PLATTSBURGH, NEBRASKA. SATURDAY OCTOBER 10 1891

NUMBER 25

PERSONAL

Chas. Decker and family went to Omaha to-day.

Mrs. M. Waybright was a passenger for the west this morning.

S. A. Davis and two children left to-day for a short visit abroad.

R. B. Windham with four children are visiting at Glenwood to-day.

Rev. L. F. Britt, accompanied by his son from Omaha, arrived this morning.

Mrs. Dr. Marshall, who has been visiting abroad, returned home this morning.

Mrs. Wm. Branter of Glenwood, Ia., came over this morning for a visit in the city.

Mr. Swency, an enterprising grave stone dealer of Omaha, is in the city on business.

Mrs. Kate Oliver, and daughter, George were passengers on No. 5 for Omaha this morning.

Chas. Fry and family, who have been visiting relatives in Clarinda, Ia., arrived home this morning.

Will Hyes, who has been absent from the city on a surveying expedition, returned home last evening.

C. A. Blackburn, a jeweler and watch-maker, late of Hastings, Ia., has opened a shop on Main street opposite the opera house.

A Birthday Party.

A pleasant social event occurred at the residence of Mrs. Safford on North Third street last evening, participated in by a number of young people, in honor of the seventeenth and eighteenth birthdays of Misses Maggie Safford and Elma Schmitmann, respectively.

The young people were accorded every liberty necessary to assure a social and enjoyable time and they improved the opportunity well. Several presents were offered as a token of esteem in which the young ladies are held by their associates. Refreshments of a high order were served. The following were present:

Misses Eva Smith, Lettie Smith, Elma Schmitmann, Lizzie Bibbie, Ada Bibbie, Clara Herold, Cora Schlegel, Alice Petersen, Maud Stichel, Maggie Safford, and Messrs. Geo. and Will Smith, Morris Crisman, Bartholomew Kirkham, Fred Schlegel, Otto Herold.

Notice.

At St. John's Catholic church there will be only one mass Sunday, and that at 9 o'clock.

If You Want

a cheap home, or a good investment, on good terms, attend the auction sale of all the real estate of the late J. V. Weckbach on Wednesday, Oct. 14, 1891, in front of the county judge's office.

F. R. GUTHMAN, Adm'r.

The Goldenes present "Our Bachelors" at the Opera House this evening.

Good Evening! Have you seen—Ah! there is no need of my saying anything further, I am sure you will hereafter use nothing but the Famous Blush of Roses for your complexion. Yours with best wishes, FLOKA A. JONES, South Bend, Ind. P.S. Call this eve please at O. H. Snyder and learn the particulars.

To Coal Consumers. All those that do not settle their last season's coal bills with me by the 10th of Oct. next will not expect to have any accommodations from me this season of course.

Office and yards 404 South Third street. Telephone, 13. I always try to have a full line of all grades of coal on hand.

TIMOTHY CLARK, Plattsburgh, Sept. 22, 1891.

HORRIBLE LYNCH LAW.

An Indignant Crowd of Citizens

TAKE THE LAW INTO THEIR HANDS.

Willing Hands Smash in Windows and Doors—Terrible Vengeance for a Terrible Crime.

In the streets of Omaha at 12 o'clock last night George Smith, a negro who criminally assaulted Lizzie Yeates, a five-year-old girl of that city, Wednesday afternoon, was hanged by an infuriated mob of citizens. Attempts were made to persuade the crowd to let the law deal with the culprit, but the mob answered with jeers and hisses. The doors and windows gave way under the pressure exerted by the battering rams and the terrified and trembling negro was taken from the jail, a rope tied about his neck and a strap to his feet, and dragged hastily to a telephone pole in front of Boyd's new opera house. The pole was quickly climbed and willing hands quickly threw the other end of the rope over a trolley wire and the victim, gasping for breath, was pulled to the top, where he suspended in the midnight air until pronounced dead.

It appears that this was not the first offense of which the victim was guilty, as he committed a similar assault at East Omaha last year. He was tried in a Council Bluffs court, but released on the grounds that the offense was committed on the Nebraska side of the line.

Immediately after the terrible act was completed a prominent man said: "Gentlemen, I am sorry such a thing as this has happened in our beautiful city, but we have children of our own."

Weeping Water Items.

Dr. Dearing of Wabash was in town Tuesday. Doc is working hard for the clerkship of the court.

Surveyor Mayes and Frank Dickson were callers Saturday. They came out to attend the meeting of the central committee.

Frank Masse has been looking for a team of horses that either strayed from his farm north of town or was stolen last Tuesday. As yet he is unable to get a trace of them.

Vol. L, No. 1, of the Elmwood Leader, edited by E. B. Root, has reached our table. The Leader is bright and newsy and starts out with a good patronage. The Republican will gladly exchange.

Dr. A. L. Root of Elmwood, an old resident of Cass county, died and was buried on Monday of this week. The doctor was a practitioner and business man of Weeping Water for a number of years, and was a prominent Mason.

Married.

