

KNOTT'S BROS, Publishers

Published every Thursday, and daily every other day.

Subscription rates: One year, in advance, $1.50; Six months, in advance, $1.00; Three months, in advance, $0.75; Single copy, 10 cents.

MONDAY, OCTOBER 19, 1901

STATE TICKET

For Associate Justice of the Supreme Court: A. M. PUGH of Platte; For President of the State University: H. F. SHUMWAY of DeWitt; C. B. MARPLE of Cass.

REPUBLICAN COUNTY TICKET

For Clerk of the District Court: A. SALISBURY; For Treasurer: L. C. EICKHOFF; For Sheriff: GEO. EDSON; For County Clerk: FRANK DICKSON; For County Judge: CALVIN RUSSELL; For County Superintendent: J. E. LEYDA; For Coroner: J. L. UNRUH; For Surveyor: A. C. MAYES; For Commissioner First District: S. W. DUTTON.

THE REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.

The republican party of the state of Nebraska gives renewed expression of its devotion to the principles of the republican party and declares that those principles, as expressed by the national republican convention, should be the strong point of union between all republicans in the state of Nebraska.

We congratulate the people upon the marvelous prosperity attending the development and growth of the state of Nebraska during its twenty-four years of statehood under republican administration, and which has brought us to the front rank among the leading states of the union; and we can fearlessly assert that no state which has been controlled by democratic power, during any considerable time of the same period, can compare with us in the economical management of public affairs, in the rapid ratio of increase in population, wealth and general prosperity, notwithstanding the fact that there are within the borders of the state a number of dissatisfied persons who took advantage of the general financial depression which swept over the entire country to pave their way into temporary prominence by declaiming against the welfare of our people and slandering the fair name of our state.

The republican ticket will be elected if every member of the party will do his duty. THE president and his cabinet are said to be discussing several new reciprocity treaties with European countries. Dr. SALISBURY is a man who would run the affairs of the office of district clerk in a highly satisfactory manner. He is an energetic, capable business man that has few equals. Cass county will make no mistake if she elects Dr. Salisbury district clerk.

FOUR hundred pounds of block tin is being taken out of the Temescal, Cal., mines daily. This is sufficient to coat a good many tons of iron plates, making the commercial tin plate. Such items as this are very depressing to those who are declaring that tin cannot be produced in this country. Fremont Tribune.

LOUIS EICKHOFF is one of the most popular candidates on the republican ticket. He is a practical farmer, a successful financier and if elected he will make a record of which his party may feel proud and with which his constituency will be perfectly satisfied. Vote for Louis Eickhoff and your confidence will not be misplaced.

OUR NEXT SHERIFF. In the person of G. C. Edson our republican candidate for sheriff we have a man whom the people can safely trust that important office with, and one who needs not send out of the county to import a deputy to handle the business for him; we have a good honest farmer, who owns a fine farm of his own; we have a man who was not afraid to face the enemy in the late rebellion, but went to the front as a bugle boy at the age of 18 years; we have a good staunch republican and a perfect gentleman in every sense of the word. Vote for him friends and help elect a man that will fill the office with credit. Blue-wood Echo.

among our own people nor destroy the developing industries of our country. We are heartily in favor of general provisions of the interstate commerce act, and we demand regulation of all railway and transportation lines in such a manner as to insure fair and reasonable rates to the producers and consumers of the country. We favor such legislation as will prevent all illegal combinations and unjust exactions by agents, capitalists and corporate bodies. We insist upon the supply of all necessities, combined and increased to artificially raise the price of the necessities of life. We regard the world's Columbian exposition as an important event in the world's history, and we are in hearty sympathy with every effort to make it a success. We should make a creditable exhibit of Nebraska's products, and we favor the legislative appropriation by the state for this purpose, that our prosperity and greatness may be fully exemplified. We take pride in this state. We recognize that its growth and power, its prosperity and good name have been the fruits of its industrial people, and we believe in such policies, state and national, as will promote justice and widen the opportunities among these classes. To their support in the future, as in the past, we pledge our most intelligent judgment and most sincere endeavor. We denounce the Grand Island platform of the democratic party as framed with the deliberate purpose to mislead and deceive; wherein sympathy is expressed where none is felt; wherein help is proposed where none is rendered; wherein purposes are avowed which are not entertained. In support of this indictment we point to the pretended friendship for the soldier, while at the same time the democratic party has always proclaimed against the granting of liberal pensions; to the free silver plank, intended to deceive the supporters of free and unlimited coinage of silver, when it is known that many of the leaders of the party are opposed to the doctrine; to the failure to give the relief from exorbitant freight rates while it was afraid to either approve or censure the action of its acting alien governor for vetoing the Newberry bill. We denounce the democratic party for its insinuations against the integrity of the supreme court of the state as an effort to make the judicial powers subordinate to political parties and as disgraceful to a political organization. We denounce the democratic party for its double dealing with the civil and political rights of the people, wherein it appears to favor free and untrammelled elections in the state of Nebraska, but never raises its voice against the political outrages practiced against the republican voters, white and black, throughout the democratic states of the south. We arraign the democratic party as the enemy of labor, scheming to break down the defense of protective laws, to block the wheels of home industry, and to degrade the masses of the people—a party controlled by aristocratic and sectional tendencies, the legacy of slavery. The republican party of Nebraska appeals to the intelligence and to the integrity of the people of this state and from all good citizens we invite support.

