PERSONAL

S. White is in Omaha today.

J. Witte is in Omaha to-day on business trip.

Phelps departed last evening for a visit with his da.

H. C. Wheeler has returned from an extended visit to friends at Plattsmouth.

Henry Eikenbary and daughter were passengers on No. 3 Lincoln last evening.

Peck is transacting the business at the baggage room during the absence of Mr. Hollister from the city.

The Rip Van Winkle Co. will give a street parade by the Knickerbocker Cornet band.

The work at the court house is pressing, and ere long it will be established fact that Cass county is a court-room that will compare favorably with those of adjacent cities.

The greatest living Trick Dog trick must be seen to be appreciated, at the opera house to-morrow night; he takes a prominent part in the performances of Rip and his constant companion.

Mer Jewel, a young man whom you will remember as a new comer, and who recently went to Denver with a view of benefiting his health, has returned to Platts-smouth. It appears that the Denver air did not prove beneficial.

We are authorized to say that L.
Eickhoff is not a candidate for notary and will not accept the nomination. Mr. Eickhoff feels obliged to his friends who have expressed their support and urged his candidacy and duly appreciates all favors extended, but he feels that he cannot accept the nomination and do justice to his business interests.

B. W. Rockford has purchased from his former partner, L. E.
Rowe, his interest in the shooting gallery and is now running the concern on his own hook. He appears to be doing a profitable business.

H. C. McMaken, our genial friend, was a passenger for Lincoln this morning. He goes principally to attend a reunion of his old regiment but he is too patriotic a citizen to miss visiting the state fair before returning.

THE HERALD has succeeded in securing the services of a special correspondent from the city schools by the aid of whom we shall be able to keep our readers informed in regard to happenings at the schools.
The first column of notes appear in to-day's issue. Doubtless they will continue to increase in interest as the term progresses. Patrons of the schools are always desirous of learning as to school work and THE HERALD shall endeavor to keep abreast of the times in the matter.

Mrs. L. C. Becker, who met with the misfortune of having her house and household goods swept by flames last spring near Union, has now under construction a mansion that will be a credit to Liberty precinct. The main building itself is 34x36 with a rock cellar, and will be two story's with all modern conveniences. The building is being built of brick that are shipped to Union from the steam brick yard at Nebraska City. It is expected to be completed by Oct. 15.

J. M. Gallaher, traveling freight and stock agent for the M. P. road made the HERALD office a pleasant call this morning. He informs us that trains will be running regularly from Plattsmouth making connections at Union for St. Joe, Kansas City, St. Louis, and Weeping Water, and Lincoln. Thus parties desiring to visit points in either direction from Union will be accommodated by the M. P. See the time card in another column. In the event of any changes in the time-card our readers will be informed in regard to it.

Weeping Water Republican Clippings Tuesday's Bee in speaking about the Union cut-off of the Mo. Pacific road, says that "commencing last Sunday a mixed train will leave Plattsmouth at 10:55 a. m. and arrive at Union in one hour. Returning it will leave Union at 3 p. m. arrive at Plattsmouth at 4 p. m.
The distance between stations is 14.9 miles. This service is not quite so good as the Plattsmouthites expected but they may in months to come get better accommodation.

Fred Gorder returned from Plattsmouth last week. He is undecided yet whether he will remain here permanently or not, as business requires his attention in Plattsmouth. If he decides to return to the latter place he will probably sell out. Fred has many friends here that would regret to see him leave and hope matters may be so arranged that his business will continue here under his supervision.
This is certainly a good paying point, equal if not better than Plattsmouth.

HIGH SCHOOL COLUMN.

PATRIC GIVE AWAY.

Misses Luella Mathews and Mabel Hayes favored the high school with a pleasant visit Tuesday afternoon.

That was a lovely bouquet that Prof. Barr gave to the assistant principal Wednesday noon, wasn't it?

We have not been able to get down to solid work this week on account of a delay in getting the text books. They are all in now and work will progress in earnest next week.

The time for closing will be 4:00 o'clock, p. m., every day, Friday included. This does not please the majority of the scholars, who have been accustomed to being dismissed at 3:00 o'clock on Friday.

Few notes could be gathered this week on account of the rush of work, but we present these hoping they will be of interest to the reader and promising to do what we can to make the notes more interesting each succeeding week.

There is to be a flag raising next week at the high school to which the public is invited. An appropriate program will be rendered and a beautiful ten foot American flag will be raised above the building while the entire school will sing "The Star-Spangled Banner." The date will be announced in THE HERALD.

To-day closed the first week of the school term beginning Sept. 1, 1891—a term which bids fair to be one of the most, if not THE most, successful terms in the history of the Plattsmouth Educational Advances. The buildings are all in good condition, the pupils ambitious, the teachers energetic, and the management enterprising—a combination that cannot fail of success.

It is a fact that we are to have a good base ball club in connection with the school, called the High School Nine. We wouldn't be surprised if, next year, Prof. McClelland would invite some other school (say the Nebraska City schools) over to enjoy a field day with us, in which event our club would be kind enough to "show them how to play ball." We will announce the names of the boys who compose the club when the organization is perfected.

