PERSONAL

Miss Ella Wright went to Lincoln this morning.

F. E. White shipped two cars of grain east to-day.

W. J. Hesser made a business trip to Omaha to-day.

Miss Tillie Leichtweis went to Omaha this morning.

J. B. Holmes is in South Omaha today with a carload of cattle.

Mr. Wash Smith, wife and son were passengers for Geneva this morning.

Mrs. Senator Thomas came home this morning from a visit at Weeping Water.

Mrs. J. P. Taylor and daughter, Nellie, returned to their home at Central City to-day.

Henry Ingholder and wife and two daughters came in this morning from Cedar Creek.

Mrs. Stradley, mother of Mrs. D. K. Barr, came down from Greenwood this morning.

Jesse Dovey, after visiting relatives in this city for two weeks, left this morning for Chicago.

W. J. Hesser, of the picnic gardens, has so improved as to be able to come to town once more.

Mrs. Wm. Woodward went to St. Joe this morning on account of the serious illness of her mother at that city.

Mrs. J. L. Minor and sister, Miss Florence Hobbs, returned this morning from a brief visit in Chicago.

Miss Carrie Adams went to Lincoln this morning to visit friends for a few days. Her niece, Clair Dovey accompanied her.

Mrs. Richard Letford and daughter departed last evening for Harrisburgh, Pa., called there by the serious illness of Mrs. Letford's father.

Frank Nichols accompanied by his sister Rose and Anna came in from Louisville this morning and will visit over Sunday with Miss Clara Herold.

Three cars of lumber and a car of terra cotta are being unloaded to-day at the town track.

W. J. Hesser, Cass county's leading florist and fruit grower, left on our table last evening a box of beautiful flowers, which covered continents to brighten up.

A B. & M. passenger engineer in this city has made $55 on his run since Monday morning not including to-day. Eleven dollars per day is a rather handsome salary.

Rev. C. A. Falk with part of his congregation will hold services at Pacific Junction to-morrow at 1 o'clock a. m. They will return and hold services in the Swedish church in the evening.

Joe Pach, the fruit vender in the Schlater building, opposite the opera house, has one of the neatest and most complete stores to be found anywhere. There is not a cleaner fruit store with better goods to be found in Omaha.

Rev. C. A. Falk, of the Swedish Free Mission church, closed his day-school yesterday, which has been a very successful school. The scholars were all of Swedish descent except one, which was W. L. Browne's daughter, Lebia.

Dick Streight helped his father stack his fall plowing, threshed the pumpkins, trimmed up the cucumber trees and left things in good shape on the farm. He came in this morning to bleach his hands and sell a few sets of harness.

Herman Spies is completing the best residence erected in the Second ward this year. It is large, well arranged, contains all the latest conveniences and is being finished up elegantly in hard wood. THE HERALD is glad to note Mr. Spies' evident intention to live well and take some comfort. He can afford to.

Arrangements have been made for the harvest excursions from all points in the east to points in Nebraska. These excursions start from Chicago, Peoria and St. Louis on August 25, September 15 and 29. The Burlington route will advertise our state quite extensively, but it would be well for our Board of Trade to advertise our city and send a man east to get up a couple of car loads of people to stop off here and see our city, for if we get any of the benefit of these excursions we must lay our advantages before the people.

"Where are you going, Mr. Grover Clew?"
"A-hunting the clam, sir," said he.
"Are you going to help in the Ohio raid?"
"Nobody has asked me, sir," he said.
—Chicago Tribune.

Mrs. S. A. Davis returned home last evening from Weeping Water and other places where she has been visiting relatives.

Master Joseph Knotts has taken up his abode in this city again with his brother, A. B. He returned from the Bluffs this morning.

They say Bert Pollock has the finest garden in the city. THE HERALD will try and visit the scene of Bert's farming operations shortly and write him up.

Friends and fellow citizens, don't forget the alliance primaries are held to-night. Let us turn out and get a representative delegation from each ward.

Sol Pitcher, wife and daughter came in last night from their Northwestern Nebraska home and are the guests of Mrs. Pitcher's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Valley, Sr.

Claus Breckenfeld has an attachment to put on a lawn mower to catch the grass that is a daisy. It is a cloth affair and fits in behind the machine so that every particle of grass is saved, making the lawn look fifty per cent better than the old method. Call and see them.

That chronic "bellyache" sometimes referred to as the "Mi-ror" is out again to-day, complaining of everything and everybody. It's a great misfortune that 'Old Purity,' the virgin editor, could not be given sole control of public affairs, even if thing would then be so clean and honest, you know (?).

Farmer Leonard of Raymond was in the city yesterday and relates that a panther is running loose in the neighborhood, devouring the stock and committing other depredations. There are a number of ambitious sportsmen in this city and here is some game that is worthy of their acquaintance and attention.—State Journal.

