H. C. MCGEE, M. D. IS LOCATED in located at Eight Mile Grove. He has obtained the office formerly occupied by MR. MILLER of that place and can be found at all hours except when professionally out.

All the county offices will be closed Monday afternoon.

A neat special from the old P. C. & St. L. road went through this morning attached to the 9:25 train west.

Don't forget the Marionette matinee at the opera house Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock and the entertainment in the evening.

Potted strawberry plants of choice varieties will be on sale at Lew Moore's by July 15th. Plants put out now will insure a big crop next year. d&wtf

Four or five cars of the long looked for depot lumber arrived on the M. P. last night. The building will now be rapidly pushed to completion.

A washout at Cedar Creek and another at South Bend sent the Schuyler west last night by the way of Omaha and made the train nearly two hours late this morning.

A special train, consisting of an engine, baggage car and one coach went south on the M. P. yesterday afternoon, supposed to have been in charge of officials taking a look at the new line.

John D. Young is fleet of foot but it took him some time to run down a new straw hat last night that went rolling and bobbing through the mud to the evident delight of the spectators.

Mr. Ed Rich formerly of Greenwood was a Wabash visitor last week. He left last Monday with his family for California where he will in the future make his home.—Wabash News.

Rev. Falk will open his week day school for teaching the Swedish language next Monday at ten o'clock. All those who desire any knowledge of the language will do well to embrace this opportunity to learn.

The motor car is running again today, much to the edification and comfort of those living in the western part of the city. It will have to be tested thoroughly however, before the street railway company will again attempt to run it.

District court adjourned at noon today until Monday morning. The only business transacted of any public interest was the hearing in the Weeping Water saloon cases, in which the Judge reserved his decision until Monday morning.

Wm. Budig, an experienced upholsterer, having learned his trade in the old country, has quit the B. & M. shops and would be glad to serve the people of this city. The best class of work specially desired. Any orders left at THE HERALD office will receive prompt attention.

The river stood at thirteen feet above high water mark at 9 o'clock this morning. The highest point at the sewer was half full of water backed in on the river, so that such a flood as we had yesterday would certainly overflow the whole business portion of the city.

Prof. Kratz of the famous T. K. Quartette will drill the fourth of July singers one or two evenings this week. He is expected here Friday night. The attendance at the Presbyterian church last night was very good; over twenty-five of our best singers were present and manifested an appreciable interest in the work. We predict some excellent music for the Fourth.

Jno. A. McMurphy in the Omaha Times tells about Billy Sadelman buying a fine farm in Butler county back in 1873 but he had so much property and other business that he forgot to file his deed and only accidentally found it, eighteen years after the transfer had been made. On investigating the records Billy finds T. M. Marquette got a warranty deed to the land in 1874 which was duly recorded thus cutting him out entirely unless he goes into court and makes a showings, the chances even then being all against him.

Death of Mrs. Maston.
Died on Tuesday evening June 23, 1891, after an illness of several weeks duration. Mrs. Maston, aged 80 years. Funeral occurred at ten o'clock Thursday. The sorrowing friends have the sympathy of the community.—Greenwood Gazette.

Mrs. Maston was the mother of Mrs. Aaron Loder, wife of our commissioner, and was one of the early settlers of this county.

Brown & Barrett have the finest line of wall paper in the city.—Their prices are away down. tf

Laying the Corner Stone.

Monday will mark an epoch in the history of this county and city. Since the birth of this county, in 1856, when the west line extended out beyond Lincoln and took in a large part of Saunders county, together with a part of Otoe, we have had but one court house, which was recently torn down to give place to the magnificent new structure so auspiciously begun.

There have been many county seat contests and much bitter feeling has been engendered between this city and the western part of the county, which for many years prevented the building of a court house. All obstacles were finally removed last year by a decision of the supreme court holding good the election which voted $80,000 for a court house building fund, and the contract was soon let and work begun.

Many inconveniences have been suffered on account of the condition of the old building, which will now happily soon be ended. The district court room has for several years been in the Rockwood block, together with the office of the district clerk, Mr. W. C. Showalter, who is now serving his twelfth year in that capacity. The county judge's office was also moved out of the old building last year and occupies the Union block, at the corner of Sixth and Main streets.

The other officers who occupied the old court house up to the time of its demolition to make room for the new one were Prof. Noble, county superintendent, Bird Critchfield, county clerk, W. H. Cushing, county treasurer, and the board of commissioner. The office of sheriff and county attorney was moved out of the building last year, into the Union block.

