite the opera house. He is thoroughly familiar with the business and promises to treat the people to a better article of ice cream than they have been accustomed to in this city. Choice candies and other goods are being received by Mr. Thompson who is determined to please his patrons.

Senator Thomas was a pleasant caller at our office Tuesday. The senator says he doesn't care anything about the resolutions of the alliance. He voted for what he believed to be right and best for the state. He also said he owed the alliance nothing as they had fought him all they knew how during the campaign.—Weeping Water Republican.

Topics for teachers' meeting in Plattsmouth, Saturday, are as follows: "Opening Exercises," "General Instruction," "Reading Circle," "Text Book Law," "Value of Physical Instruction" and "Institute Course of Study." Leading teachers will present papers on these subjects and a general discussion will follow. Session opens at 10 a. m. and closes at 5 p. m. All who can should attend.—Weeping Water Eagle.

Struck by Lightning. From a telegram to the Bee we clip the following:

ELMWOOD, May 20.—Last night during a heavy rainstorm the residence of Amos Stiff was struck by lightning. The bolt struck the chimney, splitting it from top to bottom. It also spread over the roof, passing down the four corners of the house and tore off the corner strips and siding. The family was severely shocked but not seriously injured.

Hank Valley. THE HERALD is sorry to note the contents of the following telegram from Wahoo relative to Hank Valley. The telegram says:

"The Hank Valley case terminated to-day in a verdict of guilty. This is a case where Valley was tried for libelling one Miss Eliza King, a teacher in the county."

A Matter-of-Fact Story. When Fisk produced "The Twelve Temptations," some eighteen years ago, Mr. Gilmore was then treasurer of a Philadelphia theater. Little did he dream at that time he would not only own "The Twelve Temptations," but half a dozen other famous spectacles as well, and be the proprietor of not only the handsomest but largest, newest and most popular theater of Philadelphia, "The Central." This is an example of what honesty, sobriety and strict attention to business accomplish.

Don't miss seeing the greatest of all plays ever seen in Plattsmouth, "The Twelve Temptations," which will be given with a small army of people, and all special scenery, on next Thursday night, May 28. Prices 35, 50, 75c. and $1.00.

The First Train. Messrs. Walker & Pitman, the Murray grain merchants, had the honor of shipping the first goods over the new line. They sent out twenty cars of grain yesterday—quite a remarkable showing for the new town.

Council Proceedings. The members were all present except the mayor, and W. D. Jones, who was in attendance at the county court as a juror. Mike Murphy presided and sent for Jones, when the vote on taking an appeal on the Sullivan case came up and he was brought over in charge of the deputy sheriff.

The city attorney recommended to the city council that they file an appeal bond in the Sullivan case at a cost of 35 cents and thereby save their rights. They could then doubtless get a better settlement and need not prosecute the case further if they did not want too. The following members of the council voted against any such proposition. W. D. Jones, A. Salisbury, D. M. Jones, J. C. Peterson and Mike Murphy.

Those voting in favor of filing an appeal bond were W. L. Browne, L. G. Larson, J. L. Minor, Dove and M. Gutsche.

Benkeman Notes. The presence of Deputy United States Marshalls Hill and Stewart in our city this morning created no unusual excitement, as when business is dull the United States authorities drop in on Benkeman and always find plenty of game, but when they drove out into the country a few miles north and returned about noon not with a prisoner, as one would naturally expect, but with an old antique and complete testimony still, the surprise was great. Marshal Stewart boarded the train for Omaha carrying the moonshine stilling apparatus, while Marshal Hill remained over to make some arrests. Chester Thompson, a farmer residing three miles north of town, has been arrested. Suspicion rests upon several as being implicated in the illicit distilling of ardent spirits in this vicinity, which has been carried on for many months.

Heavy rains have fallen here since Saturday, and that of last night was great. Farmers feel certain of a crop unless the hand of providence sends hail to demolish them.

County Court. Citizens Bank of Plattsmouth vs. Louis M. Rour et al. Suit on note for $150. Hearing May 29, 10 a. m. Plattsmouth Gas & Electric Light Co. vs. Plattsmouth Street Railway Co. Suit on account for $103. Hearing May 28, 10 a. m.

The Aermotor Co. vs. Post, Brisley & Hardy. Suit on account for $459.13. On trial to jury. Verdict for plaintiff for $302.72.

Certified copy of last will and testament of John G. Roberts, deceased, filed for probate.

Bird Critchfield is in Lincoln to-day.

Don't miss the carnival to-night at the opera house.

The county officials will not cross bats with the lawyers until some time next week.

Encourage the ladies and assist in a good cause by attending the carnival to-night.

WANTED—A good girl for general housework. Enquire at the county clerk's office. d3t

Schiappagasse has put up an oriental awning, gorgeous in its rich colors of yellow red and blue.

The Marionette Comedy Co. will give one of their excellent entertainments at Rock Bluffs one week from to-morrow (Saturday) evening.

Mr. James Walstow wishes us to express for him through these columns his heartfelt thanks to those who kindly ministered to the comfort of his wife during her late fatal illness.

Col. Friend, the agent for the Lincoln steam dye works, has his room in the frame building back of the Fitzgerald block nicely decorated with a miscellaneous assortment of lithographs.

H. C. McMacken came to Plattsmouth 34 years ago to-day. He has noted the improvements made with evident pride and still believes Plattsmouth will become the Queen City of the Missouri.

Pickens, Neville and others are talking of enjoining the further work of putting in the foundation for the court house for the reason that they claim the specifications are not being lived up to.

S. S. English, of Eagle, was made chairman of the most important standing committee at the State Business Men's Convention in Omaha yesterday. Besides being a good business man, Mr. English is editor of the "Eagle" of that city.

The rain of the past two days has stopped work on the court house and settled the fact that the M. P. track layers will not reach this city this week. We are not complaining of the rain, however, for it has been worth millions to the farmers of the state of Nebraska.

Northwestern Nebraska from Alliance on up to Dakota was treated to a snow storm last evening lasting several hours. It is presumed of course that the snow must have melted as fast as it fell, as the weather has not been cold enough for it to remain on the ground.

The Valparaiso bank robbers pleaded guilty and were sentenced to the penitentiary at hard labor, Tobin, who did the shooting, for six years; Nelson for five years and Ruby three years. They were all citizens of Cass County, Ruby having always borne a good name.

Cheap Sugar ought to bring Cheap Coffee.—FOUR packages Lion and McLaughlin's XXXX Coffee for $1.00 at E. G. DOVEY & SON'S.

THE PLATTSMOUTH HERALD of a recent date speaks highly of Professor McClellan as a teacher and hopes that he may be retained. This does not surprise us as the professor is not only an able teacher but is a cultured gentleman and deservedly popular wherever known. York committed the blunder about a year ago of losing him, and having regretted it for about twelve months it is to be hoped Plattsmouth will not make a similar mistake.—Murray Banner.

The officials of Cass county will indulge in a game of base ball with the lawyers of Plattsmouth next Friday. It will make a dog laugh to see J. Trietsch play first base and little Ami Todd run bases. Dago Chief Sullivan will want to be coacher and scorer, and Allen Beeson will take center field and stop all the balls with his crutch. Byron Clark will want to stop short and let Col. Vanatta run bases for him.—Weeping Water Eagle.

Cass County Teachers' Meeting. There will be a Cass County Teachers' Meeting at the high school building to-morrow, Saturday, at 10 o'clock a. m. A program of interest to all teachers will be given. See notice in another column.

Base Ball. The game for next Sunday will be with the Crane company team of Omaha, and will be called at 3.30.
