To-night—Rip Van Winkle.
Special scenery for Rip Van Winkle to-night. Don't fail to see it.

The way to make Plattsmouth boom is to patronize home industries.
Messrs. James Ruby, S. J. Long and Jess McVey from near Murray are in the city to-day.

Hon. Anderson Root, of Union, is in the city to-day. Mr. R. has a load of very fine apples, of the Maiden blush variety.
There will be divine service in the Presbyterian church on next Sabbath at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Sabbath School at 9:30 a. m. Y. P. S. C. E. at 7 p. m.

There will be a meeting of the board of directors of the Y. M. C. A. this evening at 8 o'clock in the rooms. All officers requested to be present.
The relatives of Mesdames Wash Smith and C. M. Butler, who came from Benton Harbor, Mich., to attend the funeral of Mrs. L. R. Skinner, departed for home this morning.

A fine train load of Texas cattle passed through this morning for Chicago. There are a great many western ranges being shoved to market this season to the detriment of our farmers that raise cattle on a smaller and more expensive scale.

The Rip Van Winkle Co. is in the city as per announcement, and apparently the troupe is worthy the patronage of theatre going people. The company supports a good band and the music upon the street made a very favorable impression.

We glean from our exchanges that the public schools through the state commenced Monday, and reports are encouraging from every quarter. It has become a recognized fact that our school system is gradually improving and the interest in this important factor of intellectual progress, is increasing. Let us maintain educational advantages, in keeping with our general advancement.

S. L. Furlong shipped by express to-day a pig sick with the cholera, to Mr. Frank S. Billings, of Lincoln, Nebraska. This pig is to be used for the manufacture of hog cholera virus, to inoculate well hogs to prevent them from having the cholera in the regular way. Mr. Furlong inoculated fifty head of hogs last fall, and it proved such a success with him that he intends to inoculate again this fall. Mr. Furlong has made arrangements for obtaining virus, and can inoculate for any one wishing to do so at a very reasonable price.

Some people have a false modesty about telling an editor personal items relating to themselves. For instance, you leave the town on a visit, but modesty prevents you from making it known to the editor, fearing he will think you love to see your name in print. You go, no one knows it, a half dozen friends call on you while absent, which would have been trouble for nothing saved, if the item had been published. If you have guests, let it be known through the paper, so your mutual friends may have an opportunity to visit said guests. How often do you hear: "Was she here? Oh! I am so sorry I did not know it, I have been wanting to see her so much." But your false modesty prevented the news from becoming known. To give the news is one object of a newspaper.—Ex.

Commissions Proceedings.
PLATTSMOUTH NEB, Sept. 11 1891.
Board met pursuant to adjournment, present A. B. Todd and Jacob Tritsch, county commissioners and Bird Critchfield, county clerk, when the following was done to-wit:

Petition by J. F. Back and others for the change of the precinct line between Liberty and Nehawka precincts was taken up and after due consideration by the board it was decided to change the said line and locate the same west one-half mile from its present location, and on the section line between sections 3, 4, 9, 10, 15, 16, 21, 22, 27, 28, 33 and 34, this being the line between road districts No. 40 and 41 and 58 and 59.

The following bills were allowed:
A. B. Todd, sal and ex. $ 21 00
City Treas, paying lot 7 blk 30 76 74
C. D. Dundas, b'ldg bridge 323 00
Neb Tel Co, rent less mes by sheriff 32 85

Board then adjourned till Monday Sept. 14. BIRD CRITCHFIELD, County Clerk.

Democrats to Resolve.
It is conceded that a certain delegate to the Weeping Water convention from Plattsmouth contemplates introducing a resolution censuring ex-Governor Boyd for his veto of the Newberry bill, and it is expected that a lively time will be had, as a great majority of the party members sustain and propose to stand by the party record. A few of the vote catches and platform formers, however, realize an opportunity to induce a few third party men into their ranks, by thus pledging democratic support. The result is awaited with considerable interest by our local politicians of all parties.

