Mrs. John Seibert and Miss Nettie Watt are visitors at the metropolis to-day.

Mr. D. A. Campbell, of Lincoln, spent Sunday in the city visiting old friends.

Mesdames Collard and Smith were passengers on No. 5 for the metropolis to-day.

Mr. Richardson, of Omaha, spent the Sunday here, the guest of Miss Nettie Ballance.

Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Guild left Saturday evening for Omaha where they spent the Sunday.

Yardmaster J. J. Cassidy was a passenger this morning for Lincoln, to be gone a few days.

Miss Thomas and Miss D. B. Sabacool were passengers on No. 5 for the metropolis this morning.

Mr. Fred Gorder, one of the implement dealers at Weeping Water, Sundayed with his parents in this city.

Mr. Cuttel, traveling agent for the McCormick harvesting machines, Sundayed with his family in the city.

Mrs. Willover, sister of Mrs. David Young, having concluded her visit with friends here, departed for her home to-day.

Mr. M. D. Polk and family leave this morning for Minneapolis, St. Paul and other points in the east on a pleasure trip.

W. H. Easton and wife, of Stewart, Iowa, who have been visiting the family of Mr. Cuttel returned home this morning.

Misses Rose McCauley and Nettie Ballance, who have been visiting the principal places of interest in the east, returned Saturday evening.

Adjutant General Bowen passed through the city on No. 5 this morning, enroute for his home. He is just returning for the national G. A. R. encampment at Detroit.

Mrs. Delmann sister, of Frank Brosia, who has been visiting the family of the latter several days returned to her home in Monona, county, this morning.

Rev. Tribler, of South Omaha, in the absence of Rev. Lawre, preached at the German M. E. church last night. He returned home this morning.

Clayton Barber, formerly an employe at the B. & M. storehouse in this city, now in the employ of the B. & M., at Lincoln, is visiting friends here.

Riley arrivals: J. B. Backenight, G. S. Wood, Chicago; E. A. Snell, F. I. Strump, Ang Meyer, Fred Engle, H. B. Tomson, Omaha; B. W. Joyce, G. P. Smith, G. H. McCreath, Lincoln; E. L. Olds, Racine, Wis.; J. L. Fleck, St. Louis; C. Ashley, Weeping Water; Chas. Riegelman, Des Moines; W. H. Hamilton, Topeka, Kas.

We feel under obligation to H. C. McMacken for papers published at Detroit, Michigan, giving a full account of the national G. A. R. encampment being held there.

The ball game announced to take place yesterday at the ball park failed to materialize. The "Plattsmouth" were on deck as usual; but the "other fellows" failed to put in an appearance.

The blackberry crop is said to be exceedingly fine throughout the state. Near Blair one man had enough pickers at work on his place at one time to earn $64, and he made a shipment of 100 bushels the next day.

The citizens of Plattsmouth may be pardoned for whatever pride they have for their ball club. The Burlingtons not only know how to play ball, but the club is made up of men who are every inch gentlemen.—Murray Banner.

Rev. Fifer, a young minister of Lincoln, in the absence of Rev. Buckner, preached at the M. E. church yesterday—morning and evening. The sermons were scholarly, full of vim, and were listened to attentively.

W. S. Purdy is building an addition to his house on South Third street. Mr. Purdy has one of the nicest flower gardens in the city and when his house is complete it will be one of the nicest residence places in our city.

The golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Buckner, of University Place, was celebrated yesterday in an appropriate manner, relatives and friends participating. There were present three generations of the Buckner family and religious services were conducted by the sons, all of whom are ministers.

The Alliance Convention.

Farmers in Conference Nominate a County Ticket.

At a little past 1 o'clock last Saturday the alliance convention was called together by Mr. Rouse of Greenwood, and as soon as order was established Gov. Todd was called upon for a speech, which the "Gov." responded to in his characteristic way. His remarks were well received and elicited several rounds of applause.

The committee on credentials then made their report, which was a very peculiar one indeed. LeMasters was chairman and found that there were 127 delegates accredited to the several wards and precincts in the county. No report was made as to who the delegates were, so that anyone could represent any place he desired.

Nominations being in order for county clerk, J. R. Marshall, of Salt Creek precinct, was nominated by acclamation to pilot the boat up that stream on the third of November. Mr. Marshall has lived in this county, south of Ashland, for nine years. He is thirty-eight years old and hails from Illinois, which is all that is known of him.

Sam'l. Richardson went in for treasurer by acclamation, also.

For sheriff, Ed Dorr, of Wabash, and Gardiner, of Greenwood, had quite a tussle, which resulted in favor of Dorr.