The high school building is to be provided with signal flags before the close of next week. A square, white flag, with blue center, will be the signal to "get ready," and will be hoisted about 8:30 o'clock. A few minutes before 9:00 o'clock a "danger" signal will go up. It will be a square, red flag, with white center, which will apprise the pupils of the fact that they have but a very short time in which to get to school. Then at 9:00 o'clock the royal star-spangled banner will wave over the school, which will mean, of course, that all's well.

The school opened Monday with an enrollment of 293. At the opening of last year's term the total enrollment was 775, making a majority for this year of 65. The entire enrollment at the close of last term was 1200; so, the present rate of increase we may well expect to have at least 1450 pupils in the public schools before the end of the present term. Many of the old pupils of last term who expect to go to school again this year have not come in as yet, and, there are great numbers of new scholars coming in all the time. What we want is for the parents and the public in general to encourage the management by sending their children to school and speaking a good word for the school whenever the opportunity present itself; and then we may expect the "Young American" of Plattsmouth at least, to be well trained and prepared for the responsibilities of life before them.

B. F. Foster left this morning on
No. 5 for Denver and Salt Lake City.
He goes as a representative from this place as a delegate to the Irrigation Congress which meets in Salt Lake City next week. This is a commendable move, for irrigation will convert the almost barren spots of the west into profitable agricultural land, every opportunity to assist in the work should be used. It is probable that the conference will result in asking for an appropriation from the U. S. congress to carry out their plans.

Merry Wedding Bells.

One of the most pleasant events that has happened in Beaver City for some time was the marriage ceremony at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Harvey, Wednesday, Sept. 9, which was performed by Rev. J. G. A. Martin of the First Methodist church. The high contracting parties were Mr. Dio B.
Smith, of Plattsmouth, Neb., and Miss Clara A. Harvey, of this city.
Mr. J. D. Young and Miss Mary Smith, of Plattsmouth, acted as groomsmen and bridesmaids.

The groom is a bright and promising young man and a trusty employee of the locomotive department of the B. & M. R. R. at Plattsmouth, where the happy couple will reside in the future.

The bride is an accomplished young lady and is esteemed as such by all of her acquaintances. She is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
E. W. Harvey, a highly respected family.

The costumes worn were very elaborate, that of the bride, deserving special mention, which was of white faille, decorated with pearls, silk lace and orange blossoms.
That of the bridesmaid was also very pretty, consisting of cream serge, trimmed with cream valencie lace. The groom and groomsmen were dressed in plain black of the regulation style.

The ceremony was performed at high noon in the presence of about twenty-five invited guests. After congratulations all repaired to the dining room, where a bountiful table of delicacies had been prepared. Mr. and Mrs. Smith were the recipients of many very fine gifts of esteem, a list of which could not be obtained. The Tribune joins many friends in offering congratulations and well wishes.—Beaver Valley Tribune.

A Plattsmouth Visitor in Maine.

Mrs. M. M. Richardson, of this city, who is now visiting in Maine, sends us a copy of the Belfast Republican Journal with a marked article descriptive of a visit of one of Uncle Sam's new vessels to Belfast. The article demonstrates that our navy, while not as complete as that of other nations, is fully in keeping with the demands, and the vessels make a favorable impression upon those who behold them. We reproduce the article, which is as follows:

"The visit of the White Squadron is an event in the history of Belfast, and those who have witnessed the packed craft of Uncle Sam's new navy at anchor in our beautiful bay will always recall it with pleasure. Years hence our young people of to-day will tell to the little prattlers of that day how the stately ships steamed grandly past Tuffe Head and up the bay, and how all the populace turned out to welcome them; of the visits to the ships, these wonders of modern construction, with their death-dealing batteries and explosives, their intricate machinery, and the many devices new and strange to those familiar with the now obsolete wooden ships. The latter, however, are still dear to patriotic Americans who love to recall their victories over foreign foes, and names of the heroes who trod their decks. Conditions have changed, but there has been no change in American valor, and should occasion arise the new navy will not be found wanting in men or metal.

"Our little city did its best in the way of entertaining its distinguished guests; but over and above the slight courtesies extended we trust they felt in some degree the cordial welcome in every heart.
We are a sea faring people; deep water sailors many of us; the single town of Seaport alone furnishing about one third of the commanders of the American ships afloat to-day.
The mariners of Waldo county have carried the flag to every foreign port and have met our men-of-war on every sea. Some are naval veterans of the civil war; while as to our ladies, it is but natural that they should 'dearly love a sailor.' It would be strange then if the visit of the White Squadron was not appreciated as it deserves, and as highly as in any other part of the country; and we think there can be no question but that is the fact.

We are glad to hear that our bay and our city favorably impressed the visitors. Indeed, they were more than complimentary, and we think every citizen of Belfast holds his head just a little higher to-day because of the encomiums pronounced upon which he has inwardly felt to be about the best place on earth, and the handsomest bay in the world. If thus an additional stimulus has been given to local pride no harm has been done, and we are sure that the object lessons in patriotism afforded by the nation's defenders will not be lost upon our young America."

ceived a fine line of imported tooth