BLAINE'S TRUE POSITION.

Several democratic papers throughout the country have been asserting that Blaine was opposed to the McKinley bill. They sought to prove this by crediting him with the assertion that the bill did not open up a market for a single barrel of pork or bushel of wheat. The Journal of this city as usual was ready to chime in with the other free trade organs, but THE HERALD called a halt by at once reminding our esteemed contemporary that Mr. Blaine used those words before the reciprocity clause had been added and after the committee had added that clause he was a warm supporter of the bill. Mr. Blaine recently wrote the following letter defining his true position:

"AUGUSTA, Me., Oct. 14, 1891.—John Hopley, Esq., Editor of the Journal, Bucyrus, O.—My Dear Sir: You inform me that the democratic paper in your town, and many democratic papers throughout Ohio keep the following paragraph standing in type: 'But there is not a section or line in the entire bill (McKinley tariff) that will open a market for another bushel of wheat or another barrel of pork.'—James G. Blaine to Senator Frye, July 11, 1890.

"This sentence is garbled and taken from its proper connection. It creates a wrong impression. What I did say is the following: 'I do not doubt that in many respects the tariff bill pending in the senate is the just measure and that most of its provisions are in accordance with the wise policy of protection,' but not that 'There is not a section or line in the entire bill that will open a market for another bushel of wheat or another barrel of pork.' 'The letter in which this paragraph occurs was written for Senator Frye on July 11, 1890, and the McKinley bill did not become a law until Oct. 1—nearly three months thereafter. In my letter to Senator Frye I objected to the bill, because it did not contain a reciprocity clause which would provide a market for wheat and pork, for other products of the farm and for various fabrics. 'Before the bill was finally passed the reciprocity clause was inserted and a large addition was made to the free list. It will, therefore, be seen from what I said in my letter, that the objection which I made to the McKinley bill was entirely removed before the bill became a law. 'Let me further say that the reciprocity clause has given ample market for many barrels of flour and many pounds of pork. 'Brazil, some months since, entered into a treaty by which many American articles are admitted free. Flour is made free and pork is admitted at a nominal duty. 'Cuba and Porto Rico have reduced the duty on flour from $5.80 a barrel to $1.00 (which gives us the market) besides putting nearly one hundred articles of American production on the free list. 'San Domingo has made a reciprocity treaty with flour and pork upon the free list, besides a large number of other articles. Other treaties for reciprocity are in progress. 'Germany, without negotiating a formal treaty, has removed the prohibition on pork, and our government, in consideration thereof, has left her sugar on the free list. This opens to us an entirely new market and between $15,000,000 and $20,000,000 of American pork will be consumed per annum, where not a pound has been taken for ten years. 'The reciprocity provision is proving very successful, and especially in farm products and more particularly in the case of the two articles mentioned in the paragraph quoted—flour and pork. 'I am not, therefore, an opponent of the McKinley bill as the democratic papers of Ohio are constantly alleging. On the contrary I have continually supported it ever since it was perfected by the insertion of the reciprocity clause. Very respectfully yours, JAMES G. BLAINE."

The Forum for November will be a number of especial political interest, for it will contain articles on "The Degradation of Pennsylvania Politics," by Mr. Herbert Welsh of Philadelphia; "The Regulation of the Lobby in Massachusetts," by Josiah Quincy, setting forth the operations of the law to restrain the lobby; "The Danger of the Farmers' Alliance," by Senator John T. Morgan, of Alabama; and "The Death of Polygamy in Utah," by Chief Justice Zane, of Salt Lake City.

During balance of picking season I will continue to pay the highest market prices for good varieties of winter apples at canning factory. 28 ct ED SOMERS.

Window glass at Brown & Barrett's

BLAINE'S TRUE POSITION.

