Pure buckwheat flour for sale at Heise's mill.

A Family Trouble.
Last evening one Kennedy, who lives in Billingstown, went home drunk and began to abuse his wife. It appears, however, that she was equal to the emergency and got the better of her unruly helpmate (s), whereupon the enraged husband went to the residence of Wes Stoneking for assistance. Stoneking arrived upon the scene and at once discovered that Kennedy was the more to blame and instead of turning the batteries upon the feminine side of the house he began a pugilistic crusade against Kennedy, resulting in no great damage to either party. The neighbors have several times complained that the trouble in the Kennedy family has been obnoxious to them, and it is truly hoped that it will not occur again. In the event of a drunken husband abusing his family the sympathy of the people is always on the side of the home.

We have just 8000 pieces vocal and instrumental music at the low price of ten cents each. Special discount on large quantities call and get catalogue free. You can get the same music from this lot at ten cents that you will pay forty to sixty cents for elsewhere. They won't last long. Come early.

LEHNHOFF BROS.

Fine shoes selling low at the Schildknecht shoe store.

"Isn't She Beautiful!" Occasionally one hears this expression, as a lady with a strikingly lovely complexion passes along the street. Certainly! she uses the Famous Bush of Roses manufactured by Miss Flora A. Jones, South Bend, Ind., supplied by O. H. Snyder. Price 75 cents per bottle.

Parties owing me for medical treatment will please call at my office, corner of Main and Seventh streets, at their earliest convenience and settle accounts, as I am in need of money. Especially long standing accounts must be settled by cash or note at once. I have given much time in many cases and now the favor must come the other way.

Respectfully,
W. H. SCHILDKNECHT, M. D.

"An American Boy" at the opera house to-night.

Merchants are receiving their supply of holiday goods.

Free transportation to Weeping Water Saturday evening.

District court adjourned this morning until next Thursday at 2 p. m.

"An American Boy," one of the best comedies on the road, at the Waterman to-night.

Remember the independent rally to-morrow. Hon Jesse Harper, of Danville, Ill., is the orator.

Attend the rally at Weeping Water next Saturday evening and near "Republicanism of the Present Hour."

Louise Dillman, a resident of Lincoln avenue, is passing the cigars to-day in celebration of the advent of a son at his home.

The regular meeting of the Young Ladies' Missionary Society will be held Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the M. E. church.

The street car men, of Lincoln, are receiving a great many counterfeit dollars of recent make. It might be well to lookout for them in this section.

The Omaha Public Library containing 25000 volumes was destroyed by fire last evening. It is probable that bonds will be voted for the equipment of new library.

J. W. Sperry folded his tent last evening and silently went away. He will remain at Weeping Water until next show season, when he will enlarge his exhibition.

We acknowledge the receipt of a fine piece of pen work executed by J. P. Becker of Union. The design represents a republican candidate astride a deer, riding swiftly to victory. The work reflects credit upon Mr. Becker as an amateur penman.

Wiley Black, our enterprising apple dealer, ships another car load of apples to-day. Cass county is making a record as an apple producing county, equaled by no county in the state. She contrived to place the best display in the advertising train, also.

Several cases of diphtheria have been reported at Nebraska City and there is fear that it may become epidemic. The Press sounds a timely note of warning in which citizens are cautioned to exercise the utmost precaution to prevent the spread of the disease.

The twelfth annual state convention of the Young Men's Christian Association will be held in Lincoln Nov. 5 to 8, inclusive. The secretary, in making the announcement, says that the association was never in a more prosperous condition. It is expected that 500 delegates will be in attendance.

County Clerk Critchfield delivered poll books and ballots in the neighborhood of Union yesterday. He says that every man whom he met said that it happened the word "republican" was opposite the name for which they wished to vote. That is the way it is going in every locality, they say.

