

ANYTHING to beat the republicans is the democratic watchword.

ALL parties must admit that the state ticket named by the republicans is positively better than that of the demo-at-independent combination.

THE voters of Nebraska should not leave the fight wholly in the hands of the newspapers. Every republican should do a great deal of individual work.

G. CLEVELAND Esq., is supporting the straight democratic ticket this year in the N. Y. campaign. It appears that he and Hill are coming together at right.

OUR democratic contemporaries do not say a great deal these days about that 25 per cent they propose that the government shall pay the silver kings for their silver product, in excess of the market price. The fact remains, nevertheless, that their platform favors just such legislation. Why have a plank in the platform that they are afraid to defend? It is better otherwise and appears much more honest.

THE majority of our democratic exchanges prefer Post to Edgerton. Byran comes in for his share of censure for intimating that the candidates for regents should with draw. The giddy congressman has been elevated to a position of responsibility by a mere accident and now, he cares little who is elected or what principals the candidates represent, if it is possible to beat the republican party.

S. H. Clifford, New Castle, Wis. was troubled with neuralgia and rheumatism, his stomach was disordered, his liver was affected to an alarming degree, appetite fell away and he was terribly reduced in flesh and strength. Three bottles of Electric Bitters cured him.

Edward Shepherd, Harrisburg, Ill., had a running sore on his leg of eight years' standing. Used three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven bottles Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and his leg is sound and well. John Speaker, Catawba, O., had five large fever sores on his leg, doctors said he was incurable. One bottle Electric Bitters and one box Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him entirely. Sold by F. G. Fricke & Co.

We want every mother to know that croup can be prevented. True croup never appears without a warning. The first symptoms is hoarseness, then the child appears to have taken cold or a cold may have accompanied the hoarseness from the start. After that a peculiar rough cough is developed, which is followed by the croup. The time to act is when the child first becomes hoarse; a few doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will prevent the attack. Even after a rough cough has appeared, the disease may be prevented by using this remedy as directed. For sale by F. G. Fricke & Co. Druggist.

Wonderful. E. W. Sawyer, of Rochester, Wis., a prominent dealer in general merchandise, and who runs several peddling wagons, had one of his horses badly cut and burned with a lariat. The wound refused to heal. The horse became lame and still notwithstanding careful attention and the application of remedies. A friend handed Sawyer some of Haller's Barb Wire Liment, the most wonderful thing ever saw to heal such wounds. He applied it only three times and the sore was completely healed. Equally good for all sores, cuts, bruises, and wounds. For sale by all druggists.

Found Her Lover in Prison. As Miss Nichols, of Buffalo, was visiting the penitentiary at Lincoln, Neb., in company with a relative, who is one of the executive officers of the state, the young lady uttered a scream on catching sight of one of the convicts at work in the harness shop. "Why, Mollie!" he ejaculated. She was about to mention his name in the same exclamatory manner when he suddenly said: "Molly, don't mention my name or you will betray my identity." The fellow is known as Frank Carroll, and is doing time for forgery. It has been learned that he was engaged to marry Miss Nichols, and came west to make his fortune, with the above results. The young lady is prostrated.—Cor. St. Louis Republic.

A Prehistoric Find. A mound containing the skeletons of several prehistoric people has been discovered on a farm near Carthage, Ill. The skeletons lay in all conceivable positions, and are supposed to be those of warriors who fell in battle. It is believed that the farm is the site of an ancient battlefield. The skeletons are of unusual size and the teeth in the skulls are larger than those of ordinary human beings. The authorities of Carthage college have received permission to explore the cave, and a noted antiquarian has been sent for to aid in the investigation.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Maurice Bernhardt, who is traveling with his wife in this country, is a rather handsome specimen of the Frenchman, with a tall, wiry physique, a clear olive complexion and a small dark mustache. He resembles his mother in the prominence of his features and is as exquisite in dress.

NEAT DRAPERY SCARF.