While Cass county is not so old as many of the south-eastern counties, the Indian title not being entirely obliterated until 1857, yet the fertility of her soil and the class of people who came here to live, has been such as to push the county to the front rank, where it has to the present day maintained its well-earned position. The push, enterprise and capital of the citizens of Plattsmouth has also been a potent factor in assisting the county to hold its honored rank with the other counties of the state. And with the recent completion of the Missouri Pacific Railway giving us a new and direct line to the hard pine and cheap coal of the south and furnish us another outlet to the southern markets we are compelled to say that the fair capital of Cass county is but in its infancy, compared with what it will be in future years.

Although its present population of over ten thousand is certainly much larger than cities usually grow with the meagre facilities and opportunities which Plattsmouth has formerly enjoyed. Our population has doubled since 1880 and we believe the signs of the times point clearly to the fact that our population will double again in the coming decade, thus giving us 20,000 people ere the dawn of 1900 breaks upon us.

The largest line of patent medicines will be found at Brown & Barrett's.

PERSONAL

H. C. McMaken went to Omaha this morning.

Mrs. Sam'l Atwood and daughter, Ruth, are visitors at Omaha today.

Judge Chapman came in from Nebraska City and will hold court today.

Mrs. Peter Merges took her final leave of friends in this city this morning and went to Omaha to live.

Rev. Bodine from Pennsylvania preached in the Swedish church last night. He departed for Omaha this morning.

J. B. Haggard, the Sacramento horse man, took eleven fine colts west in a special car on the passenger train yesterday morning.

Supt. McClelland returned last evening from his visit to York. He says the rain did a great amount of damage in that county. Not a single bridge was left standing whereby farmers could go to York yesterday.

George Turner came home this morning from a few weeks' visit in Chicago, where he was showing his car billing device to railway men. He reports a very successful trip and says he received flattering propositions, some of which he will accept. tf

Will Play Ball Sunday

Owing to the rain the Nebraska City ball club only played one game with Plattsmouth. A return game will be played here on Sunday next, however, when a large number of visitors will no doubt be here. An excursion train will be run from Plattsmouth to this city over the new Missouri Pacific cut-off line. The citizens of Plattsmouth have guaranteed to purchase a sufficient number of the tickets to make the excursion a big success. Come ahead neighbors, we will give you a hearty welcome but you must not be disappointed if we wipe you off the face of the earth at base ball.—Nebraska City Press.

An Old Settler Gone.

J. W. Dixon, better known as Jim. Dixon and well known to all old citizens as a livery man here at an early day for many years, was hurt in a runaway at his home in Edgar, Neb., about ten days ago. He lingered along until day before yesterday when he died. His sister Mrs. McClure of Pennsylvania came in from the funeral yesterday and is visiting her aunt Mrs. C. M. Holmes and relatives here. Mr. Dixon was at one time a partner of Ambrose Patterson in the livery business, and ran a stable for himself once down on lower main street.

Murray Alliance.

The following is the list of officers elected at the last meeting of the Murray alliance:

Wm. Morrow, president; Dr. S. J. Tabor, secretary; S. E. Crabtree, treasurer; G. W. Adams, chairman; J. F. Marshall, lecturer; Wm. Loughridge, senior assistant lecturer; T. M. Vallery, door keeper; Henry Long, assistant door keeper; M. Standish, sergeant-at-arms.

The old finance committee was re-elected. Installation of officers will begin Saturday evening, June 27th, at the usual hour.

Attention, Singers!

The next rehearsal for Fourth of July music will be held Monday evening at the First Presbyterian church. Any wishing to sing with the chorus will please be there, as the committee do not care to have any come in after that time as the necessary training could not be given.

To Odd Fellows

All members of Cass Lodge No. 146 and transient and visiting members are requested to meet at Odd Fellows Hall Monday, at 1 o'clock p. m., to take part in the parade and laying of the court house corner stone exercises.

FRANK BOYD, Marshal.

A WONDERFUL SHOE.

Frank Davis, of the Schildknecht shoe emporium, has recently taken the agency for the modern ladies shoe which for comfort and beauty never was equaled. It is a hand turned shoe with cork insole and must be seen to be appreciated.

Call at Schildknecht's and examine the stock as they have the exclusive sale of these goods. One of the shoes is on exhibition cut in two that buyers may see how it is made. dtf

Wanted

Two-hundred Boys and Girls to help sing in the Fourth of July exercises. If you wish to take part come to the central school building at 2 o'clock, Monday afternoon.

Notice

There will be but one Mass tomorrow at St. John's Church, this city, and that at nine o'clock.
