Design for Opera House
Bowl Catchall.
 An exceedingly handsome and effective toilet set lately seen was made of brown linen and embroidered with pink and white Bargarran thread. Conventional carnations in tiny bunches and detached flowers were scattered over the surface without any attempt at regularity. Each flower was outlined with the pink thread and more or less filled in with the white, done in close stitches. The ends of the cover were hemstitched, as was the little square that covered the pin cushion. Pink bows and satin ribbon to match held the cover in place.
 A pretty cover for a stand where a white one is desired is made of one of the handsome towels which come with open-work borders. The pattern is outlined with white Bargarran thread and some of the heavier parts covered with satin stitch. The long fringe may be tied if desired.
 Much time and labor is spent upon the little bags used for carrying opera glasses. They are made of plush and elaborately decorated with the brush or

DESIGN FOR OPERA BAG.
 The design given shows Cupid astride a limb peering gleefully through a glass, with the legend: "Look to the Players," wrought in fancy letters.
 The common wooden chopping bowl, which is found in all sizes from a pint bowl up, may be converted into an exceedingly pretty receptacle for photographs or a general "catchall." They are decorated outside and in with any suitable design. When this is traced the background is burnt all over with the common fire poker, leaving the design in relief. When finished it is given a coat of white shellac—and, behold, a unique ornament for fifteen cents.

 The larger bowls, after being decorated, are mounted on a tripod, making a pretty little piece for a corner. The legs may be made of broomsticks and ebonized, or of other wood and poked.

EMBROIDERED BANDS.
 A Pretty Fashion Which is Deservedly Popular in England.
 A pretty fashion comes from England of embroidering bands of cashmere or flannel or cloth as trimming for dresses and children's frocks. The two examples which are given are done in simple outline stitch with very coarse embroidery silk, but are very effective. Gold and silver thread can be used with excellent results.

 A little frock for a child was sent over recently from England which was trimmed in this way, and was greatly admired. The dress was of pale blue cloth, and the bands were white, embroidered with blue and gold.—N. Y. Tribune.

A Hint to Mothers.
 Vigorous children should have a cold or tepid sponge bath every morning. Delicate ones require more care in this matter, as too frequent bathing exhausts them. Salt should be added to the water and the bath given every other day, alternated with rubbing the whole body with a towel, followed by friction with the hand. When children live near the water they should not be allowed to bathe more than once a day, and then not immediately after eating. Wading is such a dear delight it cannot be prohibited, but it is dangerous if the water is cold.

To Cook White Turnips.
 A nice way to cook white turnips is to peel and cut them in rather small, even sized pieces, put on to boil in clear water. When about half done turn off all the water and add fresh milk, enough to well cover; season with butter, pepper and salt and simmer gently until the turnips are very tender; then add a very little sprinkle of flour, let boil up a moment and serve in a hot dish. Turnips prepared in this manner are very delicate and make a dainty summer vegetable.

If Baby Spills the Ink.
 When the carpet has been soiled by ink, instantly apply blotting paper, then milk, then blotting paper, and so on until the spot is out, as it will be. Don't rub

John Leslie, farmer and stockman, of same place, says: "Had Electric Bitters be the best Kidney and Liver medicine, made me feel like a new man." J. W. A Mystery Explained.
 The papers contain frequent notices of rich, pretty and educated girls eloping with negroes, tramps and coachmen. The well-known specialist, Dr. Franklin Miles, says all such girls are more or less hysterical, nervous, very impulsive, unbalanced; usually subject to headache, neuralgia, sleeplessness, immoderate crying or laughing. These show a weak, nervous system for which there is no remedy equal to Restorative Nerveine. Trial bottles and a fine book, containing many marvelous cures, free at F. G. Fricke & Co's, who also sell and guarantee Dr. Miles' celebrated New Heart Cure, the finest of heart tonics. Cures fluttering or short breath, etc.

I am an old man and have been a constant sufferer with catarrh for the last ten years. I am entirely cured by the use of Ely's Cream Balm. It is strange that so simple a remedy will cure such a stubborn disease.—Henry Billings, U. S. Pension Attorney, Washington, D. C.
 For eight years I have suffered from catarrh, which affected my eyes and hearing; I have employed many physicians without relief. I am now on my second bottle of Ely's Cream Balm, and feel confident of a complete cure.—Mary C. Thompson, Cerro Gordo, Ill.

Height of Cruelty
 Nervous women seldom receive the sympathy they deserve. While often the pictures of health, they are constantly ailing. To withhold sympathy from these unfortunates is the height of cruelty. They have a weak heart, causing shortness of breath, fluttering, pain in side, weak swelling of ankles, oppression, choking, smothering and dropsy. Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure is just the thing for them. For their nervousness, headache, weakness, etc., his Restorative Nerveine is unequalled. Fine treatise on "Heart and Nervous Diseases" and marvelous testimonials free. Sold and guaranteed by F. G. Fricke & Co.

Is an effective remedy, as conclusively proved. For two years I was a constant sufferer from dyspepsia and liver complaint. I doctored a long time and the medicines prescribed, in nearly every case, only aggravated the disease. An apothecary advised me to use Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I did so, and was cured at a cost of $8. Since that time it has been my family medicine, and sickness has become a stranger to our household. I believe it to be the best medicine on earth.
 —P. F. McNulty, Hackman, 29 Summer St., Lowell, Mass.

FOR DEBILITY, Ayer's Sarsaparilla
 Is a certain cure, when the complaint originates in impoverished blood. "I was a great sufferer from a low condition of the blood and general debility, becoming finally, so reduced that I was unfit for work. Nothing that I did for the complaint helped me so much as Ayer's Sarsaparilla, a few bottles of which restored me to health and strength. I take every opportunity to recommend this medicine in similar cases."—C. Evick, 14 E. Main St., Chillicothe, Ohio.

 Dr. G. C. Osceon, Lowell, Mass.

Castoria.
 "Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me."
 H. A. ANGER, M. D., 111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quick nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."
 Dr. J. E. KINCHLOW, Conway, Ark.

"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."