Several democratic papers throughout the country have been asserting that Blaine was opposed to the McKinley bill. They sought to prove this by crediting him with the assertion that the bill did not open up a market for a single barrel of pork or bushel of wheat. The Journal of this city as usual was ready to chime in with the other free trade organs, but THE HERALD called a halt by at once reminding our esteemed contemporary that Mr. Blaine used those words before the reciprocity clause had been added and after the committee had added that clause he was a warm supporter of the bill. Mr. Blaine recently wrote the following letter defining his true position:

"AUGUSTA, Me., Oct. 14, 1891.—John Hopley, Esq., Editor of the Journal, Bucyrus, O.—My Dear Sir: You inform me that the democratic paper in your town, and many democratic papers throughout Ohio keep the following paragraph standing in type: 'But there is not a section or line in the entire bill (McKinley tariff) that will open a market for another bushel of wheat or another barrel of pork.'—James G. Blaine to Senator Frye, July 11, 1890.

"This sentence is garbled and taken from its proper connection. It creates a wrong impression. What I did say is the following: 'I do not doubt that in many respects the tariff bill pending in the senate is the just measure and that most of its provisions are in accordance with the wise policy of protection,' but not that 'There is not a section or line in the entire bill that will open a market for another bushel of wheat or another barrel of pork.' 'The letter in which this paragraph occurs was written for Senator Frye on July 11, 1890, and the McKinley bill did not become a law until Oct. 1—nearly three months thereafter. In my letter to Senator Frye I objected to the bill, because it did not contain a reciprocity clause which would provide a market for wheat and pork, for other products of the farm and for various fabrics. 'Before the bill was finally passed the reciprocity clause was inserted and a large addition was made to the free list. It will, therefore, be seen from what I said in my letter, that the objection which I made to the McKinley bill was entirely removed before the bill became a law. 'Let me further say that the reciprocity clause has given ample market for many barrels of flour and many pounds of pork. 'Brazil, some months since, entered into a treaty by which many American articles are admitted free. Flour is made free and pork is admitted at a nominal duty. 'Cuba and Porto Rico have reduced the duty on flour from $5.80 a barrel to $1.00 (which gives us the market) besides putting nearly one hundred articles of American production on the free list. 'San Domingo has made a reciprocity treaty with flour and pork upon the free list, besides a large number of other articles. Other treaties for reciprocity are in progress. 'Germany, without negotiating a formal treaty, has removed the prohibition on pork, and our government, in consideration thereof, has left her sugar on the free list. This opens to us an entirely new market and between $15,000,000 and $20,000,000 of American pork will be consumed per annum, where not a pound has been taken for ten years. 'The reciprocity provision is proving very successful, and especially in farm products and more particularly in the case of the two articles mentioned in the paragraph quoted—flour and pork. 'I am not, therefore, an opponent of the McKinley bill as the democratic papers of Ohio are constantly alleging. On the contrary I have continually supported it ever since it was perfected by the insertion of the reciprocity clause. Very respectfully yours, JAMES G. BLAINE."

The Forum for November will be a number of especial political interest, for it will contain articles on "The Degradation of Pennsylvania Politics," by Mr. Herbert Welsh of Philadelphia; "The Regulation of the Lobby in Massachusetts," by Josiah Quincy, setting forth the operations of the law to restrain the lobby; "The Danger of the Farmers' Alliance," by Senator John T. Morgan, of Alabama; and "The Death of Polygamy in Utah," by Chief Justice Zane, of Salt Lake City.

During balance of picking season I will continue to pay the highest market prices for good varieties of winter apples at canning factory. 28 ct ED SOMERS.

Window glass at Brown & Barrett's

BLAINE'S TRUE POSITION.

Several democratic papers throughout the country have been asserting that Blaine was opposed to the McKinley bill. They sought to prove this by crediting him with the assertion that the bill did not open up a market for a single barrel of pork or bushel of wheat. The Journal of this city as usual was ready to chime in with the other free trade organs, but THE HERALD called a halt by at once reminding our esteemed contemporary that Mr. Blaine used those words before the reciprocity clause had been added and after the committee had added that clause he was a warm supporter of the bill. Mr. Blaine recently wrote the following letter defining his true position:

"AUGUSTA, Me., Oct. 14, 1891.—John Hopley, Esq., Editor of the Journal, Bucyrus, O.—My Dear Sir: You inform me that the democratic paper in your town, and many democratic papers throughout Ohio keep the following paragraph standing in type: 'But there is not a section or line in the entire bill (McKinley tariff) that will open a market for another bushel of wheat or another barrel of pork.'—James G. Blaine to Senator Frye, July 11, 1890.