How It is Made, Unmistakable and Reputed, What Necessary. A handsome scarf for an easel, corner of mantle, bric-a-brac table or picture throw is here illustrated. It requires about one and one-fourth yards of China silk. Yellow, white, or terra cotta shade is pretty. Select whichever is most suitable for the place it is to ornament, and finish one end with bolting cloth embroidered or painted with flowers. It will require about one-third for one-half yard of bolting cloth. The design must be stamped upon it and if embroidered must be done in outline. They are much handsomer painted and can be done with oil tube paints.

There is a medium made expressly for the purpose of mixing the colors for wash painting, but a mixture of hard oil varnish and turpentine can be used with good results. Care must be taken not to have the paint thin enough to run in the fibers of the cloth, nor yet thick enough to be very stiff, or fill the meshes of the goods too much.

This kind of work bears washing, if done carefully. Do not rub soap directly on the painting, and I would not recommend bolting articles decorated in this manner. The painting is much more easily done if the fabric is tightly stretched on a frame, or pinned to a cloth that has been tacked to a board. It is best to select a rather bold design or one easily done, like wild roses which look very pretty on a terra-cotta scarf, or wisteria blossoms on white, or branches of oranges on yellow look very handsome; use the same colors as for plaques or panel, thinning them with the mixture of varnish and turpentine.

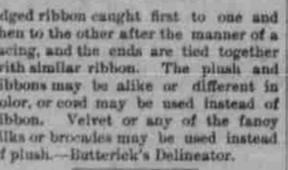

A handsome crocheted ring trimming completes the ends. The rings used are the common small brass curtain rings, one-half inch in diameter, which may be obtained at any hardware or fancy goods store for a few cents a dozen, and the material used for covering them is rope silk, coarse knitting silk or embroidery silk. To cover them, take the ring in the left hand between the thumb and forefinger, put the hook through the ring, draw the thread under, forming a loop over the needle; now put the hook over the ring, take up the thread and draw it through the loop. With the hook draw the thread through the ring, making two stitches on the needle; take up the thread and draw over the ring through these two stitches, then repeat the process from the beginning. The ring is simply covered with double crochet, worked closely together. For tassels or fringe cut a sufficient number of strands—more or less as you desire the tassels more or less thick—about five inches long, in a general way, put them through the covered ring, bring them down evenly and tie securely close to the ring, outside. If possible have the silk that is used to cover the rings the same color as the bolting cloth, and a beautiful scarf will be the result.—Home.

POSTAL CARD CASE

It consists of Two sections of Cardboard Covered with Plush. This engraving illustrates a pretty case for playing cards, postal cards, etc. It consists of two sections of cardboard—each the size of the cards—smoothly covered on both sides with reeased-green plush. The long edges of the sections are held together by loopedged ribbon caught first to one and then to the other after the manner of a lacing, and the ends are tied together with similar ribbon. The plush and ribbons may be alike or different in color, or cord may be used instead of ribbon. Velvet or any of the fancy silks or brocades may be used instead of plush.—Butterfield's Delineator.

OCTOBER 8, 1891

REPUBLICAN COUNTY TICKET

- For Clerk of the District Court: A. SALISBURY. For Treasurer: L. C. KICKHOFF. For Sheriff: GEO. EDSON. For County Clerk: FRANK DICKSON. For County Judge: CALVIN RUSSELL. For County Superintendent: J. E. LEYDA. For Coroner: J. L. UNRUH. For Surveyor: A. C. MAYES. For Commissioner First District: S. W. DUTTON.

