E. LEYDA. For Coroner: J. L. UNRUH. For Surveyor: A. C. MAYES. For Commissioner First District: S. W. DUTTON.

THE REPUBLICAN PLATFORM

The republican party of the state of Nebraska gives renewed expression of its devotion to the principles of the republican party and declares that those principles, as expressed by the national republican convention, should be the strong point of union between all republicans in the state of Nebraska.

We congratulate the people upon the marvelous prosperity attending the development and growth of the state of Nebraska during its twenty-four years of statehood under republican administration, and which has brought us to the front rank among the leading states of the union; and we can fearlessly assert that no state which has been controlled by democratic power during any considerable time of the same period, can compare with us in the economical management of public affairs, in the rapid ratio of increase in population, wealth and general prosperity, notwithstanding the fact that there are within the borders of the state a number of dissatisfied persons who took advantage of the general financial depression which swept over the entire country to pave their way into temporary prominence by declaiming against the welfare of our people and slandering the fair name of our state.

The rains from heaven and the rich soil, vigorously cultivated by the energetic hands of our farmers, have produced such bountiful crops and such unrivaled prosperity that still since all calamity talkers and add to the strength and enthusiasm of the republican party.

We congratulate President Harrison upon his eminently wise, loyal and courageous administration, and declare our absolute confidence in his integrity, ability and patriotism, and pledge him our cordial support in the discharge of the duties devolving upon him as the chief magistrate of the nation.

We rejoice in the restoration of dignity, vigor and statesmanship in the conduct of our foreign affairs under the guiding hand of America's favorite son, James G. Blaine.

We approve of the silver coinage of the present administration, which the entire product of the mines of the United States is to be used for the currency of the people, we denounce the democratic line of free and unlimited coinage of silver as a financial policy to precipitate the people of every city and every state in the union in a prolonged and disastrous depression, and delay the recovery of business enterprise and prosperity so ardently desired and apparently near. The free unlimited coinage of silver tends to the hoarding of gold to force the use of cheap money in payment of wages in every shop, mill, factory, store and farm, and tend to the scaling down the wages of the toilers and the purchasing power of the products of the farmer.

Everywhere acknowledged that the meetings held by Major McKinley present a marked contrast in point of attendance and enthusiasm with those of Gov. Campbell. Last Thursday an opportunity was afforded each of the candidates of addressing the same audience and Major McKinley proved himself complete master of the situation. The Chicago Inter Ocean in commenting on the debate says: "When the governor had finished his speech and his admirers had cheered him, Colonel Howe took charge of the meeting and introduced Major McKinley. Then the republicans had their inning and they made it appear that the whole crowd were with them by the noise among our own people nor destroy the developing industries of our country.

We are heartily in favor of the general provisions of the interstate commerce act, and we demand the regulation of all railway and transportation lines in such a manner as to insure fair and reasonable rates to the producers and consumers of the country.

We favor such legislation as will prevent all illegal combinations and unjust exactions by aggregated capital and corporate powers. We insist upon the suppression of all trusts, combines and schemes designed to artificially increase the price of the necessities of life.

We regard the world's Columbian exposition as an important event in the world's history, and we are in hearty sympathy with every effort to make it a success. We should make a creditable exhibit of Nebraska's products, and we favor an additional appropriation by the next legislature for this purpose, that our prosperity and greatness may be fully exemplified. We take pride in this state. We recognize that its growth and power, its prosperity and good name have been the fruits of its industrial people, and we believe in such policies, state and national, as will promote justice and widen the opportunities among these classes. To their support in the future, as in the past, we pledge our most intelligent judgment and most sincere endeavor.

