Juge Post is a man that will unite all sections into one aggressive stronghold.

The election of Edgerton would not only be a disgrace to the state but a public calmity.

Indication point to the election of their republican county and state ticket by creditable majorites.

THE republican party is very anxious to settle the quest of party supremacy, with the democratic party, on the issues of free silver and free trade:

In selecting a district judge there should be no hesitancy between an able jurist and a political shyster. Our courts of justice should not be tampered with by elevating incompetent men to the position of chief tribunal.

THE DISTRICT JUDGE SHIP

It is a suprise to nearly an the democratic convention should nominate Travis for the judge-ship, in view of the fact that the party has within its ranks men possessing better qualifications, and men capable of poling a much larger grace the position with becoming dignity, and the position could not receive the respect, from the bar at large, justly due. Mr. Travis is everywhere regarded as a eronic office seeker; a member of no paris an opportunity to feed at the public trough; not a man who desires to attain positions through the avenue of true merit, but rather by wire pulling and other resorts to thwart the true will of the people. In view of this it would not only be an injustice to the citizens of the district, but it would be a disgrace to Cass county to have this ignoramus elected to the position.

THE HERALD believes that our people have too much respect for the citizens of Otoe county and think too much of their own credit to vote for such a man even tho ugh he has been forced upon the party as the most available man.

We are confident that the better element of voters of all parties will vote for Judge Chapman, a man who possesses every essential element for a popular judge as indicated by his record in the past. We cannot afford to dispense with the services of a man who has been weighed in the ballance and not dry Persian insect powder, putting in foundswanting and elevate to this little at a time, and pressing it down position un incompetent, inexperienced lawyer and a chronic office

Mr. C. B. Jones, of Spring Hill. Jowa, says: "I have used Chamber bain's Pain Balm for severe and rainful burns with better effect than anything have ever tried. It relieves the pain instantly and cares without leaving a scar." noward J. Cone, who for the past yes has been the agent of the Southern Perific Railroad company at Salton, is all nonie in South Pasadens on a leave of absence for a few weeks. A reporter at joyed a talk with him about the Spiton sea, or take, that has named so much in terest throughout the country.

Mr. Cone says a temperature of 118 and 120 degs in the shade is quite aregular and common thing at Salton but that the few white people about the station and salt works manage to stand it tretty well. They prespire profusely and drink enormously, all the water used at the station bridge brought from up the road by rail. They find that mixing estimate with the water is nourtaining and that it prevents illness. Despite the great heat, sectionmen work out in the lot sun regularly, but, with the exception of the boss, they are Mexi-

Mr. Cone brought up some excellent opographs of the lake, the station and he submerged salt works, from different soints of view. He says the inflow and the evaporation of the water about coun terbalance each other, and that there fore the level of the lake remains about the same, although the wind sometimes os ties floating debris back and forth in a way to lead to the belief that the water rising or falling. He believes it likely that the basin will continue to fill up from the Colorado river to a level with the gulf, and that it will be a permanent body of water, with the Colorado flowing through it to the gulf.

The salt deposits are entirely under water, and that industry is ruined. The warehouse and a small portion of the Southern Pacific's track running beyond the sait beds are still above the level of the lake, but the main track is still 1,000 feet or more from its banks.-Pasadena Cal. \ Star.

The Waif of Wounded Knee.

On the through train which arrived over the Rock Island route was a party of editors from Des Moines, Council Bluffs, Omaha, Lincoln, Beatrice and Fairbury. They breakfasted at the Albany and were entertained by the governor and mayor.

In the party was a fifteen-months-old indian baby, which was found upon the battlefield of Wounded Knee after the defeat of the Sloux by United States troops. It has been adopted by Mrs. Colby and was christened Zintke Lanuni which means in the Sioux tongue the waif of the field of Wounded Knee. It was on the fourth day after the battle that the child was found beside its dead mother. Its feet and one side of its fac were frozen.

