

...a slight effect so noticeable in the majority of popular farce comedies. The dialogue is bright and funny, and the situation and scenes so unusual that the audience is kept continually convulsed with laughter, and the fun is of a quality that does not require any hard thinking to appreciate. The play was written for laughter purpose only, and can be aptly and correctly termed a laughter success.

We have received a nice line of pattern hats and would be pleased to show them to the ladies of Plattsmouth and vicinity. We have secured Miss Hemple as trimmer. TUCKER SISTER.

"I'll do it."
"While I think of it, I'll go down and pay that little bill I owe George Vass. It should have been paid a year ago. I understand he's out collecting. I owe him for repairing and also for jewelry." "Yes, your little account with me must be paid by the 15th of October, 1891—must be paid in full to date. If not, you and I will have trouble. GEO. W. VASS, Fifth-st. Jeweler."

A National Event.
The holding of the World's Fair in a city scarcely fifty years old will be a remarkable event, but whether it will really benefit this nation as much as the discovery of the Restorative Nerveine by Dr. Franklin Miles is doubtful. This is just what the American people need to cure their excessive nervousness, dyspepsia, headache, dizziness, sleeplessness, neuralgia, nervous debility, dullness, confusion of mind, etc. It acts like a charm. Trial bottle and fine book on "Nervous and Heart Diseases," with unequalled testimonials free at F. G. Fricke & Co. It is warranted to contain no opium, morphine or dangerous drugs. 1

Rheumatism Cured in a Day.
"Mystic Cure" for rheumatism and neuralgia radically cured in 1 to 3 days. Its action upon the system is remarkable and mysterious. It removes at once the cause and the disease immediately disappears. The first dose greatly benefits. 75c Sold by F. G. Fricke, Druggist. wt

Love and Oratory.
At the oratorical contest held at Cotner university at Lincoln, Neb., Marion Gadd took the second prize. The young man hastily left the room after the announcement of the prizes. A pistol shot was heard, and when the students rushed out they discovered that Gadd had blown his brains out with a revolver. Later developments reveal the fact that young Gadd was deeply in love with the accomplished daughter of one of the wealthiest citizens of Lincoln, and that she had promised to marry him in case he won the first prize in the oratorical contest; otherwise she would have nothing to do with him. He accepted the proposition, with the above sad result.—Cor. St. Louis Republic.

The Snake Charmer Died.
Carl Wilkey, a Dayton (Tenn.) snake charmer and tamer, met a horrible death from the effects of a snake bite. Mr. Wilkey had a big rattlesnake, which he took great pride in exhibiting, but despite all training the snake bit him. He was removing the snake from one box to another, and getting a drop on him the reptile struck him three blows on the hand.—Cor. Atlanta Constitution.

Big Pears.
Mr. Jake Miller was exhibiting five big pears Sunday, the combined weight of which was three pounds and seven ounces. They were of the Bartlett variety and grew on a tree four years old on Mr. Miller's place. There were twenty-one pears on the tree and they were all of the same size, perfectly formed and matured.—Jefferson City, (Mo.) Tribune.

An Early Bird.
Marion Faulconer reports something phenomenal in the way of chicken enterprize. He has a pullet that first saw the light of day on March 15. She laid eggs and hatched a brood of "chicks" on Aug. 26. He requested us to state that if any one can beat this record he would like to hear from them.—La Grange (Mo.) Herald-Democrat.

Particulars of a romantic marriage come from Georgia. Ten years ago the couple, then only boy and girl, were married, but their folks separated them, the bride being sent away. They didn't correspond and neither afterward married. Sometime ago the groom advertised for his wife. She saw the notice, answered it, and both have now again been married.

Two examples of the big tree of California are growing in Central park, New York. They stand on the grassy bluff just west of the Bethesda fountain, near the terrace and mall. Neither is more than eight inches in circumference, and although they have been standing in that spot for twenty-five years, they are not more than that many feet in height.

Captain Trivier says the great Tippu Tib will probably be seen in England before many months. He will be sure of a great reception there, for Tippu Tib is one of the best known men in the world.

We have sold Ely's Cream Balm about three years, and have recommended its use in more than a hundred special cases of catarrh. The unanimous answer to our inquiries is, "It's the best remedy that I have ever used." Our experience is, that where parties continued its use, it never fails to cure.—J. H. Montgomery, & Co., Druggists, Decatur, W. Va.

When I began using Ely's Cream Balm my catarrh was so bad I had headache the whole time and discharged a large amount of filthy matter. That has almost entirely disappeared and I have not had headache since.—J. Sommers, Stephy, Conn.

Pronounced Hopeless, Yet Saved.
From a letter written by Mrs. Ada E. Hurd of Groton, S. D., we quote: "Was taken with a bad cold, which settled on my lungs, cough set in and finally terminated in consumption. Four doctors gave me up saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Saviour, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds. I gave it a trial, took in all eight bottles; it has cured me and thank God I am now a well and hearty woman." Trial bottles free at F. G. Fricke & Co.'s drug store, regular size, 50c. and $1.00.

Ely's Cream Balm is especially adapted as a remedy for catarrh which is aggravated by alkaline dust and dry winds.—W. A. Hover, Druggist, Denver.

My catarrh was very bad. For thirty years I have been troubled with it—have tried a number of remedies without relief. A druggist advised Ely's Cream Balm. I have used only one bottle and I can say I feel like a new man. I make this voluntary statement that others may know of the Balm.—J. W. Mathewson, (Lawyer), Pawtucket, R. I.
