A jolly crowd of young people gathered at the home of Franz Ballance last evening for a social time. The evening was passed playing games, in rhetorical exercises and music—vocal and instrumental. Before the guests repaired to their respective homes refreshments were served. At 12 o'clock the company disbanded, all feeling that the geniality and hospitality of the host could rarely be excelled. The following were present: Misses Waller, Alice Murray, Mollie Ballance, Lucile Simpson, Gertrude Hilton, Rose Hyes, Mattie Smith, Edith Patterson, Clara Green and Messrs. ALL READY TO MOVE
The Beautiful Train Fully Equipped.
WILL BE HERE AT 4:30 P. M. TODAY.

Artistically Decorated--Well Filled With Products of Nebraska Soil--Don't Fail to be at the Station at 4:30 To-day.

THE HERALD has made a special effort to ascertain the exact hour at which the advertising train will reach this city. We are informed by a special telephone message just received from Omaha that everything is in readiness and the train will leave Omaha at 4 p. m., arriving here at 4:30 or probably a few moments later.

We are reliably informed that the train as regards decorations and general equipment is a model of beauty and ingenious art rarely excelled and on the whole it presents an appearance fully in keeping with the resources and capabilities of our state.

The Cass county exhibit will be found in the last car of the train, and all should make a special effort to view that portion of the display, as in many respects Cass county's display surpasses that of any other county participating in the enterprise.

Samuel Waugh and H. N. Dovey will accompany the train from this place. The former goes as the Cass county delegate. The selection is a good one, Mr. Waugh being well versed regarding the needs of Cass county, her resources and etc., and he can impart this information to the wonder-stricken easterners in a creditable and convincing manner. Mr. Dovey goes as a representative of the State Business Men's Association. To the faithful and efficient work of Mr. Dovey in looking after the interests of Cass county in the matter great credit is due. He will assist Mr. Waugh in extolling the merits of his country.

Up to date twenty-four warrants have been issued for the arrest of the leaders in the recent lynching affair. County Attorney Mahoney apparently, desires to do his duty in the matter, even tho' he does work against a tremendous public sentiment.

To Test the Eight Hour Law.
At Nebraska City yesterday Richard Smith commenced suit against L. Levi, by whom the former has been employed for some time, for the sum of $56 alleged due him for extra work as per the provision of the eight hour law. The case will be waived with interest.

Crow Sugar Bee.
Sugar bees of colossal proportions were exhibited at the Cass county fair this fall, and a prominent german farmer testifies that the soil here is better adapted to their growth than of Germany where they grow profusely. In view of this our farmers are certainly afforded an excellent opportunity of engaging in a profitable industry. The government pays a bounty of two cents per pound upon beet sugar, but aside from that the diversification of the farming industry and the profits accruing from the sale of beets could not fail to remunerate fully for the labor employed.

The reserved seat sale for "A Social Session" next Monday night, will open tomorrow Friday morning at J. P. Young's, prices 75 cents. Secure your tickets early as there no doubt will be a large sale and a rush for tickets, for the company is well known. The company band and orchestra are stronger than heretofore, and the play entirely rewritten, so the play will be almost new to everybody. Don't forget the free concert at noon Monday Oct. 19, by the famous Black Hussar Band.

Nebraska City is excited over the mysterious disappearance of an old resident by the name of Danou. He is about seventy years old, six feet tall, has gray moustache and beard.

Republican clubs are being formed in different sections of the state and they are having a telling effect upon the moulding of public opinion in their respective localities.

Grand Island hotel men have been badly taken in by an oily-tongued swindler who worked an advertising fake on them. It is usually the case when home enterprises are neglected.

A large delegation of the Masonic lodge of this city leaves to-day for Union to participate in the burial of James Chalfant, Sr. The deceased has been a member of the order for many years and is held in high esteem by the members.

It appears pretty conclusive that the democrats and independents will succeed in drawing a good crowd here to-morrow. It is to be regretted, however, that the speaking in each case has been arranged for the same hour, thus disappointing some who may desire to hear the issues discussed from both standpoints.