It was given in care of an Indian woman to nurse and soon showed no trace of its exposure and suffering. Mrs. Colby obtained permission to adopt the child, but she was hidden by the Indians and it was only by dint of bribery that its whereabouts was discovered. The indians were given orders on the post trader, and while they were making purchases she was smuggled out of camp and driven to the nearest railway station, and thence taken to Beatrice, Ne

Saving Best in the City.

"To Let" signs on fists and houses all over the city are coming down with the returning rush from mountain and sea-The number of returning families who are hiring new dwelling places mer rents which is increasing in popularity each year as the summer vacations tengthen. Families which expect to be out of the city from two to three months now surrender their leases on May 1, put their furniture in storage, go to a boarding house for the four or six vote. He is not a man that would weeks before the country pilgrimage begins, then return in September or Octoper and hire a new dwelling place. In this way they save at least four, and in some cases five months' rent, $125 to $200, toward their summer outing

Real estate men will tell you that it is almost impossible to rent flats or houses ticular political party, unless there in the summer at any price. I know one man who gave up an attractive flat on May 1 for an outing in the mountains, who will find the same home swept and garnished for him at the landlord's expense on his return in October.—Brook-lyn Eagle.

Globular Lightning.

A curious thunderbolt fell at Berga near Schlieben, in Germany, recently. It appeared to be a ball of fire and came down the chimney of a bedroom in which a man, his wife and three children were sleeping. On emerging from the fireplace it broke into two parts, each of which assumed a globular form. One of these globes ran along the rafters and disappeared, while the other traveled toward the bed, on which it after ward jumped. Thence the man watched it roam around the room and finally disappear through the wall with a loud crash. None of the occupants was injured further than being temporarily desferred.-New York Recorder

It Vines Mosquitoes. To clear the room of mosquitoes take a piece of paper rolled around a lead pen cil to form a case, and fill this with very with a pencil. Set this cigarette in a cup of sand to hold it erect. An hour before going to bed close the room and set the cigarette on fire. One will be sufficient for a small room, but for a large room two will be required .- Detroit Free Press.

Impervious to Cold. A professor of the Paris Academy de es has been making experiments, which have resulted in convincing him that the rabbit is, of all living things, the most capable of wishstanding a very low temperature. Inclosed all night in a block of ice, a rabbit was found next day getting on very comfortably and avidently not aware of anything very guiliar in his circumstances. Now York Journal

An incident that is narrated of Genscal McClellan sheds hight on the quesdiers love him so dearly? When the Army of the Potomac left Harrison Landing it marched to New port News, along the north bank of the ames river. The advance division b gan its murch early in the morning o Ang 15, but the rear division did no move out or samp until 4 o'clock in the afternoon of the same day. Just at dusk a creek was reached, must be crossed, according to southern custom, by fording or by a single tog by the susdaide. The soldiers, disliking to fill their shoes with water, were try ing to cross on this single log, which o course caused an obstruction to those behind, and really put the rear of the army in danger

Soon several officers rode up and took in the situation. There was need of more haste. One of the officers called

"Wade right through, my men; wade right through.

Some surly fellow from the ranks growled out: "Wade through yourself, and see how you like it." No sooner had he spoken than the officer dismounted and waded through the creek. It was then discovered that Clellan. The soldiers gave him a hearty cheer, plunged into the creek, and afterward the point was passed more rapidly four abreast.

the officer was General George B. Mo

The general might have reprimanded the soldier-indeed, he might have had him arrested and dealt with severely But under the circumstances he did just the right thing—he went where he saked his men to go; and his men were glad to go where he led .- Youth's Companion

A shipload of fine horses was con signed from Calcutta to Bombay, under the charge of a very honest but some what dull agent in the employ of an East India company. While the horses were being landed at the slip, they managed to break away from the men in charge, and ran like wild animals through the the city.

The agent caught one of them, and, mounting him. gave chase. After several hours of exciting work, with th belp of his men, he had captured all but one of the borses, as be counted them.

Finally he made his reluctant way to the superintendent's office to give an account of the matter The superintend-ent came to the door and listened to the

And you say there were 124 horses in and you have eighty of them in the company's stables and forty-three back in the steamer temporarily?