We denounce the Grand Island platform of the democratic party as framed with the deliberate purpose to mislead and deceive; wherein sympathy is expressed where none is felt; wherein help is proposed where none is rendered; wherein purposes are avowed which are not entertained. In support of this indictment we point to the pretended friendship for the soldier, while at the same time the democratic party has always proclaimed against the granting of liberal pensions; to the free silver plank, intended to deceive the supporters of free and unlimited coinage of silver, when it is known that many of the leaders of the party are opposed to the doctrine; to the failure to give the relief from exorbitant freight rates while it was afraid to either approve or ensure the action of its acting alien governor for vetoing the Newberry bill.

We denounce the democratic party for its insinuations against the integrity of the supreme court of the state as an effort to make the judicial powers subordinate to political parties and as disgraceful to a political organization.

We denounce the democratic party for its double dealing with the civil and political rights of the people, wherein it appears to favor free and untrammelled elections in the state of Nebraska, but never raises its voice against the political outrages practiced against the republican voters, white and black, throughout the democratic states of the south.

We arraign the democratic party as the enemy of labor, scheming to break down the defense of protective laws, to block the wheels of home industry, and to degrade the masses of the people—a party controlled by aristocratic and sectional tendencies, the legacy of slavery.

The republican party of Nebraska appeals to the intelligence and to the integrity of the people of this state and from all good citizens we invite support.

DOES ANYBODY KNOW the democratic position on the silver question?

ALL eyes are turned toward Ohio, but McKinley is the chief attraction.

DEMOCRATIC endorsement of Edgerton will prevent a great many independents voting for him.

IT every where conceded that Frank Dickson will make a model county clerk. He possesses the requisite essentials and will put forth every effort to serve the people well.

REPUBLICANS, are you winning votes for the county ticket, or do you contemplate voting partly democratic there by "giving the enemy aid and comfort" and promoting their chances for success at future elections.

ONE striking difference between the republican and democratic parties, is that the former never leaves a doubt as to its position upon an important question, and members of the party understand clearly what they are voting for, but with the latter the position is often a matter of doubt and uncertainty.

THE canvass in Ohio has been attracting unusual attention all through the campaign, and it is everywhere acknowledged that the meetings held by Major McKinley present a marked contrast in point of attendance and enthusiasm with those of Gov. Campbell. Last Thursday an opportunity was afforded each of the candidates of addressing the same audience and Major McKinley proved himself complete master of the situation. The Chicago Inter Ocean in commenting on the debate says: "When the governor had finished his speech and his admirers had cheered him, Colonel Howe took charge of the meeting and introduced Major McKinley. Then the republicans had their inning and they made it appear that the whole crowd were with them by the noise they made. They cheered for three or four minutes before they would allow Major McKinley to speak. He waved his hand and quieted them.

Then he began his reply to Governor Campbell at once. He first touched upon what the governor did not say about the silver question. He knocked the governor's free silver platform from under him while Campbell sat there biting his lip. The major not only indicted the governor as having been on both sides of the money question, but he made the governor admit it. He explained that he and Campbell had voted together against free silver. He turned to Campbell as he said this with the remark: "You were not willing then to chance free silver, and I think you think you were right then but wrong now."

"A sad smile rested on the governor's face while he was made to admit that he had not been consistent, and then Major McKinley did a gracious act by adding that he honored a man for preferring to be right rather than consistent and it WAS THE GOVERNOR'S PRIVILEGE and his duty to change ground on the currency and on the tariff if he believed his former course wrong.

"When he took up the tariff McKinley silenced the democrats, kept the republicans cheering, and Campbell sat silent biting his mustache in his nervousness. He had not only the argument against the governor, but the laugh on him. He showed the difference between the master and the amateur in a tariff discussion.

"McKinley was the master of the situation. He met the governor at every point and completely annihilated his alleged argument. He also put the governor on the witness stand against himself and interrogated him about things that the governor declined to talk about.

"It was in his closing that Campbell showed his weakness most. He had been stupid in his opening, but in his closing where he naturally had the advantage of the situation, he became clownish. He did not make a single argument; he did not make a serious statement; he did not courageously answer a single question that McKinley had asked him; he even seemed to be sorry that he had to occupy that twenty minutes in closing. He had been beaten and now he had to get up before the great audience and show his hurts.