Dr. Salisbury, republican candidate for district clerk has traveled over the county considerably of late, and he is firmly convinced the greater portion of the republican ticket will be elected by a handsome majority. He thinks that it is highly probably, however, that the entire ticket will be elected.

The good qualities of J. M. Muir's pianos were exhibited last evening to an appreciative audience. The performer, one of the best we have known here for some time, was Chas. Keefer. By request, he played some of the most difficult pieces known to local musicians, after which his execution was pronounced to be fine.

W. L. Brownie's authority for saying that he has traveled over the county considerably and he feels confident it is not true, as has been charged, that County Attorney Travis failed to convict ten or twelve democratic criminals at the district court this term, that he might secure their support in his canvass for district judgeship. To the end that the candidate for district judge may be placed before the people in the right light, Mr. Brownie says that, in all probability, his labors were as effective as his ability would permit.

Have you registered?

MURRAY ITEMS.

Robert Root is suffering from the effects of a sprained wrist.

J. W. Edmunds has built a new corn crib in his lot and is having the corn from his farm stored there.

Miss Media Rueterholz went to Plattsmouth Monday to engage in the dressmaking business with the Misses Tucker.

Joe Ellington, road overseer is getting some of the roads in rather good shape, but still some are suffering from want of work.

Mrs. Pitman, mother of D. J. Pitman, who has been visiting with relatives here the past summer departs for her home in Indiana Thursday.

Mrs. Lena Brooks and daughter from Missouri, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Will Holmes and Mrs. Archie Holmes took her departure for her home last Friday.

Murray can now boast of stockyards which are now completed and now accommodations are as good at Murray for shipping over the road as any station along the line.

Elmer McCounohy, who has been attending school at the Western Normal College, Shenandoah, Iowa for the past six months returned home Tuesday evening, well pleased with progress made in the Normal course of study.

On last Friday evening the young people of Murray assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Ables, two miles south of town and had a general good time. The occasion being in honor of his son, Homer and wife. To say they were greatly surprised does not express it but still greater was the surprise when they were presented with a dinner set of one hundred and twelve pieces from the young people of Murray, who before hand, had prepared the surprise. About forty were present and after spending the evening in games each departed to their home thinking it was good to be there.

A. G. A. R. Post at Louisville
A G. A. R. post was organized last evening at Louisville by H. C. McMaken. The post starts out with a membership of about twenty and the number will constantly increase. The membership is composed of a class of men that will make the organization a success.

The following G. A. R. men assisted in the muster: Jos. Teeter, department commander; John Bowen, adjutant general; H. J. Streight, second quartermaster general, and J. B. Stockwell.

The following officers were elected: Post commander, A. G. Cline; senior vice commander, A. J. Barker; junior vice commander, Benjamin Therdosky; adjutant, Benjamin Ward.

District Court.
In the case brought on a writ of habeas corpus in which it was alleged that Cyrus Randall was wrongfully detained, the prisoner was released. He was held pending a probable call that he be delivered to Iowa authorities, to be tried on the charge of perjury. As the proper authorities were not heard from he was released.

In the case McCoy vs. Petersen Bros., the jury failed to agree, and the case was continued.

A Pleasant Party.
A pleasant social event occurred at the residence of Frank Boyd last evening, in honor of the eighteenth birthday of his daughter, Miss Ollie. The immediate friends to the number of about twenty were invited and the evening was spent very pleasantly and profitably by all. It was a proverbial late hour ere the party broke up and the participants sought their respective homes, delighted with the evening's entertainment.

Attend the Rally.
As per yesterday's announcement the grandest political demonstration of the campaign will be held in Weeping Water Saturday evening. Hon. A. M. Post, and J. L. Webster, will expound republicanism of the present hour, in a manner worthy the attention of all. Arrangements have been made for free transportation for all that desire to go. A cordial invitation is extended to democrats, independents and whatnot to join in the trip. The B. & M. band will accompany the delegation. The train leaves the M. P. station at 5:50. Let 500 people go from here.