At residence of the bride's father, Joseph Stambaugh, on Wednesday, October 7, 1891, by Rev. T. J. Penny, Mr. Albert Waybright, to Miss M. Josephine Stambaugh, both of Saunders county. There were quite a number of relatives and friends present. Mr. Waybright is the miller for the Ashland Mill and Electric Light company, and is highly esteemed by all who know him. The bride has lived here all her life, and is a most estimable young lady. The many friends of the happy couple join The Gazette in wishing them a long, happy and prosperous future. Mr. and Mrs. Waybright started shortly after the ceremony on a visit to Sioux City.

Ashland Gazette.

Mr. Waybright, a brother of Morgan Waybright of this city, and is well known by many here. The young couple came in last evening, spent a social time with friends, and departed for Omaha this morning.

Frank Dickson, of Plattsburgh, candidate on the republican ticket for county clerk, was in town last Saturday on his way home, from Weeping Water, where he had been attending the county central committee. Frank is a good, square republican and will poll a good vote.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

A fine collection of farm products and other staples have been sent from this place to be placed with Cass county's exhibit in the advertising train that leaves here on the 15th.

The Goldenes. The Goldenes troupe last evening presented the emotional drama "The Martyr," to a good audience, and from their manifestations of approval it was evident that the auditors were highly pleased. The plot, in which the wife of a highly influential family suffers divorce from her husband and banishment rather than betray the dishonor of her mother, affords opportunity for pathetic and soul-stirring passages, which the author has skillfully inserted, and the troupe presents in almost a faultless manner.

The orchestra is probably the finest that has ever appeared in the city, and they were frequently encored.

Union Item. Fleming, the barber, and Fleming, the harness maker, have leased the building the post office has been in, and have had it neatly refitted.

Am Smith and Miss Josie Pittman have each sent petitions to Uncle Sam, asking him to appoint them postmaster here.

The Ledger has moved into the room formerly occupied by the barber.

Miss Estella Travels visited in Plattsburgh Saturday and Sunday.

A. C. Mayes, present county surveyor and to be the next, was in town Monday, enroute for Elmwood.

John Tighe and H. D. Travis were in town Thursday looking over the political fare.

S. C. Patterson of South Bend was in our vicinity Thursday.

W. S. Hare left Thursday for a few days' visit in the western part of the county.

"The Bachelors" at the opera house to-night.

A great many of our exchanges printed the delinquent tax list last week.

Teamsters are doing a good business now that the roads are again in good condition.

Fred Howland left this morning for Denver, where he will visit a week and accompany Mrs. Howland home.

The reserved seat sale for Mattie Vickers will open Monday morning at J. P. Young's store. Price, 75 cents. Secure your seats early.

The high school notes will appear in Monday's issue as our correspondent failed to get them on file in proper time for to-day's issue.

The Golden band dispensed some fine music upon our street today. It is one of the finest equipped and drilled bands that has ever appeared in our city.

The funeral of Mrs. Fannie Keller, a notice of whose death appeared in THE HERALD yesterday will be preached at the Episcopal church to-morrow at 3 p. m. The friends are cordially invited to be present.

Everybody knows Mattie Vickers, having been here so often, that it is not necessary to say much in her behalf. Her new play, "Edelweiss," is claimed to be the best of all her plays. She also appears in a number of new songs.

Ed Parrott, who has been attending the Nemaha county fair the past week, returned last evening. He will probably remain in the city until after election, when he contemplates settling in Nemaha county.

J. E. Lyda, republican candidate for county superintendent of schools was in town Tuesday looking up his republican friends. Mr. Lyda will make a good superintendent if elected and should receive the entire support of his party.—Wabash News.

A good audience greeted the Goldenes at the matinee this afternoon

We have received a nice line of pattern hats and would be pleased to show them to the ladies of Plattsburgh and vicinity. We have secured Miss Hemple as trimmer.

TUCKER SISTER.

Do not forget the entertainment at the opera house this evening.

LADIES COATS, MISSES CAPES, CHILDREN REEFERS, JACKETS.

FOR FALL AND WINTER WEAR

WE PROPOSE TO SELL THEM CHEAPER

Than ever before offered to the people of Plattsburgh and vicinity.

OUR STOCK IS

Constantly arriving and will soon be complete. It will comprise a full range of all the newest as well as the more staple styles, and will be composed of the newest and choicest productions of domestic and foreign manufacture. For a fit and excellent workmanship our garments can not be excelled. And the prices that we offer them are unprecedented in the amounts of the cloak trade.

WE HAVE a silk seal plush sacque, 38 inches long with quilted satin lining and seal ornaments that we can sell for $12.50. This garment is a perfect reflection of the plush sacque that is universally sold at $15 and $20.

WE HAVE a silk seal plush jacket 28 inches long that we can sell at $9.50 that would be cheap at $12.50, although some merchants ask $15 for the same garment. In the finer grades we have something very elegant and stylish in the trimmed jacket and reefer in both cloth and plush.

THE PROPER thing for Misses this fall and winter will be jackets and reefers, the newmarkets being almost entirely discarded. We have both the Jackets and Reefers for Misses' wear in endless variety.

We bought our cloaks early of first hands and are thereby enabled to offer them at very low figures.

We Solicit your favors and an early inspection of our stock.
