When The Hair

Shows signs of falling, begin at once the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor. This preparation strengthens the scalp, promotes the growth of new hair, restores the natural color to gray and faded hair, and renders it soft, pliable, and glossy.
"We have no hesitation in pronouncing Ayer's Hair Vigor unequalled for dressing the hair, and we do this after long experience in its use. This preparation preserves the hair, cures dandruff and all diseases of the scalp, makes rough and brittle hair soft and pliant, and prevents baldness. While it is not a dye, those who have used the Vigor say it will stimulate the roots and colorings of faded, gray, light, and red hair, changing the color to

A Rich Brown or even black. It will not soil the pillow-case, no, a pocket-handkerchief, and is always agreeable. All the dirty, gummy hair preparations should be displaced at once by Ayer's Hair Vigor, and thousands who go around with heads looking like the fretful porcupine should hurry to the nearest drug store and purchase a bottle of the Vigor." The Sunny South, Atlanta, Ga.
"Ayer's Hair Vigor is excellent for the hair. It stimulates the growth, cures baldness, restores the natural color, cleanses the scalp, prevents dandruff, and is a good dressing. We know that Ayer's Hair Vigor differs from most hair tonics and similar preparations, in being perfectly harmless."—From Economic Housekeeping, by Eliza R. Parker.

FRIDAY, JULY 17, 1891

REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION.

The republican electors of the state of Nebraska are requested to send delegates from their several counties, to meet in convention in the city of Lincoln, Thursday, September 24, 1891, at 10 o'clock a. m., for the purpose of placing in nomination candidates for one associate justice of the supreme court, and two members of the board of regents of the state university, and to transact such other business as may be presented to the convention.

representation as follows, being based upon the vote cast for Hon Geo. H. Hastings, for attorney general in 1890, giving one delegate at-large to each county, and one for

*No vote returned.

It is recommended that no proxies be admitted to the convention, and that the delegates present be authorized to cast the full vote of the delegation.

It is further recommended that the state central committee select the temporary organization of the convention.

JOHN C. WATSON,
WALT M. SEELY, Chairman.
Secretary.

It is seldom that Washington has a political sensation at this season, of the year unless congress happens to be in session, but a sensation of the first magnitude was sprung here this week by the announcement that Representatives Mills and Bynum had determined to withdraw as candidates for the speakership of the house and to throw their strength as far as possible to Representatives Holman, of Indiana, who had not to this time been considered as a candidate. And that isn't all. It is stated that Mr.
Mills is to head an open revolt against Cleveland as a presidential candidate, and that he has assurances of assistance from a number of southern and western democrats who favor the nomination of ex-Representative ("Horizontal Bill") Morrison at present one of the interstate commissioners, or some other western man.—Madison Chronicle.

"The state banquet at Windsor," says a London correspondent, "was the most magnificent entertainment which has been given at the castle since the visit of Napoleon III, and Eugenie, in April, 1855. Last week I estimated the value of the plate which would be used or displayed in St. George's Hall at £500,000, but I believe in reality it was worth more like £800,000; for not only was the gold service which Rundell & Bridge manufactured for George IV. used, but Indian and Chinese trophies, famous gold shields, the huge silver winecooler in which two men can comfortably sit, gold flagons, candelabra, vases, and the well-known St. George candelabra were all to be seen, the last being placed exactly opposite to the Queen and the Emperor. The floral decorations were extremely beautiful and excited universal admiration. The Queen's priceless services of Worcester and Crown Derby china were used."

ASIATIC cholera is raging in the far east with unabated vigor. This country should take no chances on becoming infected with the dreaded scourge.

JERRY SIMPSON, the sockless statesman from Kansas, has seen the handwriting on the wall, and is now engaged in booming the state which he has injured by his recent abuse and talk of bankruptcy and hardtimes.

WHAT is the matter with the democratic and independent newspapers? They do not rise up to announce that binding twine is selling for three cents per pound less than it did last year. This is what is being done, yet the free trade papers do not say anything about it.

As Hamilton county goes so goes Ohio—has long been recognized as a truism in that state.
That Hamilton county will not support Governor Campbell is very clear, hence we may infer that W. J.
McKinley will be the next governor of the Buckeye state.

THE Ohio democrats, in casting about for something to want that the present administration was not after, declared in favor of reciprocity and closer trade relations with Canada. In what particular Canada's products differ from ours, the convention forgot to state.

ASTRONOMERS have discovered two more spots on the sun. The Inter-Ocean says they are free trade spots and should not alarm the people, as they are easy to knock off. And the Inter-Ocean knows, for it has been signally successful knocking free trade spots from the body politic.

THE usual convention speech always abounds largely in burlesque.
The trade against extravagant legislation at the recent Ohio democratic state convention, however, takes the breath of the average man, who recognizes the Campbell administration as the most extravagant in the last 20 years' history of the state.

THE Illinois trust law seems to be the best one so far framed out of several that have been placed upon the statute books of several states within the last three or four years.
The Illinois law has already smashed several trusts without the people having to invoke the aid of the courts. The life of the American trusts is uncertain at best, while under our free and liberal government they became intrenched, yet the strong arm of the law can and will reach them.

ON Chauncey M. Depew's mantle in the reception room of his elegant home on Fifty-fourth street, New York, there is a miniature locomotive of burnished steel, silver, and gold, the workmanship on which is simply marvelous. It is perfect in every detail and forms the setting for a clock and baromet-ter. It is said that Mr. Depew is particular that the clock shall be kept wound, and if he goes into the room to meet guests and finds that it is not running he will not stay there to talk with them, but has them pass into his library or parlor, while he sends for a servant and has the clock set a going.

How to Succeed.
This is the great problem of life which few satisfactorily solve.
Some fail because of ill health, others want of luck, but the majority fail from insufficient grit—want of nerve.
They are nervous, irresolute, changeable, easily get the blues and "take the spirits down to keep the spirits up," thus wasting money, time, opportunity and nerve force. There is nothing like the Restorative Nervine, discovered by the great specialist, Dr. Miles, to cure all nervous diseases, as headache, the blues, nervous prostration, sleeplessness, neuralgia, St. Vitus dance, fits and hysteria. Trial bottles and fine