Make a Display.
Make a display of something at the fair next week. Bring your best calf, sheep, cow, colt, sheep, rooster, horse, goose, pumpkin, corn, cabbage, vegetables and grain of all kinds; needle work, luscious fruit, pretty flowers, fine pictures, handsome babies—in fact, collect everything that will show the advantages of Cass county generally, and your own enterprise and ability, particularly. Let us show to adjacent counties—Douglas, for instance—that Cass has the advantages and she does not hesitate to place them on exhibition. Cass need not take a back-seat for any of them if our people will put forth an effort to make a display in keeping with the times and commensurate with surroundings.

Watch His Delivery.
Norman Baker, the ex-pitcher of the Omaha team, has quit the diamond and blossomed forth behind the footlights as a full fledged opera singer. He joined the Garrow Opera company the first of the week and may be seen nightly bringing up the rear in the march of the chorus. Norman is an old-time singer and possesses a voice of no mean quality. He is capable of better things than being a chorus singer and will soon rise above that position.—Bee.

The Democrats Meet.
The M. P. ran a special train to Weeping Water to accommodate the delegates to the county convention which meets there to-day. An excellent opportunity was thus afforded our citizens to take a pleasure trip over the new road, and quite a number availed themselves of the opportunity. We predict and bespeak for our democratic friends a pleasant trip a humdrum convention and a safe return after the deliberations.

A New Enterprise.
We have received a sample copy, vol. 1, No. 1 of The New Era, at the enterprising little village of South Bend, by J. W. Berge. The New Era is a six column folio, replete with interesting reading matter and upon the whole presents a very creditable appearance. THE HERALD bespeaks for its editor a pleasant and profitable career in his chosen vocation.

Card of Thanks.
Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Butler and Mr. and Mrs. Wash Smith desire to extend their thanks to the many friends and neighbors for the kind sympathies shown them during the sickness, death and burial of their beloved mother.

ELMWOOD ITEMS

FROM THE ECHO.
The Echo still lives, and will be on earth when some of the chronic kickers are planted under the sod.

Miss Sadie Bird commenced the fall term of school eight miles north of Elmwood Monday morning. Miss Bird is right at home in the school room and will give good satisfaction.

J. G. Tate, grand master workman of the A. O. U. W. will be here Friday Set. 18, to deliver a speech upon the benefit and working of the order. He is an orator of wide reputation and draws large crowds where ever he goes. It will be a public affair and everybody invited.

But few, if any towns in Nebraska the size of Elmwood can boast of as much good substantial sidewalk as this town can. By actual measurement there is to-day in the village of Elmwood 19,175 feet of walk. This is equal to two miles in length, or an aggregate of 9,875 square feet. Until we hear from some other part we shall claim to have the most sidewalk of any village in Nebraska.

A Newspaper that takes any interest in politics is expected to do all the dirty work for the party it advocates, and receive all the abuse and loss of patronage on account of its manifestation. When the battle is over and the victory won the newspaper man is lost sight of and is not remembered until another campaign begins to boil. This thing of being yanked around by political bosses is too old a song for this advanced season.

Good News for Plattsmouth.
Prof. C. C. Ewing, partner and proprietor of the Omaha Business College, has sold his interest there, and will open up in our city a first class business training school, the following branches will be taught: Shorthand and type writing book-keeping penmanship arithmetic business forms calculation etc. English branches to foreigners. Prof. Ewing's teacher of superior ability as can be substantiated by the number of students here who have attended the Omaha college. The school will open Monday Sept. 21st in the Sherwood block on Main street.

The Ladies of the M. E. church will give a social at the home of Mrs. S. P. Holloway, one-half mile south of town on Chicago avenue, next Tuesday evening, the 15th. Will try and have teams enough for all who may want to go; start from the church. Every body invited. The last social for this conference year.

Cass County Next.
Now that the Nebraska City Exposition and the state fair are closed and everybody made happy, let us all prepare for the next great attraction—THE CASS COUNTY FAIR. Don't forget that all entries—except for the speed ring—must be made by the 13th inst.

If you want to see nice clean and well made up clothing you should go to JOE and look his stock over.

The Omaha Bee of to-day contains a special to the effect that the U. S. supreme court has rendered a decision in the Boyd-Thayer contest favorable to Boyd. The telegram is not confirmed as yet, authoritatively, and it is probably without foundation.
