A well known business man walked into a cigar store the other morning and took out two coins. One was a dollar and the other a half dollar. He laid them both down on the case and pointed to a box of imported cigars, saying, "Give me a dollar's worth of those." The clerk handed them out and the buyer laid the six that he wanted in a row along the case.

Then he said to the clerk, "Give me half a dollar's worth of any good five cent cigar." The clerk did as he was bid, and the five centers were laid along in a row also. The gentleman then took the row of imported cigars and cut the ends off of them all Then he mixed the five centers and the twenty centers up together and put them all into his capacions vest pockets.

A friend who was standing near and who had watched the operation with a good deal of curiosity, said, "Wherefore?" "Simply this, my boy," replied the man addressed. 'I am in a business where I have to give away a good many cigars. I am a man who likes a good cigar. I cannot afford to give away the kind of cigars that I smoke myself, so I buy a day's supply and cut the ends off. Then I buy some cheap ones.

How to Handle Guns.

Having been asked by friends from quently for advice for their boys in handling guns, I send you a digest of

Empty or loaded, never point a gurtoward yourself or any other person

When a-field, carry your gun at the half cock. If in cover, let your hand shield the hammers from whipping

When riding from one shooting ground to another, or whenever you have your gun in any conveyance, remove the cartridges, if a breech loader, it being so easy to replace them. If a muzzle loader, remove the caps, brush off the nipples and place a wad on each nipple, letting down the hammers on wads-simply removing caps sometimes leaves a little fulminate on the nipple, and a blow on the hammer when down discharges it.

Never draw a gun toward you by the barrels.

More care is necessary in the use of a gun in a boat than elsewhere, the limited space, confined action and uncertain motion making it dangerous at the best. If possible no more than two persons should occupy a boat. Hammerless guns are a constant danger to persons boat-

Always clean your guns thoroughly as soon as you return from a day's sport, no matter how tired you feel. The consequence of its always being ready for service is ample return for the few minutes' irksome labor. - Forest and Stream.

Sugar in Tea or Coffee,

If we drop a lump of sugar into a cup of tea we find that it takes a considerable time to melt if allowed to remain at the bottom of the vessel, but if we hold it up in a spoon near the surface of the liquid it dissolves away much more speedily. This arises from the sugar, as it melts, rendering the portion of the beverage containing it heavier. The sweetened part, therefore, descends, leaving the sugar constantly in contact with unsweetened or only partially sweetened tea, and, in fact, a continual circulation of fluid is promoted until the whole is dissolved.

When the sugar is placed or permitted to lie at the bottom of the cup, it dissolves until the layer of food next it is thoroughly sweetened or saturated, when it practically ceases to dissolve any further, the sweetened and heavier stratum above it acting for a considerable time. until the law of diffusion comes gradually into play, like an impervious covering in keeping back the lighter unsweet-

A Pingue of Rutterfles. Munich has been invaded by an enormous army of butterflies. Millions of the species known as "nonnenschmetter linge" attacked the city a few nights ago, attracted, as is supposed, by the brilliancy of the electric lights. The walls of the houses before which electric lamps were fixed were literally covered with the butterflies. In several places they forced their way through the doors and windows and fluttered around the lights. In the Cafe Kaiserhof and the Loewenbran-Keller the intensity of the light fascinated such swarms of the butterfly "nuns" that the devotees of King Gambrinus found their hats and clothes ! so thickly coated with the intruders that they burried out and left the invaders in possession. In some places the lamps were darkened by the mass of butterflies clinging around them. -St. James Ga

Where Caps Are Made.

New York furnishes headgear for nearly nine-tenths of the American heads that wear caps. Perhaps the habitants of this town think they have seen a good many yachting caps within the past few weeks, but as a matter of D. P. New York's Army of Dependents. Did you ever stop to think how large is New York's standing army of dependents, and what persons, under the commissioners of charities and correction, constitute it? According to the last report by the commissioners the total number of disabled, infirm, demented minor or delinquent persons under public charge in the workhouse, city hospitals, almshouses, jails, insane asylums and on Blackwell's island amounted. when the last census of them was taken. to 13,348 Of the number included in the last report 5.804 were at the time in public asylums under city care, 3,134 in city hospitals 1,636 in the workhouse 1,517 in the almshouse and 1,375 in jails and prisons.

This takes into account merely those under the care of the city authorities and maintained wholly at public ex pense. This item of municipal disburse ment amounts to about $2,000,000 a year or $6,000 a day. Six hundred thousand dollars a year are paid for salaries and wages, $1,300,000 for supplies, and the rest for transportation, buildings, rentals and repairs. - New York Sun.

Made Him Ridiculous.

A good story of General Sheridan was told me the other day by a Mexican gentleman, an intimate friend of the great northern soldier in his lifetime. One day, calling on the commander of the army at his office in Washington, he found him at his desk, his feet incased in slippers and his shoes democratically placed on top of the desk. While the general was apparently absorbed in some writing, the Mexican gentleman, who thought some servant had left the warrior's shoes in the wrong place, took his cane and gently deposited the shoes on

The next day the Mexican gentleman called again on Sheridan and found him at his desk, shoes on top as before. The polite resident of the tropics began once more removing the shoes to the floor. when all at once Sheridan roared out:

Don't you do that again, sir! You make me ridiculous, sir!"

"I beg your pardon, general, but how have I made you ridiculous?"

'Why, sir," said Sheridan, still annoyed, "yesterday, sir, I went out to walk after you had called on me. I was nearing the White House when I noticed a gentleman looking at me intently Soon he addressed me, saying, 'Excuse me. general, but aren't you afraid of catching cold? 'Why, sir, no, not that know of, what's the matter, sir? Well, said the gentleman, it is very damp and you are going about in your slippers! I tell you, sir," said Sheridan, addressing his Mexican friend, "you made me ridiculous. It is my habit, sir. to put my shoes on my desk where I cannot fail to see them, so I may not forget to put them on and, confound it, sir. you come around here with your notions of propriety and send me around town in my slippers, sir!"-Boston Herald.

In the police court to-day Anna Luce was tried on a charge of funds for her social campaigns and to drunkeness, plead guilty and was watch over the details of the menage. It fined $5 and cost, in default of payment of which she was sent to jail.
