A New Swindle.
The police have discovered a new swindle that shows great ingenuity among the criminals practicing it, and is entirely novel. It is another evidence of the deep cunning of thieves, which has been rendered keen and daring by the intense competition among the class who live on the confidence of others. The new swindle takes in the cunning pawnbrokers and the astute police detectives and is a marvel of artistic crime.

The scheme is as follows: A man who bears a good reputation, but whose morality is below the average, buys a fine gold watch, which is distinctly marked, so that it can be easily identified. He is in league with a swindler, who takes the watch and pawn it, then skips out with the money. The owner of the watch goes to the police, tells a plausible tale of how he was robbed and leaves a description of his property. It is soon found in the pawnshop and recovered. If not practiced too often it is a very good swindle. Confidence men without local habitation travel around the country practicing this swindle. It is perfectly safe.

One represents himself as a traveling man, a railroad man or some other bird of passage, and the other is the unknown thief. It is believed that this swindle has been practiced successfully for some time, but the police are now "watching" for suspicious "cases."—St. Louis Republic.

Lively Bass in Greenwood Lake.
Joseph R. Buchanan, of the American Press Association, is spending the summer at Greenwood lake, and he goes out fishing almost every evening. Wednesday night a boy was waiting for him with his tackle when the up train reached the lake.

Mr. Buchanan began casting frogs on the way to his boarding house, and failed to get a single strike. As he was nearing his boarding house, in passing up West Milford creek, which empties into the lake, a bass broke water near the blade of one of his oars, and at the same instant the boy, who was sitting on the stern seat, shouted, "A bass! a bass!"

Something was flapping in the boat, and upon lighting a match—for it was dark—Mr. Buchanan found that he had secured a large mouth bass weighing one and a half pounds. The boy said that the fish struck him on the breast. Mr. Buchanan thinks the fish jumped at least five feet out of the water, and would have gone completely over the boat had it not hit the boy.—Cor. New York Sun.

Burglars in Reclus' Home.
Citizen Elisee Reclus, the eminent geographer and inveterate revolutionist, is not in luck just now. Only recently the Academie decided against him in awarding its biennial prize of 200,000 francs, and now his habitation has been ransacked entirely, during his absence, by burglars. What the malefactors expected to find in the abode of the hard working savant, who, in spite of his distinguished labors, is known to have amassed but few of this world's goods, it is difficult to say.

They, however, broke into his little villa at Severs, forced open all the locks and smashed most of the furniture. Fortunately for the ends of justice a watchman on duty near by who saw lights in the house had his wits about him. Armed with a spade, he waited for the burglars to come out, and felled one of them to the ground with his weapon. The others escaped, but will doubtless be discovered through the instrumentality of the man in custody.—Paris Cor. London Telegraph.

Boulangier's Friend's Will.
Fuller details respecting the will of the late Mme. de Bonnemains, Gen. Boulangier's friend, are now published. She inherited from her aunt $36,000, of which she only enjoyed the interest, the principal being bound up strictly. Some months after the death of her relative Mme. de Bonnemains mortgaged for 60,000 francs half of the "une propriete" or usufruct of her inheritance, thus leaving only $18,000. This sum she has now left to Mme. Dutens, her universal legatee, who has to pay the charges on it, comprising bequests amounting to 70,000 francs and duties. The legatee is also to pay the debts of the testatrix, which are said to be considerable.—London Telegraph.

Her Eye Put Out by a Quail.
Passengers arriving from Jackson, Miss., report a strange accident occurring on a train of the Yazoo Valley railway, a branch of the Illinois Central, Monday. As the train was passing through a field a frightened quail flew in through a window and struck an aged lady in the face with such force as to destroy one of her eyes. The bird was instantly killed.—Vicksburg Cor. St. Louis Republic.

Uneasy indeed must be the conscience of an inartistic tailor in Keypport, N. J. He made a suit for a Benedict, and on the night of the wedding over 200 guests were assembled at the bride's house. The hour for the ceremony was near, but the groom did not come. Fancy the disappointment of the assemblage when the bride fainted after receiving this audacious note, "I can't come, as my wedding suit is a wretched fit."

