Mr. Reid has been preaching for the Christian church in this city for the past three years, and as he contemplates taking a visit to his native state, for a short time, has resigned his position as pastor of the church in this city—much to the regret of the citizens and members of his church. A cordial invitation is extended to all to come out and hear his last sermon.

A meeting of the executive board of the eastern association of the G. A. R. department of Nebraska, consisting of the counties of Lancaster, Cass, Saunders and Sarpy, was held at Greenwood, Neb., on Monday, Sept. 21, 1891, for the purpose of completing the organization.

Comrade J. B. Ferguson, of Farquhar Post, No. 25, Lincoln, president of the association, presided.

The following members of the board were present:

S. B. Hall, commander of Bob McCook Post, No. 31, Ashland; I. A. Tinkham, commander Mission Ridge Post, No. 149, Greenwood; Mrs. S. C. Van Doren, president Mission Ridge W. R. A motion prevailed allowing visiting members of the G. A. R., W. R. C. and S. of V. to take part in the proceedings.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and accepted, after which the location of the next reunion of the district was considered.

By vote the reunion for 1892 was located at Greenwood.

It was then decided that the reunion should last four days, the first to be devoted to S. of V., the second to W. R. C., the third to G. A. R., and the fourth to all the orders combined.

For the purpose of forming a sinking fund for the association, in case of losses, the following persons pledged their posts for the amounts set opposite their names:

THE WORK WELL DONE.

A. M. Post, of Platte, for Supreme Judge.

An Enthusiastic, Harmonious Convention—A Genuine Republican Platform Adopted and a Strong Ticket Named.

For Supreme Judge..... A. M. POST
For Reps..... CHARLES MARPLE
..... H. P. SHUMWAY

As was expected, the deliberations of the republican convention which met at Lincoln yesterday were characterized by prudence, honesty and a thorough desire to act for the best interest of the party. The delegates represented the rank and file of the republican party and the result is a ticket upon which the members of the party can unite and the adoption of a genuine republican platform.

At 11:25 the meeting was called to order by Chairman Watson of the state central committee who in addressed the convention in a short enthusiastic speech. Geo. H. Thunnel of Grand Island was selected as chairman, and Wait, Seely was made secretary.

Resolutions were adopted sending greeting to the republicans in Ohio.

The platform is a genuine republican one and can not fail to bring into the fold, many who have temporarily wandered into by paths.

It expresses high regard for President Harrison and approves his administration; approves the courageous act of the last congress which coins the product of the American mines, but denounces the "free and unlimited" policy as set forth by the democratic party; approves the tariff legislation of the last congress and heartily favors the reciprocity clause and its effect in opening foreign markets for our products; demands an equitable adjustment of freight rates, fair alike to the consumer, the shipper and the railroads; denounces the democratic state platform as framed to deceive the votes, and it closes by appealing to the intelligence and integrity of all good people for support of the party nominees. The platform is truly republican and gives general satisfaction.

The candidates for supreme judge were then nominated. The first ballots gave Reese the lead, with Cobb following closely and Post in the rear. On the second ballot Cobb went two votes ahead of Reese. In the 3rd ballot Post gained considerably though he was still in the rear. In the fourth and decisive ballot Post received the necessary 287 votes.

On motion he was unanimously declared the nominee of the convention.

Messrs. C. H. Marple, of Douglas, and H. P. Shumway, of Dixon, were unanimously nominated regents of the University. Each of these gentlemen are college bred men and well qualified for the position to which they have been chosen.

The ticket gives almost universal satisfaction to the party, and delegates and defeated candidates return to their homes enthusiastic for the nominees and sanguine of party success.

In the campaign of 1890 the Weeping Water Eagle went wild on prohibition and the smell of whiskey caused the silly editor to foam like a mad cur; but observe the action of this would-be moulder of public opinion. Read his description of the independent candidate for judge. He holds up the little sawed off Barr as an ornament to the judiciary. We believe that the citizens of Cass county will say by their vote that the dignity of the court must be preserved and they will demand that Cass county judge be a man of ability and sound judgment; and we believe that this independent candidate who has had his little carcass soaking in whiskey during his residence in Cass county, will be knocked higher than Gilroy's kite in the round up, and for a "Prohib." to hold up an inebriate for county judge is more than we can figure out.—Louisville Courier Journal.

Attend the meeting of the Business Men's Association at K. of P. hall to-night.

Cass County Medical Association.
We clip the following report of a meeting of the Cass County Medical Society from the Weeping Water Republican:

"Pursuant to a call a county convention of the legalized medical practitioners, the following doctors met in the office of Drs. Hall & Hungate: Drs. Thomas Davis, Fate, Hobbs, Haughey, Pollard, Butler, Hall and Hungate.

"Dr. Hobbs, was elected President and Dr. Hungate secretary.

"Remarks relative to the purpose the society were made by Drs. Hobbs, Thomas, Pollard, Butler, Hall, Fate, Haughey and Hungate. "Moved and carried that it be the sense of this meeting that we organized a County Medical society for mutual benefit and protection, and the president of this meeting is authorized to appoint a committee of five to draft a constitution and by-laws and submit the same to this society for action at our next meeting.

"Moved and carried that a committee of five be appointed to formulate a fee bill for presentation at the next meeting of the society.

"Committee on Constitution and By-laws: Drs. Hungate, Haughey, Pollard, Hall and Thomas.

"Committee on Fee Bill: Drs. Hobbs, Hall, of Plattsmouth, Wallace, Norris, Butler.

"It is the sense of this meeting that voluntary contributions of a scientific nature be asked for from the legalized practitioners for next meeting and the topic to be sent in to the secretary.

"Society adjourned to meet in Plattsmouth Oct. 20th, at 1 p. m.

N. K. Hobb, Chairman.
Jas. B. HUNGATE, Sec'y.

An editor is a man. He can bear more ridicule than any other man dead or alive, and never dies in a thematic asylum. They often die in poverty as well as in jail. There are many kinds of editors—rich, poor, handsome, homely, good, bad, ignorant, shrewd, barbaric, civilized, lying, snake, city, managing, telegraphic and many other kinds. Then there is the fighting editor. Many good citizens go to the office to get their hair combed. They generally get it, and then sue the editor for libel and pay the cost.—Ex.

Mr. Ben Frans had the misfortune to lose one of his horses, last Monday. While his sons were using them they had to drive near six or seven hives of bees, when one of the swarms was accidentally disturbed, and upon their making an unusual hum the other swarms gathered in from their hives and made a ferocious attack upon the team and driver. After considerable difficulty the team was unhitched from the load and it was not until they were led into the brush that the bees could be whipped off them. It seems that some of the bees got into one horse's mouth and stung it so as to cause the throat to swell shut, thereby causing its death.—Union Ledger.