"The crowd began to desert him in the beginning of this pitiful exhibition, but Major McKinley promptly stepped to the front and asked the people to remain and hear the governor in his reply.

"The people did stay, and many of them began to ask Governor Campbell questions. They asked him time and again to state his views on the silver question, but he looked at them appealingly and held his tongue. He would not say a word about it. They also ASKED HIM TO ANSWER MAJOR MCKINLEY'S questions regarding the tariff, but he refused and dodged. He preferred to play the clown, and he took up the old lies about tin plate, repeating those when they have been proved false by affidavits from honest men."

L. C. EICKHOFF, Louis C. Eickhoff, a veritable farmer by vocation, and a success at financing, has been nominated by the republicans for county treasurer, and the only objection offered by his adversaries is that he is a farmer, and we are pleased that this objection has been sprung for it shows the people how ardent these brass collared city cusses labor to retain the government of all affairs within their grasp. The Plattsmouth Journal has accused Mr. Eickhoff of this "awful crime of being a farmer," and thinks for that reason he had no business aspiring for the office. We thank fortune that Mr. Eickhoff is a farmer, and a progressive one. The very fact that he will receive the almost unanimous support and vote of his home precinct—which is democratic—is evidence alone of his good standing and reposed ability. One needs but look back over the records of the ex-treasurers of Cass county to see how important it is to choose an honest man and a good calculator. In Mr. Eickhoff we find these qualities. Vote for him, friends, and rest assured your vote will be honorably and unregretfully cast.—Elmwood Echo.

Wonderful. E. W. Sawyer, of Rochester, Wis., a prominent dealer in general merchandise, and who runs several peddling wagons, had one of his horses badly cut and burned with a lariat. The wound refused to heal. The horse became lame and stiff notwithstanding careful attention and the application of remedies. A friend handed Sawyer some of Haller's Barb Wire Liment, the most wonderful thing ever saw to heal such wounds. He applied it only three times and the sore was completely healed. Equally good for all sores, cuts, bruises, and wounds. For sale by all druggists.

A Cure for Paralysis. Frank Cornelius, of Purcell, Ind. Ter, says: "I induced Mr. Pinson, whose wife had paralysis in the face to buy a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. To their great surprise before the bottle had all been used she was a great deal better. Her face had been drawn to one side; but the Pain Balm relieved all pain and soreness, and the mouth assumed its natural shape. It is also a certain cure for rheumatism lame back sprains swellings and lameness. 50 cent bottles for sale by F. G. Fricke & Co., Druggists.

Capt. W. A. Abnett, who has long been with Messrs. Precival and Hatton, Real Estate and Insurance Brokers, Des Moines, Iowa and is one of the best known and most respected business men in that city says: "I can testify to the good qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Having used it in my family for the past eight years, I can safely say it has no equal for either colds or croup." 50 cent bottles for sale by F. G. Fricke & Co., Druggists.

Some of the most startling, interesting discoveries of the life and customs of buried Egypt are now being made through extensive excavations. These discoveries are exciting a great interest. Many discoveries are, however, being made in our country that are remarkable, among which we may mention that of Haller's Pain Paralyzer which effects entire relief, and in many cases a complete cure of that terrible disease rheumatism, and which also relieves pain of all kinds. For sale by all druggists.

A Fatal Mistake. Physicians make no more fatal mistake than when they inform patients that nervous heart troubles come from the stomach and are of little consequence. Dr. Franklin Miles, the noted Indiana specialist, has proven the contrary in his new book on "Heart Disease" which may be had free of F. G. Fricke & Co., who guarantee and recommend Dr. Miles' unequalled new Heart Cure, which has the largest sale of any heart remedy in the world. It cures nervous and organic heart disease, short breath, fluttering, pain or tenderness in the side, arm or shoulder, irregular pulse, fainting, smothering, dropsy, etc. His Restorative Nerve cures headache, fits, etc.