"Yes, sir; all safe but one, and we cannot find him anywhere." "What is that horse you are riding? Have you counted him?" asked the super-

"Well, I am an ass? Of course this is one of 'em!" And the agent rode off in disgust, while the superintendent roared with laughter. - London Tit-Bits.

Superstitions Signs.

Two well known and energetic Detroit merchants, who, though rivals in busi ness, are good friends and fond of each other's society, were coming down town one morning and the conversation turned upon popular superstitions, when one of them stepped off the sidewalk to avoid passing under a ladder.

What did you do that for?" asked the one who walked right along under it. "I don't know exactly." replied the other doubtfully

"Superstitions, I suppose."

"I suppose so."
"Well," banteringly, "I'm not that kind. I don't believe in signs and what

"No kind?" with a faint smile. "Nary a sign." with confidence.

"I thought so." "Why did you say that?"

"Because I think so, that's why. And so would any other man who read that great big sign you've got up over your store inscribed, "The Best Goods in Town for the Least Money."

"Oh!" laughed the other one, and he took him in behind the first Indian they met and gave him a fine cigar as a brain tonic.-Detroit Free Press.

How, Where and When Accidents Occur. To the question as to when, where, and how accidents occur, the only general answer that can be given is: When they are least expected. The commer cial traveler who insures because he is exposed to danger while on the rail draws indemnity for an injury received while winding a clock. The dentist who endeavors to protect himself against possible personal injury while using his tools is disabled by a cinder in his eye. It is to be noted, however, that more accidents in proportion to population ocwest than in the northern, the middle and the eastern states. The older and more closely settled portions of the country are the safer ones. As to the times and seasons, midwinter, with its loy sidewalks, and midsummer, with its great variety of outdoor occupations, are especially prolific of accidents.— James R. Pitcher in Forum.

Sawfishes belong to the order of rays, although their bodies have the shape of ordinary fishes. They swim wholly with their tails, and the long weapons which adorn their noses are merely proongations of the snout, armed on either side with teeth in sockets and covered with rough skin of great toughness. With this formidable instrument they attack their prey, tearing pieces of flesh from its body or ripping open the abdo-men to feed upon the intestines of the victim. There is something positively abnormal about all these creatures called rays. They suggest the notion of fishes antediluvian, and it is not surprising to find many large and extinct specie among the fossile of vanished epochs.-Interview in Washington Star.

7 per cent money for persons wishing to build in South

Park.

Look to the Future and invest now in South Park. THE OPPORTUNITY OF A

Among other reasons why it is better to invest in South Park than elsewhere in the city, are these:

LIFE TIME.

Property is more saleable if you wish to sell, more rentable if you wish to rent; if looking for an increase in value, no other part of the city will compare with it in prospect

The 5th ward composed largely of South Park, less than three years ago could hardly muster up a vote at the last general election the vote was 139 and all were not polled. It has been less than two years since the city invited us into the corpor ate limits, yet we have over one hundred newly built house ond others in process of construction, owned. with few exceptions, by the parties now living in them.

This part of the city has a store water mains, electric arc lights, church and school priveledges and a new church edifice just erected of which the whole city is proud.

Plattsmouth's steady growth for five years past almost doubling its population; the advance stand it has taken regarding public improvements, the certainty of a new $80,000 court house; the completion of the great Missouri Pacific railway into this city, giving us another great trunk line and competing market; the constant increasing pay roll of the C. B. & Q. shops, together with many other well known reasons, assure a steady and permanent advance in realty, which will doubtless effect South Park more favorably than any other portion of Plattsmouth.

With a view to the encouragement of a still greater growth of this part of the city, me will continue to sell lots on monthly payments, furnish money with which to erect houses will exchange lats for other improved city property or for desirable improved or unimproved lands. It is not so much the speculator as the permanent resident that we wish to purchase this disirable property. Out of over RIGHTY pres ent owners of South property none are speculators hence there are no fictitous values and lots are selling at about the price they were immediatly after it was platted-a strong argument why the present is a most desirable time for investments. Much additional information regarding South Park may be had by calling at my office on Main street over Bank of Cass County.