Judge A. W. Crites and family, of Chadron, are in the city to-day the guests of Hon. B. S. Ramsey and wife. Judge Crites looks hale and hearty after his sojourn at Lake Minnetonka and the Twin Cities. He is enroute home to take up the thread of his judicial duties. Judge Ramsey and family will accompany them home and the Judge will go into the Black Hills and endeavor to capture the sole bear running loose. They will be gone about two weeks.

Joshua Stroud will be remembered by all the old settlers as the gentleman who removed with his family to Nebraska in 1864 buying out the townsite of Mt. Pleasant where he resided until about ten years ago when he removed to Wyoming. From the columns of the Wyoming Derrick, a sprightly paper, published at Caspar, Wyo., we note the marriage of Mr. Stroud's eldest daughter, Laura to Mr. John McGrath, the county treasurer of that county. The paper says "the bride wore a handsome dress of white mull, trimmed in point lace and cut decollette with a beautiful corsage bouquet of natural flowers. A handsome pearl necklace set off her shapely neck." The presents were rich and expensive.

The Motor Line.
The good news comes to THE HERALD this afternoon that the motor line is now being put on its feet again. Mr. H. H. Haelney, of the Riley, is sure attendant and promises to operate the line continuously as it is a next week. The cars will run to-morrow and after two or three days will then be operated without any delay.

A Lucky Lawyer.

A telegram from Weeping Water to the Bee this morning says:
"Mrs. Annie Allison, formerly of Cass county, died May 8 at Jess-kell, England. She left a will, in which, among other gifts she bequeaths to Attorney J. H. Haldeman of this city $500 in cash, and makes him sole executor of her estate, amounting to something like $40,000, consisting of realty and personal property in this county. This will, together with a death certificate, was sent by her husband, Joseph Allison, and was received by Mr. Haldeman to-day."

Rheumatism Cured in a Day.
"Mystic Cure" for rheumatism and neuralgia radically cured in 1 to 3 days. Its action upon the system is remarkable and mysterious. It removes at once the cause and the disease immediately disappears. The first dose greatly benefits. 75c Sold by E. G. Fricks, Druggist, at the corner of this city will celebrate in Weep-

ELMWOOD ITEMS.

FROM THE ECHO.

John and Will Current went west last Thursday morning. They will take in Kenesaw, Beaver City, and other Nebraska points and may go on to Denver before they return.

Mayor Richey of Plattsmouth was an Elmwood visitor last Saturday and Sunday. He came up to accompany his daughter, Mrs. Frank Dickson, home, who has been the guest of the family of A. B. Dickson for two weeks.

Silas Greenstate who used to own a water melon patch and a bull-dog in Iowa, is having constructed for the world's fair a log-cabin bed quilt containing 1701 pieces. The block are relics of boy's pants pried out of the jaws of the bull-dog during the years that Silas was general manager of the melon patch.

A Bad Accident

Wm. Wheeler, residing near town, brought a new twine binder the other day and yesterday he hitched four horses and two mules to the machine and made things fly, so that by four o'clock he had cut and bound seventeen acres of wheat. About four o'clock while he was on the ground back of the machine oiling it up, a sharp stroke of lightning started the teams and away they went as fast as they could run. A barb wire fence was no obstacle and barely slackened their pace as they crashed over it, without seriously hurting the horses. On they went through a corn field with nothing broken but the pitman bar, (a bar which operates the sickle) when one of the leaders fell; the other horses tramped over the unfortunate but when the machine struck him it was suddenly stopped as the teams which were well nigh tired out could not budge the heavy binder and Mr. Wheeler lost no time in extricating his horse from its perilous position under the machine. On taking an inventory, it was found the horse had some ugly wounds made by the sickle guard, a few barb wire scratches, and a broken pitman rod completed the sum total of the damages to the outfit. Mr. Wheeler was lucky indeed that the results were no worse.

Work Was Begun

This morning with a full force of men to rebuild the stalls of the round house which were destroyed by the recent explosion. The Havelock boomers and Plattsmouth croakers will take due notice of this fact. It has been pretty definitely settled, we understand, not to move the locomotive building and repair department to Havelock. Only repairs in wood work will be performed there.

The C. W. B. M.

Of the Christian church will give an entertainment consisting of music and speaking. Sunday evening, for the benefit of the foreign Mission Society. Admission free. The public is cordially invited.

The Wrestling Match.

F. C. Desmond, the wrestler who came here claiming to be a ball player, has turned out to be a champion wrestler and has made the Harshmans hunt their hole, and turn their sportive heads elsewhere. The surprising activity that J. Caston accepted Desmond's challenge to throw any man in Omaha three times in one hour, created comment. Now the sports of Nebraska City are wondering who this man Desmond can be and the excitement the match has created here is surprising. The old Standard will hardly hold the people on Saturday night. These men are to wrestle for a $200 purse and they will contest hard for the dollars there are in Nebraska City Press.

Died

HARRY—Infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hill, this morning at six o'clock of cholera infantum. The little one was only three months old but its presence will be sadly missed. The funeral will take place to-morrow at two p. m.