THE REPUBLICAN PLATFORM

The republican party of the state of Nebraska gives renewed expression of its devotion to the principles of the republican party and declares that those principles, as expressed by the national republican convention, should be the strong point of union between all republicans in the state of Nebraska. We congratulate the people upon the marvelous prosperity attending the development and growth of the state of Nebraska during its twenty-four years of statehood under republican administration, and which has brought us to the front rank among the leading states of the union; and we can fearlessly assert that no state which has been controlled by democratic power, during any considerable time of the same period, can compare with us in the economical management of public affairs, in the rapid ratio of increase in population, wealth and general prosperity, notwithstanding the fact that there are within the borders of the state a number of dissatisfied persons who took advantage of the general financial depression which swept over the entire country to pave their way into temporary prominence by declaiming against the welfare of our people and slandering the fair name of our state. The rains from heaven and the rich soil, vigorously cultivated by the energetic hands of our farmers, have produced such bountiful crops and such unrivaled prosperity that shall silence all calumny talkers and add to the strength and enthusiasm of the republican party.

We congratulate President Harrison upon his eminently wise, loyal and courageous administration, and declare our absolute confidence in his integrity, ability and patriotism, and pledge him our cordial support in the discharge of the duties devolving upon him as the chief magistrate of the nation.

We rejoice in the restoration of dignity, vigor and statesmanship in the conduct of our foreign affairs under the guiding hand of America's favorite son, James G. Blaine.

We approve of the silver coinage act of the present administration, by which the entire product of the silver mines of the United States is added to the currency of the people, but we denounce the democratic doctrine of free and unlimited coinage of silver as a financial policy liable to precipitate the people of every city and every state in the Union in a prolonged and disastrous depression, and delay the revival of business enterprise and prosperity so ardently desired and now so apparently near. The free and unlimited coinage of silver would tend to the hoarding of gold and to force the use of cheap money in the payment of wages in every workshop, mill, factory, store and farm, and tend to the scaling down of the wages of the toilers and weakening the purchasing power of the dollar which would be used to purchase the products of the farmer. We are in favor of having every dollar as good as any other dollar.

We demand the maintenance of the American system of protection to American industry and labor, the policy that has been identified with every period of our national prosperity.

We admire the genius of that heroic statesman, William McKinley, Jr., whom the people of Ohio will make their next governor as a recognition of his magnificent services to the country. We also commend and endorse that policy of reciprocity by which the Central and South American nations and the Spanish Indies are being opened up to our trade upon favorable terms and by which all the surplus products of our country may find a market and by which all our people shall receive in exchange therefore a long line of products which do not produce ruinous competition

MCKINLEY TARIFF

The American Economist recently addressed 1,400 merchants in the different parts of the Union regarding the prices of articles in common use. By referring to authoritative statistics the prices of the same commodities during the free trade time 1857, September of last year and October of this year are given. It would be well to preserve the copy for the purpose of silencing the exponents of the would-be British monopolist. The statement is as follows:

Table with 4 columns: Articles, 1857, Oct. 1891, Diff. Includes items like 'AX', 'Blinding twine', 'Blackberry', 'Blue staining', 'Boots', 'Calico', 'Carpet', 'Cotton gloves', 'Cotton Hoopery', 'Cotton knit goods', 'Cotton thread', 'Crawling', 'Dressings', 'File', 'Fork', 'Flannel', 'Fruit cans', 'Gingham', 'Hand saw', 'Hemp rope', 'Linen', 'Mowing machine', 'Nails', 'Oleoth', 'Overalls', 'Pearl buttons', 'Pink paper', 'Pump', 'Rake', 'Rake, hand', 'Reamer and binder', 'Rubber boots', 'Sail, brl', 'Shoes', 'Sheeting', 'Shovel', 'Spade', 'Starch', 'Sugar hat, good', 'Sugar hat, com', 'Sugar, lb, gran', 'Sugar, lb, brown', 'Tie, silk', 'Tie, wool', 'Ticking', 'Wagon', 'Washboard', 'Wash tub', 'Wheelbarrow', 'Wood nails', 'Woolen clothing'.

After the prohibitionists hold their convention every voter ought to be able to find a suitable man. They had better endorse Edgerton, however, as the republicans feel strong enough to down everything this year.

KEEP your eye on McKinley.
