That White Man... Members of the M... State of Penn.

These men made four or five circuits of the small plaza and then took up a position to the west side of it.

His companion, with his arm around his neck, kept the tail of the snake in position with his left hand...

At times the serpents would try to make their escape and would make a dash for liberty through the crowds...

The visits to the shed were continued until at least 150 snakes had been brought from the inclosure...

Those who danced with the snakes not infrequently had three or four in the mouth at the same time...

The applause of the spectators urged the dancers to greater feats, and as the dance proceeded the performance became most horrible to behold...

This ceremony lasted two hours, and when the dance was over the participants were thoroughly exhausted...

It was supposed by some that the rattlesnakes had been rendered harmless by the extraction of their fangs...

Electric Bitters.

This remedy is becoming so well and so popular as to need no special mention. All who have used Electric Bitters sing the same song of praise.

Starting Facts.

The American people are rapidly becoming a race of nervous wrecks and the following suggests the best remedy: alphonso Humpfling, of Butler, Penn. swears that when his son was speechless from St. Vitus Dance...

It should be in Every House.

J. B. Wilson, 371 Clay St., Sharpsburg, Pa., says he will not be without Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds...

For many years Mr. B. F. Thompson, of Des Moines, Iowa, was severely afflicted with chronic diarrhoea. He says: "At times it was very severe; so much so, that I feared it would end my life."

Wonderful Success.

Two years ago the Haller Prop. Co. ordered their bottles by the box—now they buy by the carload. Among the popular and successful remedies they prepare is Haller's Sarsaparilla & Burdock...