"This sentence is garbled and taken from its proper connection. It creates a wrong impression. What I did say is the following: 'I do not doubt that in many respects the tariff bill pending in the senate is the just measure and that most of its provisions are in accordance with the wise policy of protection,' but not that 'There is not a section or line in the entire bill that will open a market for another bushel of wheat or another barrel of pork.' 'The letter in which this paragraph occurs was written for Senator Frye on July 11, 1890, and the McKinley bill did not become a law until Oct. 1—nearly three months thereafter. In my letter to Senator Frye I objected to the bill, because it did not contain a reciprocity clause which would provide a market for wheat and pork, for other products of the farm and for various fabrics. 'Before the bill was finally passed the reciprocity clause was inserted and a large addition was made to the free list. It will, therefore, be seen from what I said in my letter, that the objection which I made to the McKinley bill was entirely removed before the bill became a law. 'Let me further say that the reciprocity clause has given ample market for many barrels of flour and many pounds of pork. 'Brazil, some months since, entered into a treaty by which many American articles are admitted free. Flour is made free and pork is admitted at a nominal duty. 'Cuba and Porto Rico have reduced the duty on flour from $5.80 a barrel to $1.00 (which gives us the market) besides putting nearly one hundred articles of American production on the free list. 'San Domingo has made a reciprocity treaty with flour and pork upon the free list, besides a large number of other articles. Other treaties for reciprocity are in progress. 'Germany, without negotiating a formal treaty, has removed the prohibition on pork, and our government, in consideration thereof, has left her sugar on the free list. This opens to us an entirely new market and between $15,000,000 and $20,000,000 of American pork will be consumed per annum, where not a pound has been taken for ten years. 'The reciprocity provision is proving very successful, and especially in farm products and more particularly in the case of the two articles mentioned in the paragraph quoted—flour and pork. 'I am not, therefore, an opponent of the McKinley bill as the democratic papers of Ohio are constantly alleging. On the contrary I have continually supported it ever since it was perfected by the insertion of the reciprocity clause. Very respectfully yours, JAMES G. BLAINE."

The Forum for November will be a number of especial political interest, for it will contain articles on "The Degradation of Pennsylvania Politics," by Mr. Herbert Welsh of Philadelphia; "The Regulation of the Lobby in Massachusetts," by Josiah Quincy, setting forth the operations of the law to restrain the lobby; "The Danger of the Farmers' Alliance," by Senator John T. Morgan, of Alabama; and "The Death of Polygamy in Utah," by Chief Justice Zane, of Salt Lake City.

During balance of picking season I will continue to pay the highest market prices for good varieties of winter apples at canning factory. 28 ct ED SOMERS.

Window glass at Brown & Barrett's

SANTA CLAUS SOAP advertisement featuring an illustration of Santa Claus and text: "YOU ASK ME WHY 'TIS SANTA THE REASON'S PLAIN I HOPE, AS GOOD SAINT NICK'S THE FAVORITE SO IT'S THE FAVORITE SOAP BRINGS JOY TO THE HEARTS OF ALL HOUSEKEEPERS. MADE ONLY BY N.K. FAIRBANK & CO. CHICAGO"

WEIDMAN & BREKENFEL advertisement for hardware: "WEIDMAN & BREKENFEL ARE THE LEADERS In all that goes to make up a first class line of Hardware their stores in CAR-LOAD-LOAD and thus are enabled to undersell all competitors Fifty-One Sample Stoves, ARE ON EXHIBITION AT OUR STORE The Radiant Home and celebrated Round Oak are their specialties. This firm has the exclusive agency of the celebrated anti-rusting tinware guaranteed for one year. A large line of Copperware, tinware, and Graniteware. They also have fine assortment of painter tools, and shelf hardware. Prices have been right down to suit the times. DON'T FORGET The Place for bargains in every department of our mammoth stock Hardware. WEIDMAN & BREKENFEL PLATTSMOUTH, NEBRASKA"

NEW LUMBER YARD advertisement: "NEW LUMBER YARD J. D. GRAVES & CO. DEALERS IN PINE LUMBER, SHINGLES, LATH, SASH, DOORS, BLINDS, and all building material Call and see us at the corner of 11th and Elm street, one block north of Heisel's mill. Plattsmouth, Nebraska"

I. PEARLMAN'S advertisement: "Everything to Furnish Your House. AT I. PEARLMAN'S GREAT MODERN HOUSE FURNISHING EMPORIUM. Having purchased the J. V. Weckbach store room on south Main street where I am now located I can sell goods cheaper than the cheapest having just put in the largest stock of new goods ever brought to the city. Gasoline stove and furniture of all kinds sold on the installment plan. I. PEARLMAN."

F. G. FRICKE & CO advertisement: "F. G. FRICKE & CO WILL KEEP CONSTANTLY ON HAND A Full and Complete line of Drugs, Medicines, Paints, and Oils. SUGGESTS SUNDRIES AND PURE LIQUORS Prescriptions Carefully Compounded at all Hours"

CATARRH advertisement: "Eyes Cream Balm For CATARRH THE POSITIVE CURE. ELY BROTHERS, 64 Warren St., New York. Price 50 cts. GOOD BAR CONNECTED"