A shoemaker at Manchester, N. H., has an order for a pair of shoes which are to be twenty-one inches long and eight inches across the ball of the foot. They are for a North Carolina clergyman.

The house owned by Moliere's widow, Armande Bejart, the actress, is still standing in Meudon, near Paris, and has just been classed among the historic monuments of France.

Among recent inventions is an automatic electrical pump. It shuts off by a slow closing switch when the tank is full, and starts again just before the tank becomes empty.

A new American machine, recently patented, is designed for the rolling of continuous steel sheets with an aim to cheapening their production.

Cough-Cures

Are abundant; but the one best known for its extraordinary anodyne and expectorant qualities is Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. For nearly half a century this preparation has been in greater demand than any other remedy for colds, coughs, bronchitis, and pulmonary complaints in general.

"I suffered for more than eight months from a severe cough accompanied with hemorrhage of the lungs and the expectoration of matter. The physicians gave me up, but my druggist prevailed on me to try

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.
I did so, and soon began to improve; my lungs healed, the cough ceased, and I became stouter and healthier than I have ever been before. I would suggest that the name of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral be changed to Elixir of Life, for it certainly saved my life."
—F. J. Olden, Salto, Buenos Ayres.

"A few years ago I took a very bad cold, which settled on my lungs. I had night sweats, a racking cough, and great soreness. My doctor's medicine did me no good. I tried many remedies, but received no benefit; everybody despaired of my recovery. I was advised to use Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and, as a last resort, did so. From the first dose I obtained relief, and, after using two bottles of it, was completely restored to health."
—F. Adams, New Greena, N. J.

A National Event.
The holding of the World's Fair in a city scarcely fifty years old will be a remarkable event, but whether it will really benefit this nation as much as the discovery of the Restorative Nervine by Dr. Franklin Miles is doubtful. This is just what the American people need to cure their excessive nervousness, dyspepsia, headache, dizziness, sleeplessness, neuralgia, nervous debility, dullness, confusion of mind, etc. It acts like a charm. Trial bottle and fine book on "Nervous and Heart Diseases," with unequalled testimonials free at F. G. Fricke & Co. It is warranted to contain opium, morphine or dangerous drugs.

Specimen Cases.
S. H. Clifford, New Castle, Wis., was troubled with neuralgia and rheumatism, his stomach was disordered, his liver was affected to an alarming degree, appetite fell away and he was terribly reduced in flesh and strength. Three bottles of Electric Bitters cured him.

Edward Shepherd, Harrisburg, Ill., had a running sore on his leg of eight years' standing. Used three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven bottles Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and his leg is sound and well. John Speaker, Catawba, O., had five large fever sores on his leg, doctors said he was incurable. One bottle Electric Bitters and one box Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him entirely. Sold by F. G. Fricke & Co.

I am an old man and have been a constant sufferer with catarrh for the last ten years. I am entirely cured by the use of Ely's Cream Balm. It is strange that so simple a remedy will cure such a stubborn disease—Henry Billings, U. S. Pension Attorney, Washington, D. C.

For eight years I have suffered from catarrh, which affected my eyes and hearing; I have employed many physicians without relief. I am now on my second bottle of Ely's Cream Balm, and feel confident of a complete cure.—Mary C. Thompson, Cerro Gordo, Ill.

Wonderful Success.
Two years ago the Haller Prop. Co. ordered their bottles by the box—now they buy by the carload. Among the popular and successful remedies they prepare is Haller's Sarsaparilla & Burdock which is the most wonderful blood purifier known. No druggist hesitates to recommend this remedy.
For sale by druggist.

Remarkable Facts.
Heart disease is usually supposed to be incurable, but when properly treated a large portion of cases can be cured. Thus Mrs. Elmira Hatch, of Elkhart, Ind., and Mrs. Mary L. Baker, of Ovid, Mich., were cured after suffering 20 years. S. C. Linburger, druggist at San Jose, Ill., says that Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure which cured the former, "worked wonders for his wife." Levi Logan of Buchanan, Mich., who had heart disease for 30 years, says two bottles made him "feel like a new man." Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure is sold and guaranteed by F. G. Fricke & Co. Book of wonderful testimonials free.
