Eagle Items.
From the Eaglelet.
J. M. Ray took possession of the Eaglelet post office on the first of October. He appointed Joe Boiser his deputy who will have main charge of the office.
Mr. and Mrs. J. Q. Adams left last Friday morning for a pleasure tour which includes a visit with two or three daughters, and the corn palace at Sioux City.
One of our readers informs us that the soil in and around Eagle is well adapted for raising the beet sugar. He says he speaks from experience, as he lives in the sugar beet district in Germany, and that those raised here are away ahead of those produced in the old country. This being so there is a chance for a new diversity in crop raising in store for this section. Lincoln is after a sugar refinery and if she succeeds may not Eagle become one of the main points to supply the raw material.

The Eaglelet is in receipts of nine cars of corn raised by Uncle John Summer on sod on McChute's farm. The corn was planted the 1st of June and shows a remarkable growth. The nine cars weighed ten and half pounds, the longest measuring thirteen inches, the shortest ten inches. They will be sent to Boston on the advertising train.

Union Items.
From the Ledger.
The amount of passengers and baggage transferred at this place is increasing every day.
The band received a fine new instrument last Tuesday—a tuba, which adds greatly to the force of the band.
A. N. Sullivan, J. A. Davies, Frank Dickson and Jesse Root were Union visitors Tuesday and Wednesday while going to and returning from the judicial convention at Nebraska City.
George Ferguson has secured a position in the packing house at Nebraska City and expected to remove his family and household goods down there yesterday. The Ledger wishes George success in his new business and will follow him to keep him posted on Union news.

Good Evening! Have you used—Ah! there is no need of my saying anything further, I am sure you will hereafter use nothing but the Famous Blush of Roses for your complexion. Yours with best wishes,

A Sudden Death.
Pearl, daughter of R. Peterson, died yesterday at 11:30 a. m. Age, seven years, one month. Last Wednesday she departed was apparently enjoying perfect health and little was it thought that she would be taken away so soon. The afflicted parents have the sympathy of all in this hour of sadness.
The funeral will be held at the M. E. church, Tuesday, Oct. 13, at 2:30 p. m. A cordial invitation is extended to the friends to be present.

Edelweiss.
Yellow-haired Mattie Vickers, with her cute German accent, her big wooden shoes, and her usual excellent company, appeared before a St. Louis audience yesterday at Pope's, after an absence of three years, in her new play "Edelweiss." Large audiences greeted her and their appreciation of the efforts of herself and company was duly shown. In "Edelweiss" the drama predominates, but Miss Vickers introduces her sketches in a decidedly unobtrusive and pleasant manner. The play is admirably suited to her and she is supported by an excellent company. Eric Pollock furnishes the greater part of the comedy, and he succeeded in thoroughly establishing himself in the favor of the audience. Worthy mention may also be made of Jas. M. Doner, whose dancing was especially pleasing. Miss Vickers carries special scenery, some of which is very pretty, the Swiss scenes being of unusual excellence.—St. Louis Republican.

Will appear at the Waterman tomorrow night. Prices, 35, 50 and 75 cents.

Came to Blows.
John Reed, a well-to-do farmer living across the river, and J. F. Foster, a switchman at the yards, after becoming well filled with liquor proceeded to engage in a general row. Reed abused Foster unmercifully, continuing to kick and strike after having been placed under arrest, though he asserts that the provocation fully warranted it. It appears evident that each of the parties were under the influence of liquor, which, doubtless had a tendency to assist in the trouble.
Foster filed a complaint in the police court to-day charging Reed with assault with intent to do great bodily injury. The trial has been set for next Saturday.

Notice.
St. John's Altar Society will hold a social at the residence of Asher Clark, 405 Nine street, on Thursday evening, Oct. 15. Everybody invited.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.
BY PATRIC GIVE AWAY.
After a vacation of two weeks the notes appear again.
Miss Laura Russel was a visitor in the high school Friday.
A number of the boys from central building were excused at 2:30 Friday afternoon to play ball.
We may expect a boom in educational lines. Prof. Barr took charge last Monday and we have had steam up ever since.

Sad! Last Tuesday morning it became the painful duty of one of the commercial course students to discontinue attendance at school because of his unwillingness to obey those in whose charge he had placed himself.
The principal at the high school now supports a lovely bangled gold ring. It is not customary for a young lady to present "the ring," but cases alter circumstances. The young lady may well feel proud of her success and we extend congratulations.

There are now several literary societies in operation in the schools. The high school has two, the grammar school two, Miss Wilson's room two, and others are being formed. These societies are invaluable to those who take an interest in them.
We will say that the night school that was begun last week is doing excellent work. A goodly number of the prominent young men working in the shops have improved this opportunity of acquiring a better education, the majority taking a business course.

Prof. Musgrave was on hand Monday morning and has successfully conducted the business course for a week. The entire school receives valuable instruction in d'clarsite and penmanship from Prof. Musgrave. He also has a large class taking the commercial course.
We understand that the principal at the high school finds it necessary to reprimand a certain boy in the junior class occasionally. Last week it was for writing in the girls' "wish book." On two occasions he was found doing this and it became necessary for the professor to dig him pretty strongly, he being the only member of the school who took school hours to accommodate the fair ones by writing in their "wish books." It is to be hoped that the young man will, in the future, so conduct himself as to necessitate no special rebuke from the professor.

Slightly Injured.
Wes Grassman finds it necessary to walk with the aid of a cane, owing to a slight injury received as he was walking up Main street. It appears that a nail was protruding from the walk and as Mr. Grassman stepped upon it the nail penetrated his foot causing a painful injury. Too much care cannot well be exercised in keeping the walks in repair.

Bids for Coal.
Notice is hereby given that bids will be received at the county clerk's office up till noon on Friday Oct. 16 for furnishing hard and soft coal to the several county offices, and poorhouse and to the paupers of the city. The coal is to be weighed on the city scales. It is further desired that the bill be certified by weighmaster and accompanied by scale tickets before being presented to board of commissioners.
BIRD-CRITCHFIELD,
County Clerk.

Railroad Racket.
W. J. Williams, after a week's rest, has returned to his work as switchman.
W. D. Boyd of Lincoln has been transferred to the yards at this place.
C. S. Johnson has temporarily been transferred to the night list.
An unusual amount of freight is being handled for this season of the year.

Discharged.
J. F. Foster and R. B. Marshall, who have heretofore done efficient work as switchmen at the yards, were discharged this morning on a charge of drunkenness. It is hoped the charge will prove untrue, that the men may be reinstated.

A Card.
We wish to express our heartfelt thanks for acts of kindness and words of sympathy tendered us during the sickness, death and burial of our beloved relative.
