A bridge on the Missouri.
A collision on the river yesterday was an unusual scene for the river front loafers that for a time was quite interesting. It seems a man and woman and a little boy started in a skiff for the Iowa shore, but in passing Willow island they ran aground and stuck fast on the bar. About this time a large flat-boat with a house built on it was seen bearing down upon the skiff and it looked as though the occupants would be killed; they had sufficient presence of mind, however, to jump out of the boat into the muddy Missouri and wade out of the way of the unwieldy flat-boat. And they did it none too soon either for they had scarcely got out of its course when crash went the skiff under the prow of the boat and it was transformed into splinters in an instant. The occupants of the flat-boat threw out a line and hauled the unfortunates aboard and they all floated peacefully down to Rock Point where the boat was halted and tied up for the day. The crowd in the skiff were residents of the Iowa bottoms while the other parties were from far up the river.

No Limit to the Rain.

The rain began pouring down in regular torrents before noon to-day, and by 1 o'clock the sewers in the city were for the first time found to their full capacity. A trip to the mouth of the sewer at the river showed both openings discharging into the river every gallon of water they could carry, thus showing that there was no stoppage anywhere in the sewer. The Washington avenue sewer failed to carry the surplus of water and the street was filled two or three feet deep for several blocks in that vicinity. Con Coffey's cellars, well and cistern were filled level full of muddy water, side walks and wood pile were drifted out into the street. Holmes barn was filled with water while the McCann tenants at the corner of Sixth and Vine revealed in four feet of water in their basement. The water did less damage at other points and went down here soon so that the sewer was able to carry it off. There must have been a water spout up Chicago avenue as nothing like that amount of water ever fell there before or fell anywhere else in the city to-day.

For all forms of nasal catarrh where there is dryness of the air passages with what is commonly called "stuffed up" especially when going to bed, Ely's Cream Balm gives immediate relief. Its benefit to me has been priceless. - A. G. Case, M. D., Millwood, Kansas.
One of my children had a very bad discharge from her nose. Two physicians prescribed, but without benefit. We tried Ely's Cream Balm and, much to our surprise there was a marked improvement. We continued using the Balm and in a short time the discharge was cured. O. A. Cary, Corning, N. Y.

Last April she taken down with Measles, followed with dreadful cough and turned into a fever. Doctors at home and at Detroit treated, but in vain, she grew worse rapidly, until she was a mere "handful of bones". Then she tried Dr. King's New Discovery and after the use of two and a half bottles, was completely cured. Castoria.

"Castoria is an excellent medicine for children. Mothers have repeatedly told me of its good effect upon their children."
Dr. G. C. Conoco, Lowell, Mass.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."
Dr. J. F. KESSELOFF, Conway, Ark.

The Centaur Company, 71 Murray Street, New York City.

Castoria.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me."
H. A. Anson, M. D., 111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."
UNITED HOSPITAL AND DISPENSARY, Boston, Mass.