M. O. Weed was nominated for county superintendent without opposition.

H. D. Barr, of Weeping Water, carried off the honor of a nomination for county judge, and our democratic friend, John D. Tutt of this city, carried off the plum for clerk of the district court; Sam Galley, of Greenwood, was nominated for coroner.

People Who Hold Back a Town.

First, those who oppose improvements; second, those who go out of town to do their trading; third, those who prefer a quiet town to one all push and business; fourth, those who run down the town; fifth, those who think business can be done slyly without advertising; sixth, those who mistrust public spirited men; seventh, those who oppose every movement which does not originate with themselves; eighth, those who put on a long face when a stranger talks of locating in town; ninth, those who oppose every public enterprise which does not appear of personal benefit to themselves; tenth, those who seek to injure the credit of banks and individuals.—Exchange.

Notice.
At St. John's Catholic church to-morrow there will be mass at 8 and 10:30 o'clock.

Last evening two of our young ladies, presumably to have some innocent sport, departed from the indulgences usually allotted to their sex and attempted to outdo their brothers for once at least. One of them donned a man's attire, and assuming the attitude of a male escort, affectionately and with apparent ease and grace, conducted lady No. 2 down the street, when some of the boys, having an eye to business and wishing to ascertain facts in the case, proceeded to investigate, and as a result their curiosity was gratified. While the young ladies may have had in view only some innocent sport, yet such conduct is wholly unbecoming and does not keep pace with the modesty that should characterize their sex.

WANTED—A girl for general house work in a small family. Enquire at this office.

Postponed.
The entertainment announced for Thursday evening by the ladies of the W. C. T. U. for various reasons has been postponed until one week from Thursday. It will be the better for the delay as it will give ample time for preparation. Remember the date—Aug. 20. SEC.

Slightly Injured.
□ Yesterday as Chas. Bell and Ed Donald were riding on the side of a box car, which was being pushed along the side track they were quite severely bruised, owing to the narrow space intervening between their car and one they were passing. They sustained no serious injury and will probably be at work again in a few days.

A little child of Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Wheeler is quite sick.

Dr. Livingston has an attack having the symptoms of typhoid fever. It is hoped the attack will not prove serious.

We are sorry to learn of the illness of father and mother Ruby, and yet we are pleased to note that they are reported much better and hopes extertained of their recovery.—Eaglet.

Supt. McClellan of our city schools drove over to Weeping Water this morning for the purpose of attending to matters pertaining to the teachers' institute to be held there.

Clerk Grimes to-day issued licenses to wed to the following persons: Alvin S. Graves, age 33, Melissa Ann Stoneking, age 18, both of this city; Lon Marshall, age 28, Plattsmouth, Miss Rose Hubbell, age 19.

Miss Nettie Johns, one of the progressive teachers of Page county Iowa, and an old class mate of the HERALD scribe stopped in the city a short time this morning, as she was returning to her home, having been visiting friends at Waaoo Nebraska.

Mrs. Pauline Lushinsky and family desire to extend to friends their heartfelt thanks for deeds of kindness rendered during the sickness of their beloved husband and father, and for many words of consolation tendered in the hour of sad bereavement.

During the heavy rain last Friday, lightning struck the barn of David Scheesly, one mile this side of Alvo, and after cavorting around through his granary, splitting posts into kindlingwood, left without doing any serious damage. Several valuable horses were in the barn at the time and it is a wonder they were not struck.—Eaglet.

Announcements are out for a series of ball games between the Plattsmouths and the Lincoln Giants. First game Tuesday, game called at 4 p. m.; second game Wednesday, at 4 p. m.; third game Thursday, at 3:30 p. m. This will be the last opportunity to witness a good game until after the Plattsmouths return from their tour of the state.

The base ball nine at Nehawka made a proposition to a picked nine of this city to play a game upon the ground of the former. Accordingly our boys departed overland Saturday morning with a view of showing the Nehawkas how to play ball; but untrue to the agreement, the Nehawkas excused themselves, much to the dissatisfaction of the Plattsmouth boys. It always pays to deal honorably even through indications points to a roasting.

Do not forget the address to be delivered by the Rev. James P. Mills A. M. General Field Secretary of the Central Interstate Sabbath Alliance at the Presbyterian church to-night. The subject of the address is "The American Sabbath and its foes" and The Nations duty touching the Sabbath." Mr. Mills comes to our city highly recommended by eminent men and women all over the country and the cause in behalf of which he is laboring, is one in which all should be interested. Let there be a good turnout.
