FRIDAY, JUNE 26, 1891

NIORARA has organized a company with a capital of $5,000 to bore an artesian well, from which they expect to get water power enough to run a grist mill.

If the government scientific sharps will kindly refrain from exploding any more rain balloons until after the corn is laid by and the wheat harvested the agriculturists of the west will feel like extending a vote of thanks. Under present meteorological conditions it seems like trifling with providence to go on with these experiments.
They are coming just a year too late to be of any service in the Missouri valley.—State Journal.

THE New York Post embraces an early occasion to hedge by declaring that the success of the republican party in Ohio this fall does not necessarily make a victory for the same party certain in 1892. At the same time the democrats in Iowa are fighting the present campaign on the theory that success this year means the certain triumph of their party in the presidential year. Between the two statements it is easy to find the truth. Both states are republican at heart, and a victory this year will make it easy to keep them in line in '92. A democratic victory this year will be simply a notification that the republican will have to work a little harder than they otherwise would in the presidential campaign. Ex.

A BEAUTIFUL and imposing bronze statue of Henry Ward Beecher was unveiled in Brooklyn yesterday.
It is the work of John Quincy Adams Ward who has devoted nearly three years to the task for which he had prepared by taking a death-mask of Mr. Beecher's face. The statue represents him in a characteristic attitude, in which he was often seen when entering Plymouth church.
He wears the cape overcoat which so often enveloped his figure, and carries his soft felt hat in his hand.
The face is somewhat idealized to express the general idea of the man in distinction from a mere portrait statue. With the central memorial are grouped ideal figures which represents the characteristics of the man. Two children are at the left of the statue upon the lower part of the pedestal paying their simple tributes of love and admiration for the strong and kindly face beaming down upon them. At the right side of the pedestal kneels the figure of a slave girl in a position of reverence and laying the tributes of a palm branch at the feet of the central figure. All the figures about the pedestal are of life size, and the statue of Mr. Beecher is heroic in proportions, standing nine feet high.
The pedestal is of equal height, and was designed by Richards M.
Hunt. It is of Quincy granite, highly polished.

John C. Watson, chairman of the State Republican committee has issued a call for the State Central committee to meet in Lincoln on Wednesday, July the 8th, to arrange for the state convention.

Mr. Watson says that the reports he hears from throughout the state make him believe that the Republican state ticket will easily be elected this fall. Prohibition is out.
The alliance republicans are returning to the party, as they see the fight in 1892 will be between the two parties.—Neb. City Press.

Sudden Deaths.
Heart disease is by far the most frequent cause of sudden death, which in three out of four cases is unsuspected. The symptoms are not generally understood. These are: a habit of lying on the right side, short breath, pain or distress in the side, back or shoulder, irregular pulse, asthma, weak and hungry spells, wind in stomach, swelling of ankles or dropsy, oppression, dry cough and smothering. Dr. Miles' illustrated book on Heart Disease, free at F. G. Fricke & Co's, who sell

Remarkable Facts.
Heart disease is usually supposed to be incurable, but when properly treated a large portion of cases can be cured. Thus Mrs. Elmira Hatch, of Elkhart, Ind., and Mrs. Mary L.
Baker, of Ovid, Mich., were cured after suffering 20 years. S. C. Lin-burger, druggist at San Jose, Ill., says that Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure, which cured the former, "worked wonders for his wife." Levi Logan of Buchanan, Mich., who had heart disease for 30 years, says two bottles made him "feel like a new man." Dr.
Miles' New Heart Cure is sold and guaranteed by F. G. Fricke & Co. Book of wonderful testimonials
